29 There is ^bEdom, her kings and all her princes, who ^cin their might are laid with them that are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the ^duncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit. 30 There are the princes of the ^enorth, all of them, and all the ^fSidonians, who are gone down with the slain; ^gin the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie ^huncircumcised with them that are slain by the sword, and ⁱbear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 ^jPharaoh shall see them, and shall be ^kcomforted over all his multitude, ^leven Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, saith the Lord Jehovah. 32 For I have put ^mhis ⁿterror in the ^oland of the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the ^puncircumcised, with them that are ^qslain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord Jehovah.

take any person from among them; he is ^ataken away ¹in his iniquity, but his ^bblood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 So thou, son of man, I have ^cset thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them ^dwarning from me. 8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt ^esurely die, and thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die ^fin his iniquity, but his blood will I ^grequire at thy hand. 9 Nevertheless, if thou ^hwarn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he ⁱturn not from his way; he shall die ^jin his iniquity, but thou hast ^kdelivered thy soul.

10 And thou, son of man, say unto the house of Israel: Thus ye speak, saying, ^l^mOur transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we ⁿpine away ^oin them; ^phow then can we live? 11 Say unto them, ^qAs I live, saith the Lord Jehovah, I have ^rno pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked ^sturn from his way and live: ^tturn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? 12 And thou, son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The ^urighteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall ^vnot fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall he that is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sinneth. 13 When I say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and ^wcommit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but ^xin his iniquity that he hath committed, ^ytherein shall he die. 14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he ^zturn from his sin, and do that which is ^{aa}lawful and right; 15 if the wicked ^{ab}restore the pledge, ^{ac}give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the ^{ad}statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. 16 ^{ae}None of his sins that he hath committed shall be remembered against him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ^{af}Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. 18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and ^{ag}committeth iniquity, he shall even die ^{ah}therein. 19 And when the wicked turneth from his wickedness, and doeth that which is ^{ai}lawful and right, he shall live thereby. 20 Yet ^{aj}ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, I will ^{ak}judge you every one after his ways.

21 And it ^{al}came to pass in the ^{am}twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth ^{an}month, in the fifth ^{ao}day of the month, that one that had ^{ap}escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten. 22 Now the ^{aq}hand of Jehovah had been upon me in the evening, before he that was escaped came; and he had ^{ar}opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was ^{as}opened, and I was no more dumb.

30 And as for thee, son of man, the ^a children of thy people talk of thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, 'Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from Jehovah. 31 And they come unto thee ^a as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they ^a hear thy words, but do them not; for with their ^a mouth they show much love, but their heart ^a goeth after their gain. 32 And, lo, thou art unto them as ^a a very lovely song of one that hath a ^a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear thy words, but they do them not. 33 And when this ^a cometh to pass (behold, it cometh), then shall they know that a ^a prophet hath been among them.

34 And the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, prophesy against the ^a shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, even to the shepherds, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Woe unto the shepherds of Israel that do feed ^a themselves! should not the shepherds feed the ^a sheep? 3 Ye ^a eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye ^a kill the fatlings; but ye feed not the sheep. 4 The ^a diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye ^a bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought back that which was driven away, neither have ye ^a sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor have ye ruled over them. 5 And they were ^a scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became ^a food to all the beasts of the field, and were scattered. 6 My sheep ^a wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, ^a my sheep were scattered upon all the face of the earth; and there was ^a none that did search or seek after them.

Devastation of Edom threatened. Mountains of Israel to be blessed

"make myself known among them, ¹when I shall judge thee. 12 And thou shalt know ²that I, Jehovah, have heard all thy revilings which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, ³They are laid desolate, they are ^bgiven us to devour. 13 And ye have ^cmagnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have ^amultiplied your words against me: ^eI have heard it. 14 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: When the whole earth ^frejoiceth, I will make thee desolate. 15 As thou didst ^grejoice over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, ^hso will I do unto thee: thou shalt be ⁱdesolate, O mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

36 And thou, son of man, prophesy unto the ^kmountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of Jehovah. 2 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because the enemy hath said against you, ^lAha! and, The ancient ^mhigh places are ⁿours in possession; 3 therefore prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because, even because they have made you ^odesolate, and ^pswallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the nations, and ye are taken up in the ^qlips of talkers, and the evil report of the people; 4 therefore, ye ^rmountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Jehovah: Thus saith the Lord Jehovah to the ^smountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a ^tprey and ^uderision to the residue of the nations that are round about; 5 therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Surely in the fire of my ^vjealousy have I spoken against the ^wresidue of the nations, and against all ^xEdom, that have ^yappointed my land unto themselves for a possession with the ^zjoy of all their heart, with ^{aa}despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey. 6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the ^{ab}mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I have spoken in my ^{ac}jealousy and in my wrath, because ye have ^{ad}borne the shame of the nations: 7 therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I have ^{ae}sworn, saying, Surely the nations that are round about you, they shall ^{af}bear their shame.

8 But ^{ag}ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall ^{ah}shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will ^{ai}turn unto you, and ye shall be ^{aj}tilled and sown; 10 and I will multiply men upon you, ^{ak}all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the ^{al}cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded; 11 and I will multiply upon you ^{am}man and beast; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your ^{an}former estate, and will do ^{ao}better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am Jehovah. 12 Yea, I will cause ^{ap}men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall ^{aq}possess thee, and thou shalt be their ^{ar}inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth ^{as}bereave them of children. 13 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Because they say unto you, Thou ^{at}land art a ^{au}devourer of men, and hast been a bereaver of thy ^{av}nation; 14 therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither ^{aw}bereave thy ^{ax}nation any more, saith the Lord Jehovah; 15 neither will I ^{ay}let thee hear any more the ^{az}shame of the nations, neither shalt thou bear the ^{ba}reproach of the peoples any more, neither shalt thou cause thy ^{bb}nation to ^{bc}stumble any more, saith the Lord Jehovah.

16 Moreover the word of Jehovah came unto me, saying, 17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they ^{bd}defiled it by their way and by their doings: by their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. 18 Wherefore I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood which they had poured out upon the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; 19 and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. 20 And when they came unto the nations, whither they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of Jehovah, and are gone forth out of his land. 21 But I had regard for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: I do not this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which ye have profaned among the nations, whither ye went. 23 And I will sanctify my great name, which hath been profaned among the nations, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am Jehovah, saith the Lord Jehovah, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. 24 For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. 25 And I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. 26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. 27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep mine ordinances, and do them. 28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. 29 And I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine upon you. 30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. 31 Then shall ye remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 Not for your sake do I this, saith the Lord Jehovah, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel. 33 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be builded. 34 And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all that passed by. 35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited. 36 Then the nations that are left round about you shall know that I, Jehovah, have builded the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Jehovah, have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. 38 As the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am Jehovah.

37 The hand of Jehovah was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of Jehovah, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. 2 And he caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. 3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord Jehovah, thou knowest.

The Dry Bones made to live. They typify God's People. Reunion of Judah and Israel. David to be their King

4 Again he said unto me, ^a Prophecy over these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, ^b hear the word of Jehovah. 5 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah unto these bones: Behold, I will cause ¹ breath to enter into you, and ye shall live. 6 And I will ^a lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and will cover you with skin, and put ¹ breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall ^a know that I am Jehovah.

7 So I prophesied ^a as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a ² noise, and, behold, an ^a earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8 And I beheld, and, lo, there were sinews upon them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. 9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the ³ wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the ³ wind, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Come from the four winds, O ⁴ breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may ⁴ live. 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the ^a breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an ^a exceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the ^m whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our ⁿ bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean ^a cut off. 12 Therefore prophecy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Behold, I will open your graves, and ^a cause you to come up out of your graves, O my people; and I will bring you into the ^a land of Israel. 13 And ye shall ^a know that I am Jehovah, when I have ^a opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, O my people. 14 And I will ^a put my ^a Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and ye shall know that ^a I, Jehovah, have spoken it and performed it, saith Jehovah.

15 The word of Jehovah came again unto me, saying, 16 And thou, son of man, take thee ^a one stick, and write upon it, For ^a Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take

I have spoken. 9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall "go forth, and shall make "fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; 10 so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall "plunder those that plundered them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord Jehovah.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto "Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of them that pass through "on the "east of the sea; and it shall stop them that pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of "Hamon-gog. 12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may "cleanse the land. 13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a "renown in the day that I shall be "glorified, saith the Lord Jehovah. 14 And they shall set apart men of continual employment, that shall pass through the land, and, with them that pass through, those that "bury them that remain upon the face of the land, to "cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. 15 And they that pass through the land shall pass through; and when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he "set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of "Hamon-gog. 16 And "Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they "cleanse the land.

17 And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Speak unto the "birds of every sort, and to every "beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my "sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh and drink blood. 18 Ye shall eat the "flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of ^arams, of lambs, and of goats, of ^bbullocks, all of them fatlings of ^cBashan. 19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my ^dsacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. 20 And ye shall be filled at my table with ^ehorses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord Jehovah.

21 And I will set my ^fglory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them. 22 So the house of Israel shall ^gknow that I am Jehovah their God, from that day and forward. 23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their ^hiniquity; because they ⁱtrespassed against me, and I ^jhid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. 24 According to their ^kuncleanness and according to their transgressions did I unto them; and I ^lhid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord Jehovah: Now will I ^mbring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole ⁿhouse of Israel; and I will be ^ojealous for my holy name. 26 And they shall ^pbear their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they shall ^qdwell securely in their land, and ^rnone shall make them afraid; 27 when I have ^sbrought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am ^tsanctified in them in the sight of many nations. 28 And they shall know that I am Jehovah their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have ^ugathered them unto their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; 29 neither will I ^vhide my face any more from them; for I have ^wpoured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord Jehovah.

the gate, thirteen cubits; 12 and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. 13 And he measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of five and twenty cubits; door against door. 14 He made also ^aposts, threescore cubits; and the ^bcourt reached unto the posts, round about the gate. 15 And from the forefront of the gate at the entrance unto the forefront of the ¹inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. 16 And there were ^cclosed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the ^{2d}arches; and windows were round about inward; and upon each post were ^cpalm-trees.

17 Then brought he me into the ^fouter court; and, lo, there were ^gchambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: ^hthirty chambers were upon the pavement. 18 And the pavement was by the ^sside of the gates, answerable unto the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. 19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the ¹lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, a ^khundred cubits, both on the east and on the north.

20 And the ¹gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured the length thereof and the breadth thereof. 21 And the ^mlodges thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the ⁿarches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was ^ofifty cubits, and the breadth ^pfive and twenty cubits. 22 And the ^qwindows thereof, and the arches thereof, and the ^qpalm-trees thereof, were after the measure of the ^rgate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven ^ssteps; and the arches thereof were before them. 23. And there was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate a ^thundred cubits.

28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate ^{ac}according to these measures; 29 and the ^{ad}lodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the ^{ae}arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were ^{af}windows in it and in the arches thereof round about; it was ^{ag}fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. 30 And there were ^{ah}arches round about, five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. 31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and ^{ai}palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the ascent to it had eight ^{aj}steps.

32 And he brought me into the ^{ak}inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate ^{al}according to these measures; 33 and the ^{am}lodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were ^{an}windows therein and in the arches thereof round about; it was ^{ao}fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. 34 And the ^{ap}arches thereof were toward the outer court; and ^{aq}palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight ^{ar}steps.

38 And a ^cchamber with the door thereof was by the posts at the gates; there they ^dwashed the burnt-offering. 39 And ^ein the porch of the gate were two ^ftables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the ^gburnt-offering and the sin-offering and the trespass-offering. 40 And on the ^hone side without, ⁱas one goeth up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. 41 Four ^jtables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew ^kthe sacrifices. 42 And there were ^lfour tables for the burnt-offering, of ^mhewn stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the ⁿburnt-offering and the sacrifice. 43 And the ^ohooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened ^pwithin round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the oblation.

44 And without the ^qinner gate were ^rfive chambers for the ^ssingers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. 45 And he said unto me, This ^tchamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the ^ukeepers of the charge of the house; 46 and the ^vchamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the ^wkeepers of the charge of the altar: these are the ^xsons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi ^ycome near to Jehovah to minister unto him. 47 And he measured the court, a ^zhundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.

41 And he ^mbrought me to the ⁿtemple, and measured the ^oposts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the ^ptabernacle. 2 And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the ^qsides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, ^rforty cubits, and the breadth, ^stwenty cubits. 3 Then went he ^tinward, and measured each ^upost of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits. 4 And he measured the length thereof, ^vtwenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the ^wtemple: and he said unto me, This is the ^xmost holy place.

5 Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every ^yside-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. 6 And the side-chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they ^zentered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold ^atherein, and not have hold in the wall of the house. 7 And ^bthe side-chambers were broader as they encompassed ^cthe house higher and higher; for the ^dencompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house ^econtinued upward; and so one went up ^ffrom the lowest chamber to the highest by the middle chamber. 8 I saw also ^gthat the house had ^ha raised

12 And the ^fbuilding that was before the ^gseparate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. 13 So he measured the house, a ^hhundred cubits long; and the ⁱseparate place, and the ^jbuilding, with the walls thereof, a ^khundred cubits long; 14 also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the ^lseparate place toward the east, a ^mhundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the ⁿbuilding before the ^oseparate place which was at the back thereof, and the ^pgalleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; 16 the ^qthresholds, and the ^rclosed windows, and the ^sgalleries round about on their ^tthree stories, over against the threshold, ^uceiled with wood round about, and ^vfrom the ground up to the windows (now the windows were covered), 17 to the ^wspace above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, ^xby measure. 18 And it was made with ^ycherubim and ^zpalm-trees; and a palm-tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; 19 so that there was the face of a ^{aa}man toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young ^{ab}lion toward the palm-tree on the other side. Thus was it made through all the house round about: 20 from the

21 As for the ^{au}temple, the door-^{av}posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance thereof was ^{aw}as the appearance of the temple. 22 The ^{ax}altar was of wood, three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and ^{ay}the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the ^{az}table that is before Jehovah. 23 And the ^{ba}temple and the ^{bb}sanctuary had two ^{bc}doors. 24 And the doors had two leaves ^{bd}apiece, two ^{be}turning leaves: two ^{bf}leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. 25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, ^{bg}cherubim and ^{bh}palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there was a ^{bi}threshold of wood ^{bj}upon the face of the porch without. 26 And there were ^{bk}closed windows and ^{bl}palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the ^{bm}porch: thus were the ^{bn}side-chambers of the house, and the thresholds.

42 Then he ^{bo}brought me forth into the ^{bp}outer court, the way ^{bq}toward the north: and he brought me into the ^{br}chamber that was over against the ^{bs}separate place, and which was over against the ^{bt}building toward the north. 2 Before the length of a ^{bu}hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. 3 Over against the ^{bv}twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the ^{bw}pavement which belonged to the outer court, was ^{bx}gallery against gallery ^{by}in the third story. 4 And before the ^{bz}chambers was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of ^{ca}one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. 5 Now the upper chambers were shorter; for the ^{cb}galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middlemost, in the building. 6 For they were in ^{cc}three stories, and they had not pillars as the pillars of the courts; therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the

10 In the thickness of the ^{1a} wall of the court toward the east, before the ^c separate place, and before the building, there were ^d chambers. 11 And the ^e way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; ² according to their length so was their breadth: and all their egresses were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the ^{1h} wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the ^c separate place, they are the ² holy chambers, where the priests that are ¹ near unto Jehovah shall eat the ^m most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy. 14 When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall ⁿ lay their ^o garments wherein they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertaineth to the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the ^p gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. 16 He measured on the east ³ side with the measuring reed five hundred ^a reeds, with the measuring reed round about. 17 He measured on the north ³ side five hundred reeds with the meas-

house to the house of Israel, that they may be ^aashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the ¹pattern. 11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known unto them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the ^begresses thereof, and the entrances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the laws thereof; and write it ^cin their sight; that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and ^ddo them. 12 This is the law of the house: upon the top of the ^emountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the ^faltar by cubits (the ^gcubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the ^hbottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about a span; and this shall be the ⁱbase of the altar. 14 And from the bottom ^jupon the ground to the lower ^kledge shall be two cubits; and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit. 15 And the ^lupper altar shall be four cubits; and from the ^maltar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad, ⁿsquare in the four sides thereof. 17 And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit round about; and the ^osteps thereof shall ^plook toward the east.

18 And he said unto me, ^qSon of man, thus saith the Lord Jehovah: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer ^rburnt-offerings thereon, and to ^ssprinkle blood thereon. 19 Thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that are of the seed of ^tZadok, who are ^unear unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord Jehovah, a ^vyoung bullock for a ^wsin-offering. 20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put on the four ^xhorns of it, and on the four corners of the ^yledge, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou ^zcleanse it and make atonement for it. 21 Thou shalt also take the bullock of the sin-offering, and it shall be ^{aa}burnt in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary. 22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a ^{ab}he-goat without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall ^{ac}cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock. 23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young ^{ad}bullock without blemish, and a ^{ae}ram out of the flock without blemish. 24 And thou shalt bring them near before Jehovah, and the priests shall cast ^{af}salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto Jehovah. 25 ^{ag}Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. 26 Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they ^{ah}consecrate it. 27 And when they have accomplished the days, it shall be that upon the ^{ai}eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your ^{aj}peace-offerings; and I will ^{ak}accept you, saith the Lord Jehovah.

44 Then he brought me back by the way of the ^{al}outer gate of the sanctuary, which looketh toward the east; and it was shut. 2 And Jehovah said unto me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for ^{am}Jehovah, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. 3 As for the ^{an}prince, he shall sit therein as prince to ^{ao}eat bread before Jehovah; he shall ^{ap}enter by the way of the ^{aq}porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then he brought me by the way of the ^{ar}north gate before the house; and I looked, and, behold, the ^{as}glory of Jehovah filled the house of Jehovah: and I ^{at}fell upon my face. 5 And Jehovah said unto me, ^{au}Son of man, ^{av}mark well,

The Sanctuary not to be profaned. Duties of the Levites that went astray. Ordinances for the Priests, the Sons of Zadok and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ^aordinances of the house of Jehovah, and all the laws thereof; and ¹mark well the entrance of the house, with every egress of the sanctuary. 6 And thou shalt say to the ^brebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: O ye house of Israel, ^clet it suffice you of all your abominations, ⁷in that ye have brought in ^d“foreigners, uncircumcised in ^e“heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when ye ^foffer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have ^gbroken my covenant, ²to add unto all your abominations. 8 And ye have not ^hkept the charge of my holy things; but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah, ⁱ“No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners that are among the children of Israel. 10 But the Levites that went far from me, when Israel went astray, that ^j“went astray from me after their idols, they shall ^k“bear their iniquity. 11 Yet they shall be ^l“ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the ^m“gates of the house, and ⁿ“ministering in the house: they shall ^o“slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall ^p“stand before them to minister unto them. 12 Because they ministered unto them ^q“before their idols, and became a ^r“stumblingblock of iniquity unto the house of Israel; therefore have I ^s“lifted up my hand against them, saith the Lord Jehovah, and they shall ^t“bear their iniquity. 13 And they shall ^u“not come near unto me, to execute the office of priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, unto the things that are most holy; but they shall ^v“bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. 14 Yet will I make them ^w“keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the ^x“priests the Levites, the ^y“sons of Zadok, that ^z“kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel ^a“went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me; and they shall ^b“stand before me to offer unto me the ^c“fat and the ^d“blood, saith the Lord Jehovah: 16 they shall ^e“enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my ^f“table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge. 17 And it shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with ^g“linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and ^h“within. 18 They shall have linen ⁱ“tires upon their heads, and shall have ^j“linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with ^k“anything that causeth sweat. 19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall ^l“put off their garments wherein they minister, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, that they ^m“sanctify not the people with their garments. 20 Neither shall they ⁿ“shave their heads, nor ^o“suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. 21 Neither shall any of the priests drink ^p“wine, when they enter into the inner court. 22 Neither shall they take for their wives a ^q“widow, nor her that is ^r“put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that is the widow of a priest. 23 And they shall teach my people the ^s“difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. 24 And in a controversy ^t“they shall stand to judge; according to mine ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my ^u“appointed feasts; and they shall ^v“hallow my sabbaths. 25 And they shall go in to no ^w“dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves. 26 And after he is ^acleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days. 27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, into the ^binner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his ^csin-offering, saith the Lord Jehovah.

28 And they shall have an inheritance: ^dI am their inheritance; and ye shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. 29 They shall ^eeat the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every ^fdevoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. 30 And the first of all the ^gfirst-fruits of every thing, and every ^hoblation of everything, of all your oblations, shall be for the priest: ye shall also give unto the priests the ⁱfirst of your ^jdough, to cause a ^kblessing to rest on thy house. 31 The priests shall not eat of anything that ^ldieth of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or beast.

the evening. 3 And the ^lpeople of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before Jehovah on the sabbaths and on the ^mnew moons. 4 And the ⁿburnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto Jehovah shall be on the sabbath day ^osix lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; 5 and the ^pmeal-offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal-offering for the lambs as he is ^qable to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And on the day of the ^rnew moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish: 7 and he shall prepare a ^smeal-offering, an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as ^the is ^uable, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 8 And when the ^vprince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the ^wporch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come ^xbefore Jehovah in the appointed feasts, he that entereth by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth straight before him. 10 And the prince, when they go in, shall go in ^yin the midst of them; and when they go forth, they shall go forth ^ztogether. 11 And in the ^afeasts and in the ^bsolemnities the ^cmeal-offering shall be an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is ^dable to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 12 And when the prince shall prepare a ^efreewill-offering, a burnt-offering or peace-offerings as a freewill-offering unto Jehovah, one shall ^fopen for him the gate that looketh toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, as he doth on the ^gsabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 And thou shalt prepare a ^hlamb a year old without blemish for a burnt-offering unto Jehovah daily: ^a morning by morning shalt thou prepare it. 14 And thou shalt prepare a meal-offering with it morning by morning, the ^b sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to ¹ moisten the fine flour; a meal-offering unto Jehovah continually by a perpetual ordinance. 15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal-offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a ^c continual burnt-offering.

16 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: If the prince give a ^d gift unto any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. 17 But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the ^e year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. 18 Moreover the prince shall ^f not take of the people's inheritance, to ² thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people be not ^g scattered every man from his possession.

19 Then he brought me through the ^h entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the ⁱ holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. 20 And he said unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the ^j trespass-offering and the sin-offering, and where they shall ^k bake the meal-offering; that they bring them not forth into the outer court, to ^l sanctify the people. 21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. 22 In the four corners of the court there were courts ^m inclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. 23 And there was a ⁿ wall round about in them, round about the four, and boiling-places were made under the ^o walls round about. 24 Then said he unto me, These are the boiling-houses, where the ^p ministers of the house shall ^q boil the sacrifice of the people.

47 And he brought me back unto the ^h door of the house; and, behold, ⁱ waters issued out from ^j under the threshold of the house eastward (for the forefront of the house was toward the east); and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. 2 Then he brought me out by the way of the ^k gate northward, and led me round by the way without unto the outer gate, by the way of the ^l gate that looketh toward the east; and, behold, there ^m ran out waters on the right side.

3 When the ⁿ man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. 4 Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the loins. 5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a ^o river that could not be passed through.

6 And he said unto me, ^p Son of man, hast thou ^q seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. 7 Now when I had returned, behold, upon the bank of the river were very many ^r trees on the one side and on the other. 8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the ^s Arabah; and they shall go toward the sea; into the ^t sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed. 9 And it shall come to pass, that every living creature which swarmeth, in every place whither the ^u rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters are come thither, ^v and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and ^w everything shall live whithersoever the river cometh. 10 And it shall come to pass, that ^x fishers shall stand by it: from ^y En-gedi even unto En-gelaim shall be a place for the ^z spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the ^agreat sea, ^bexceeding many. 11 But the miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be healed; they shall be ¹given up to ^csalt. 12 And ^dby the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow every ^etree for food, whose ^fleaf shall not wither, neither shall the fruit thereof fail: it shall bring forth ²new fruit every month, because the waters thereof issue out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for food, and the ³leaf thereof for healing.

13 Thus saith the Lord Jehovah: This shall be the ⁴border, whereby ye shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two ⁵portions. 14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I ⁶sware to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land: On the ⁷north side, from the ⁸great sea, by the way of ⁹Hethlon, unto the entrance of ¹⁰Zedad; 16 ¹¹Hamath, Berothah, Sibram, which is between the border of ¹²Damascus and the border of Hamath; ¹³Hazer-hatticon, which is by the border of ¹⁴Hauran. 17 And the border from the sea, shall be ¹⁵Hazar-enon at the border of ¹⁶Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of ¹⁷Hamath. This is the north side. 18 And the ¹⁸east side, between ¹⁹Hauran and ²⁰Damascus and ²¹Gilead and the land of Israel, shall be the ²²Jordan; from the ²³north border, unto the east sea shall ye measure. 21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel. 22 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by ³⁵lot for an inheritance unto you and to the ³⁶strangers that sojourn my charge, that went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the ^aLevites went astray. 12 And it shall be unto them an oblation from the oblation of the land, a thing most ^bholy, by the border of the Levites.

13 And answerable unto the ^cborder of the priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. 14 And they shall ^dsell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the ^efirst-fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy unto Jehovah.

15 And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the five and twenty thousand, shall be for ^fcommon use, for the city, for dwelling and for ^gsuburbs; and the city shall be in the midst thereof. 16 And these shall be the measures thereof: the north side ^hfour thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. 17 And the city shall have ⁱsuburbs: toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. 18 And the residue in the length, answerable unto the holy ^joblation, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable unto the holy oblation; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that labor in the city. 19 And they that labor in the city, out of ^kall the tribes of Israel, shall till it. 20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation ^lfour-square, with the possession of the city.

21 And the ^mresidue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city; in front of the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward in front of the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, answerable

30 And these are the ^aegresses of the city: On the ^bnorth side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; 31 and the gates of the city shall be after the ^cnames of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. 32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. 33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. 34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. 35 It shall be eighteen thousand reeds round about: and the ^dname of the city from that day shall be, ^eJehovah is there.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

Daniel and his Three Friends refuse to take the King's Food. They excel in Body and in Spirit

1 In the third year of the reign of ^a Jehoiakim king of Judah came ^b Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. 2 And the ^c Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the ^d vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of ^e Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his ^f god. 3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the ^g master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children of Israel, even of the ^h seed royal and of the nobles; 4 youths in whom was ⁱ no blemish, but well-favored, and ^j skilful in all wisdom, and endued with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ^k ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the ^l learning and the ^m tongue of the ⁿ Chaldeans. 5 And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the ^o king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished ^p three years; that at the end thereof they should ^q stand before the king. 6 Now among these were, of the children of Judah, ^r Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 7 And the ^s prince of the eunuchs gave names unto them: unto Daniel he gave the name of ^t Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of ^u Shadrach; and to Mishael, of ^v Meshach; and to Azariah, of ^w Abed-nego.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not ^x defile himself with the ^y king's dainties, nor with the ^z wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9 Now God made Daniel to find ^a kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the ^b prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths that are of your own age? so would ye endanger my head with the king. 11 Then said Daniel to ^c the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us ^d pulse to eat, and water to drink. 13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the king's dainties; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he hearkened unto them in this matter, and proved them ten days. 15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared ^e fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths that did eat of the king's dainties. 16 So ^f the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and ^g gave them pulse.

17 Now as for these four youths, ^h God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all ⁱ visions and dreams. 18 And at the end of the ^j days which the king had ^k appointed for bringing them in, the ^l prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like ^m Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore ⁿ stood they before the king. 20 And in every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm. 21 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. 3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. 4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in the Syrian language, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye make not known unto me the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. 6 But if ye show the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and the interpretation thereof. 7 They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. 8 The king answered and said, I know of a certainty that ye would gain time, because ye see the thing is gone from me. 9 But if ye make not known unto me the dream, there is but one law for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can show me the interpretation thereof. 10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter, forasmuch as no king, lord, or ruler, hath asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. 11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is no other that can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. 12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.

14 Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon; 15 he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Wherefore is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. 16 And Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: 18 that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. 20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. 21 And he changeth the times and the seasons; he removeth kings, and setteth up kings; he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that have understanding; 22 he revealeth the deep and secret things; he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. 23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast now made known unto me what we desired of thee: for thou hast made known unto us the king's matter. 24 Therefore

Daniel makes known the King's Dream. He interprets the Dream

Daniel went in unto ^aArioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus unto him: ^bDestroy not the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch ^cbrought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the ^dchildren of the captivity of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was ^eBelteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the ^fdream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? 27 Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded can neither ^gwise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show unto the king; 28 but there is a ^hGod in heaven that revealeth secrets, and he hath made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the ⁱlatter days. Thy dream, and the ^jvisions of thy head upon thy bed, are these: 29 as for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he that ^krevealeth secrets hath made known to thee what shall come to pass. 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any ^lwisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be ^mmade known to the king, and that thou mayest know the ⁿthoughts of thy heart.

31 Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the aspect thereof was ^oterrible. 32 As for this image, its ^phead was of fine gold, its ^qbreast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, 33 its ^rlegs of iron, its ^sfeet part of iron, and part of clay. 34 Thou sawest till that a ^tstone was cut out ^uwithout hands, which smote the image upon its feet that were of iron and clay, and ^vbrake them in pieces. 35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became ^wlike the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, so that ^xno place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great ^ymountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream; and we will tell the ^zinterpretation thereof before the king. 37 Thou, O king, art ^{aa}king of kings, unto whom the ^{ab}God of heaven hath given the kingdom, the ^{ac}power, and the strength, and the glory; 38 and wheresoever the children of men dwell, the ^{ad}beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee to rule over them all: thou art the ^{ae}head of gold. 39 And after thee shall arise ^{af}another kingdom inferior to thee; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. 40 And the ^{ag}fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things; and as iron that crusheth all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. 41 And whereas thou sawest the ^{ah}feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with ^{ai}miry clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly ^{aj}broken. 43 And whereas thou sawest the iron mixed with ^{ak}miry clay, they shall mingle themselves ^{al}with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron doth not mingle with clay. 44 And in the days of those kings shall the ^{am}God of heaven ^{an}set up a ^{ao}kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty thereof be left to another people; but it shall ^{ap}break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. 45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that a ^{aq}stone was cut out of the mountain ^{ar}without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the ^{as}great God hath made known to the king what ^{at}shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 Then the king Nebuchad-

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an ^rimage of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the ^sprovince of Babylon. 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the ^tsatraps, the deputies, and the governors, the ^ujudges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the ^vsheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 3 Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the ^wjudges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the ^xsheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4 Then the herald cried ^yaloud, To you it is commanded, ^zO peoples, nations, and languages, 5 that at what time ye ^{aa}hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, ^{ab}dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye ^{ac}fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up; 6 and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be ^{ad}cast into the midst of a burning ^{ae}fiery furnace. 7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples ^{af}heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the ^{ag}peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Wherefore at that time certain ^{ah}Chaldeans came near, and ^{ai}brought accusation against the Jews. 9 They answered and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, ^{aj}O king, live for ever. 10 Thou, O king, hast ^{ak}made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall ^{al}fall down and worship the golden image; 11 and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast ^{am}appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: ^{an}Shadrach, ^{ao}Meshach, and ^{ap}Abed-nego; these men, O king, have ^{aq}not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in ^{ar}his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar answered and said unto them, Is it of purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that ye serve not ^{as}my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye ^{at}hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, ^{au}well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning ^{av}fiery furnace; and ^{aw}who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands? 16 ^{ax}Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, ^{ay}we have no need to answer thee in this matter. 17 ^{az}If it be so, our ^{ba}God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of thy hand, O king. 18 ^{bb}But if not, be it known unto thee, O

king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of ^afury, and the form of his ^bvisage was changed against ^cShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace ^dseven times more than it was wont to be heated. 20 And he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to ^ebind ^fShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to ^gcast them into the burning fiery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their ^hhosen, their ⁱtunics, and their mantles, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. 22 Therefore because the king's commandment was ^jurgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up ^kShadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down ^lbound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was ^mastonished, and rose up in haste: he spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. 25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, ⁿwalking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the ^ogods. 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the ^pmouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spake and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the ^qMost High God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego ^rcame forth out of the midst of the fire. 27 And the ^ssatraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the ^tfire had no power upon their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their ^uhosen changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.

28 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said, Blessed be the ^vGod of

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream of the Tree. Daniel interprets it. It is fulfilled

I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. 10 Thus were the ^avisions of my head upon my bed: I saw, and, behold, a ^btree in the midst of the earth; and the height thereof was great. 11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof ^creached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth. 12 The leaves thereof were ^dfair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was food for all: the ^ebeasts of the field had ^fshadow under it, and the ^gbirds of the heavens dwelt in the branches thereof, and all flesh was fed from it. 13 I saw in the ^hvisions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a ⁱwatcher and a ^jholy one came down from heaven. 14 He cried ^kaloud, and said thus, ^lHew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the ^mbeasts get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. 15 Nevertheless ⁿleave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the ^obeasts in the grass of the earth: 16 let his heart be ^pchanged from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let ^qseven times ^rpass over him. 17 The sentence is by the decree of the ^swatchers, and the ^tdemand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may ^uknow that the ^vMost High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and ^wgiveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the ^xlowest of men. 18 This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, forasmuch as all the ^ywise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation; but thou art able; for the ^zspirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken dumb for a while, and his ^athoughts troubled him. The king answered and said, Belteshazzar, ^blet not the dream, or the interpretation, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, ^cMy lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to built for the royal dwelling-place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty? 31 While the ^aword was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice ^bfrom heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken: The kingdom is departed from thee: 32 and thou shalt be ^cdriven from men; and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; thou shalt be made to eat grass as oxen; and ^dseven times shall pass over thee; until thou know that the ^eMost High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. 33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was ^fdriven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And at the ^gend of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine ^hunderstanding returned unto me, and I blessed the ⁱMost High, and I praised and honored him that ^jliveth for ever; for his dominion is an ^keverlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation; 35 and ^lall the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and ^mhe doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and ⁿnone can ^ostay his hand, or say unto him, ^pWhat doest thou? 36 At the same time mine ^qunderstanding returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my ^rmajesty and ^sbrightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was ^testablished in my kingdom, and excellent ^ugreatness was added unto me. 37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, ^vpraise and extol and honor the King of ^wheaven; for ^xall his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those that ^ywalk in pride he is able to abase.

5 In the ^dsame hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the ^epart of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's ^fcountenance was changed in him, and his ^gthoughts troubled him; and the joints of his ^hloins were loosed, and his ⁱknees smote one against another. 7 The king cried aloud to bring in the ^jenchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. 10 Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spake and said, ^aO king, live for ever; let not thy ^bthoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed. 11 There is a ^cman in thy kingdom, in whom is the ^dspirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and ^eunderstanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, ^fthe king, I say, thy father, made him ^gmaster of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; 12 forasmuch as an ^hexcellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and ^adissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named ^bBelteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, who art of the ^cchildren of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father ^dbrought out of Judah? 14 I have heard of thee, that the ^espirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in thee. 15 And now the ^fwise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof; but they ^gcould not show the interpretation of the thing. 16 But I have ^hheard of thee, that thou canst give interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the ⁱinterpretation thereof, thou shalt be ^kclothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy ^jgifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18 O thou king, the ^mMost High God ⁿgave Nebuchadnezzar thy father the kingdom, and ^ogreatness, and glory, and majesty: 19 and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: ^pwhom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. 20 But when his heart was ^qlifted up, and his spirit was ^rhardened so that he dealt proudly, he was ^sdeposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: 21 and he was ^tdriven from the sons of men, and his ^uheart was made like the beasts', and his dwelling was with the ^vwild asses; he was ^wfed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; until he knew that the ^xMost High God ruleth in the

25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: ^kMENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and ^lbrought it to an end. 27 TEKEL; thou art ^mweighed in the balances, and art found wanting. 28 ⁿPERES; thy kingdom is divided, and given to the ^oMedes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with ^ppurple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 In that night ^qBelshazzar the Chaldean king was ^rslain. *31 And ^sDarius the Mede received the kingdom, being about three-score and two years old.

6 It pleased ^tDarius to set over the kingdom a ^uhundred and twenty ^vsatraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2 and over them three presidents, of whom ^wDaniel was one; that these satraps might give account unto them, and that the king should have ^xno damage. 3 Then this Daniel was ^ydistinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an ^zexcellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the ^awhole realm.

The Presidents and Satraps plot against Daniel.

He is cast into the Den of Lions, but is taken out unharmed against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find ^ano occasion nor fault, forasmuch as he was ^bfaithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. 5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the ^claw of his God. 6 Then these presidents and satraps ^dassembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, ^elive for ever. 7 All the ^fpresidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counsellors and the governors, have ^gconsulted together ^hto establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be ⁱcast into the den of lions. 8 Now, O king, ^jestablish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the ^klaw of the Medes and Persians, which ^laltereth not. 9 Wherefore king Darius ^msigned the writing and the interdict.

10 And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber ⁿtoward Jerusalem); and he ^okneeled upon his knees three times a day, and ^pprayed, and ^qgave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. 11 Then these men ^rassembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. 12 Then they came near, and ^sspake before the king concerning the king's interdict: Hast thou not signed an interdict, that every man that shall make petition unto any god or man within thirty days, save unto thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the ^tlaw of the Medes and Persians, which ^ualtereth not. 13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the ^vchildren of the captivity of Judah, ^wregardeth not thee, O king, nor the ^xinterdict that thou hast signed, but ^ymaketh his petition three times a day. 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore ^zdispleased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored till the going down of the sun to rescue him. 15 Then these men assembled together unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that it is a ^alaw of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. 16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and ^bcast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, ^cThy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. 17 And a ^dstone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; ^ethat nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night ^ffasting; neither were ^ginstruments of music brought before him; and his ^hsleep fled from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. 20 And when he came near unto the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the ⁱliving God, is ^jthy God, whom thou servest continually, ^kable to deliver thee from the lions? 21 Then said Daniel unto the king, ^lO king, live for ever. 22 My God hath ^msent his angel, and hath ⁿshut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; forasmuch as before him ^oinnocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I ^pdone no hurt. 23 Then was the king ^qexceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and ^rno manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had ^strusted in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men that had accused Daniel, and they ^tcast them into the den of lions, them, their ^uchildren, and their wives; and the lions ^vhad the mastery of them, and ^wbrake all their bones

25 Then king Darius wrote unto all the ^a peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: ^bPeace be multiplied unto you.

26 I ^cmake a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men ^dtremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the ^eliving God, and ^fstedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall ^gnot be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even ^hunto the end. 27 He ⁱdelivereth and rescueth, and he worketh ^ksigns and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of ^lCyrus the Persian.

7 In the ^mfirst year of ⁿBelshazzar king of Babylon Daniel ^ohad a ^pdream and ^qvisions of his head upon his bed: then he ^rwrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. 2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my ^svision by night, and, behold, the ^tfour winds of heaven brake forth upon the great sea. 3 And ^ufour great ^vbeasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. 4 The ^wfirst was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to it. 5 And, behold, ^xanother beast, a second, like to a bear; and ^yit was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. 6 After this I beheld, and, lo, ^zanother, like a leopard, which had upon its back four wings of a bird; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. 7 After this I saw in the ^{aa}night-visions, and, behold, a ^{ab}fourth beast, terrible and ^{ac}powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ^{ad}ten horns. 8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them ^{ay}another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking ^{az}great things.

9 I beheld till thrones were ^{ba}placed, and one that was ^{bb}ancient of days did sit: his ^{bc}raiment was white as snow, and the ^{bd}hair of his head like pure wool; his ^{be}throne was fiery flames, and the ^{bf}wheels thereof burning fire. 10 A ^{bg}fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: ^{bh}thousands of thousands ministered unto him, and ^{bi}ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: ^{bj}the judgment was set, and ^{bk}the books were opened. 11 I beheld at that time because of the voice of the ^{bl}great words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the ^{bm}beast was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given ^{bn}to be ^{bo}burned with fire. 12 And as for the ^{bp}rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

13 I saw in the ^{bq}night-visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like unto a ^{br}son of man, and he came even to the ^{bs}ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. 14 And there was given him ^{bt}dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that ^{bu}all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an ^{bv}everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall ^{bw}not be destroyed.

15 As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of ^{bx}my body, and the ^{by}visions of my head ^{bz}troubled me. 16 I came near unto one of them that ^{ca}stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he ^{cb}told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. 17 These ^{cc}great beasts, which are four, are four kings, that shall arise out of the earth. 18 But the ^{cd}saints of the Most High shall ^{ce}receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. 19 Then I desired to know the truth concerning the ^afourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceeding terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; 20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. 21 I beheld, and the same horn ^bmade war with the saints, and prevailed against them; 22 until the ^cancient of days came, and ^djudgment was given ¹to the ^esaints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The ^ffourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall ^gtread it down, and break it in pieces. 24 And as for the ^hten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. 25 And he shall ⁱspeak words against the ^jMost High, and shall ^kwear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to ^lchange the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a ^mtime and times and half a time.

26 But the ⁿjudgment shall be set, and they shall ^otake away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. 27 And the ^pkingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the ^qsaints of the Most High: his kingdom is an ^reverlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall ^sserve and obey him. 28 ³Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much ^ttroubled me, and my ^ucountenance was changed in me: but I ^vkept the matter in my heart.

vision appeared unto me, even unto ¹me, Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. 2 And I ²saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in ³Shushan the ⁴palace, which is in the province of ⁵Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river ⁶Ulai. 3 Then I ^alifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ^bram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram ^cpushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that ^dcould deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a ^ehe-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and ^ftouched not the ground: and the goat had a ^gnotable horn between his eyes. 6 And he came to the ^hram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran upon him in the fury of his power. 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was ⁱmoved with anger against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he ^jcast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him; and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. 8 And the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly: and ^kwhen he was strong, the ^lgreat horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable ^mhorns toward the ⁿfour winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a ^olittle horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the ^pglorious land. 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and some of the host and of the ^qstars it cast down to the ground, and ^rtrampled upon them. 11 Yea, it ^smagnified itself, even to the ^tprince of the host; and ^uit took away from him the ^vcontinual burnt-offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. 12 And ¹the host was given over to it together with the continual burnt-offering through transgression; and it ^acast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. 13 Then I heard a ^bholy one speaking; and another holy one said unto that certain one who spake, ^cHow long shall be the vision concerning the continual burnt-offering, and the transgression that maketh desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be ^dtrodden under foot? 14 And he said unto me, Unto ^etwo thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be ^fcleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even ^gI Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought ^hto understand it; and, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a ⁱman. 16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the ^jUlai, which called, and said, ^kGabriel, make this man to understand the vision. 17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was affrighted, and ^lfell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for the vision belongeth to the ^mtime of the end. 18 Now as he was speaking with me, I ⁿfell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he ^otouch'd me, and set me ^pupright. 19 And he said, Behold, I will ^qmake thee know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongeth to the appointed time of the end. 20 The ^rman which thou sawest, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. 21 And the rough ^she-goat is the ^tking of ^uGreece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22 And as for ^vthat which was broken, in the place whereof four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. 23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a ^wking of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. 24 And his power shall be mighty, but not ^xby his own power; and he shall ^ydestroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do his pleasure; and he shall ^zdestroy the mighty ones and ^{aa}the holy people. 25 And through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall ^{ab}magnify himself in his heart, and in their security shall he ^{ac}destroy many: he shall also stand up against the ^{ad}prince of princes; but he shall be broken ^{ae}without hand. 26 And the vision of the evenings and mornings which hath been told is ^{af}true: but ^{ag}shut thou up the vision; for it belongeth to ^{ah}many days to come. 27 And I, Daniel, ^{ai}fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the ^{aj}king's business; and I wondered at the vision, ^{ak}but ^{al}none understood it.

9 In the first year of ^{am}Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, 2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years whereof the word of Jehovah came to ^{an}Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even ^{ao}seventy years.

3 And I set my face unto the ^{ap}Lord God, ^{aq}to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 4 And I prayed unto Jehovah my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the ^{ar}great and dreadful God, who ^{as}keepeth covenant and loving-kindness with them that love him and keep his commandments, 5 we have ^{at}sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have ^{au}rebelled, even ^{av}turning aside from thy precepts and from thine ordinances; 6 neither have we ^{aw}hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, that spake in thy name to our ^{ax}kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. 7 O Lord, ^{ay}righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us ^{az}confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the ^{ba}countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. 8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our ^akings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have ^bsinned against thee. 9 To the Lord our God belong ^cmercies and forgiveness; ^dfor we have ^erebelled against him; 10 neither have we obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God, to walk in his laws, which he ^fset before us by his servants the prophets. 11 Yea, ^gall Israel have transgressed thy law, even turning aside, that they should not obey thy voice: therefore hath the curse been poured out upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God; for we have sinned against him. 12 And he hath ^hconfirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our ⁱjudges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; for under the whole heaven hath ^jnot been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. 13 As it is written in the ^klaw of Moses, all this evil is come upon us; yet have we ^lnot entreated the favor of Jehovah our God, that we should ^mturn from our iniquities, and ⁿhave discernment in thy truth. 14 Therefore hath Jehovah ^owatched over the evil, and brought it upon us; for Jehovah our God is ^prighteous in all his works which he doeth, and we have ^qnot obeyed his voice. 15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast ^rbrought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast ^sgotten thee renowned, as at this day; we have ^tsinned, we have done wickedly. 16 O Lord, according to all thy ^urighteousness, let thine ^vanger and thy wrath, I pray thee, be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy ^wholy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a ^xreproach to all that are round about us. 17 Now therefore, O our God, hearken unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplications, and ^ycause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is ^zdesolate, for the ^aLord's sake. 18 O my God, ^bincline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and ^cbehold our desolations, and the city which is ^dcalled by thy name:

10 In the third year of ^fCyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called ^gBelteshazzar; and the thing was ^htrue, even a great warfare; and he understood the thing, and had ⁱunderstanding of the vision. 2 In those days I, Daniel, was ^kmourning three whole weeks. 3 I ate ^lno pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great ^mriver, which is ⁿHiddekel, 5 I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man ^oclothed in linen, whose loins were ^pgirded with pure ^qgold of Uphaz: 6 his body also was like the ^rberyl, and his ^sface as the appearance of lightning, and his ^teyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like unto ^uburnished brass, and the voice of his words like the ^vvoice of a multitude. 7 And I, Daniel, ^walone saw the vision; for the ^xmen that were with me saw not the vision; but a great ^yquaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves. 8 So I was ^zleft alone, and saw this great vision, and there ^{aa}remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I ^{ab}retained no strength. 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I ^{ac}fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.

10 And, behold, a hand ^{ad}touched me, which ^{ae}set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

ward the ⁶four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion wherewith he ruled; for his kingdom shall be ⁷plucked up, even for others besides these.

5 And the ⁸king of the south ³shall be strong, and ⁹one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she and he that strengthened her in those times.

7 But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. 8 And also their shall set up the ^aabomination that maketh desolate. 32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he ^apervert by ^rflatteries; but the people that know their God shall be ^astrong, and do exploits. 33 And ⁶they that are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall ^ufall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days. 34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall ^ajoin themselves unto them with ^xflatteries. 35 And some of ⁷them that are wise shall fall, to ^urefine them, and to ^zpurify, and to make them ^awhite, even to the ^btime of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

36 And the king shall ^cdo according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and ^amagnify himself above every god, and shall ^cspeak marvellous things against the ^dGod of gods; and he shall ^qprosper till the ^kindignation be accomplished; for that which is ^ddetermined shall be done. 37 Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall ^kmagnify himself above all. 38 But in his ²place shall he honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones and pleasant things. 39 And he shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: ^swhosoever acknowledgeth ^hhim ⁹he will increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price.

40 And at the ^ttime of the end shall the ^mking of the south ¹⁰contend with him; and the ⁿking of the north shall come against him ^olike a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall ^poverflow and pass through. 41 He shall enter also into the ^aglorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and ^rMoab, and the chief of the children of ^aAmmon. 42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape. 43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the ^bLibyans and the ^cEthiopians shall be at his steps. ^d44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go forth with great fury to destroy and ^eutterly to sweep away many. 45 And he shall plant the tents of his palace ^fbetween the sea and the ^gglorious ^hholy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

12 ⁱAnd at that time shall ^jMichael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, ^ksuch as never was since there was a nation even to that same time; and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the ^lbook. 2 And ^mmany of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, ⁿsome to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting ^ocontempt. 3 And ^pthey that are ^qwise shall ^rshine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that ^sturn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. 4 But thou, O Daniel, ^tshut up the words, and ^useal the book, even to the ^vtime of the end: ^wmany shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and, behold, there stood ^xother two, the one on the brink of the ^yriver on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side. 6 And ^zone said to the man ^{aa}clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, ^{ab}How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? 7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he ^{ac}held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that ^{ad}liveth for ever that it shall be for a ^{ae}time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of ^{af}breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. 8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my lord, what shall be the ^{ag}issue of these things? 9 And he said, ^{ah}Go thy way, Daniel; for the words are ^{ai}shut up and sealed till the time of the end. 10 Many shall ^{aj}purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the ^{ak}wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but ^{al}they that are ^{am}wise shall understand. 11 And from the time that the ^{an}continual burnt-offering shall be taken away, and the ^{ao}abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. 12 ^{ap}Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the ^{aq}thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. 13 But ^{ar}go thou thy way till the ^{as}end be; for thou shalt ^{at}rest, and shalt stand in thy ^{au}lot, at the end of the days.

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

Hosea's Wife and Children of Whoredom. Restoration of Israel and Judah. Their Unfaithfulness condemned

1 The word of Jehovah that came unto ^aHosea the son of Beeri, in the days of ^bUzziah, ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of ^fJeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 When Jehovah spake at the first ¹by Hosea, Jehovah said unto Hosea, ^gGo, take unto thee a ^hwife of whoredom; for the land doth ⁱcommit great whoredom, departing from Jehovah. 3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and ^kbare him a son. 4 And Jehovah said unto him, Call his name ^lJezreel; for yet a little while, and I will ^mavenge the ⁿblood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will ^obreak the bow of Israel in the ^pvalley of Jezreel. 6 And she conceived again, and ^qbare a daughter. And Jehovah said unto him, Call her name ^r*Lo-ruhamah*; for I will ^sno more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in any wise pardon them. 7 But I will have ^tmercy upon the house of Judah, and will ^usave them by Jehovah their God, and will not save them by ^vbow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and ^wbare a son. 9 And Jehovah said, Call his name ^x*Lo-ammi*; for ye are not my people, and I will not be ^yyour God.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the ^zsand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and ^{aa}it shall come to pass that, ^{ab}in the place where it was said unto them,

3 And Jehovah said unto me, ⁴Go again, love a woman beloved ⁵of her friend, and an adulteress, even as Jehovah loveth the children of Israel, though they turn unto other gods, and ⁶love cakes of raisins. 2 So I ⁷bought her to me for fifteen ⁸pieces of silver, and a homer of barley, and a ⁹half-homer of barley; 3 and I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be any man's wife: so will I also be toward thee. 4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days ¹⁰without king, and without prince, and ¹¹without sacrifice, and without ¹²pillar, and without ¹³ephod or ¹⁴teraphim: 5 afterward shall the children of Israel ¹⁵return, and seek Jehovah their God, and ¹⁶David their king, and shall ¹⁷come with fear unto Jehovah and to his goodness in the latter days.

4 ¹⁸Hear the word of Jehovah, ye children of Israel; for Jehovah hath a ¹⁹controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is ²⁰no truth, nor ²¹goodness, nor ²²knowledge of God in the land. 2 There is nought but ²³swearing and ²⁴breaking faith, and

Jehovah's Controversy with Israel. Judah warned not to take part in Israel's Guilt. Israel's Apostasy rebuked

^a killing, and ^b stealing, and ^c committing adultery; they break out, and ^a blood toucheth blood. ³ Therefore shall the land ^c mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the ^d beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. ⁴ Yet let no man ^e strive, neither let any man reprove; for thy people are as they that ^f strive with the priest. ⁵ And thou shalt ^g stumble in the day, and the prophet also shall stumble with thee in the night; and I will destroy thy ^h mother.

⁶ My people are destroyed for ⁱ lack of knowledge: because thou hast ^j rejected knowledge, ¹ I will also ^k reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast ^l forgotten the ^m law of thy God, I also will forget thy children. ⁷ As they were ⁿ multiplied, so they sinned against me: I will ^o change their glory into ^p shame. ⁸ They ^q feed on the sin of my people, and ^r set their heart on their iniquity. ⁹ And it shall be, like people, ^s like priest; and I will ^t punish them for their ways, and will requite them their doings. ¹⁰ And they shall ^u eat, and not have enough; they shall ^v play the harlot, and shall not increase; because they have ^w left off taking heed to Jehovah.

sound an alarm at ^aBeth-aven; ^{1b}behind thee, O Benjamin. 9 Ephraim shall become a ^cdesolation in the ^dday of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which ^eshall surely be. 10 The princes of Judah are like them that ^fremove the landmark: I will ^gpour out my wrath upon them ^hlike water. 11 ⁱEphraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; because he was content to walk after ^jman's command. 12 ^kTherefore am I unto Ephraim as a ^lmoth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah ^msaw his wound, then went Ephraim to ⁿAssyria, and sent to ^oking Jareb: but he is ^pnot able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound. 14 For I will be unto Ephraim ^qas a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: ^rI, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry off, and there shall be ^snone to deliver. 15 I will go and return to my place, till they ^tacknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will ^useek me ^vearnestly.

6 ^wCome, and let us return unto Jehovah; for he hath ^xtorn, and he will ^yheal us; he hath smitten, and he will ^zbind us up. 2 After two days will he ^{aa}revive us: on the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live before him. 3 And let us ^{ab}know, let us follow on to know Jehovah: his ^{ac}going forth is sure as the morning; and he will come unto us as the ^{ad}rain, as the latter rain that watereth the earth.

4 O ^{ae}Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your ^{af}goodness is as a ^{ag}morning cloud, and as the dew that goeth early away. 5 Therefore have I ^{ah}hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and ^{ai}thy judgments are ^{aj}as the light that goeth forth. 6 For ^{ak}I desire ^{al}goodness, and not sacrifice; and the ^{am}knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings. 7 But they ^{an}like

⁹ Adam have ^atransgressed the covenant: there have they ^bdealt treacherously against me. 8 ^cGilead is a city of them that work iniquity; it is stained with ^dblood. 9 ^eAnd as ^ftroops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests ^gmurder in the way toward Shechem; yea, they have committed ^hlewdness. 10 In the house of Israel I have seen a ⁱhorrible thing: there ^jwhoredom is found in Ephraim, Israel is defiled. 11 Also, O Judah, there is a ^kharvest appointed for thee, when I ^lbring back the captivity of my people.

7 When I ^awould heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim uncovered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit ^bfalsehood, and the thief entereth in, and the ^ctroop of robbers ^dravageth without. 2 And they consider not in their hearts that I ^eremember all their wickedness: now have their ^fown doings beset them about; they are before my face. 3 They make the ^gking glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their ^hlies. 4 They are ⁱall adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceaseth to stir ^jthe fire, from the kneading of the dough, until it be leavened. 5 On the day of our ^kking the princes ^lmade ^mthemselves sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with ⁿscoffers. 6 For they have ^omade ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait; their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. 7 They are all hot as an ^poven, and devour their ^qjudges; all their ^rkings are fallen: there is none among them that ^scalleth unto me.

8 ^tEphraim, he mixeth himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned. 9 ^uStrangers have devoured his strength, and he ^vknoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are ^where and there upon him, and he knoweth it not. 10 And the ^xpride of Israel doth testify to his face: yet they have *not returned unto Jehovah their God, nor sought him, for all this. 11 And Ephraim is like a silly dove, ^bwithout ¹understanding: they call unto ^cEgypt, they go to ^dAssyria. 12 When they shall go, I will ^espread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, ^fas their congregation hath heard. 13 ^gWoe unto them! for they have ^hwandered from me; destruction unto them! for they have trespassed against me: though I ⁱwould redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me. 14 And they have not ^jcried unto me with their heart, but they howl upon their beds: they ^kassemble themselves for grain and new wine; they ^lrebel against me. 15 Though I have ^mtaught and strengthened their arms, yet do they ⁿdevise mischief against me. 16 They return, but not to him that is on high; they are ^olike a deceitful bow; their ^pprinces shall fall by the sword for the ^qrage of their tongue: this shall be their ^rderision in the land of ^sEgypt.

tents. 7 The days of ^avisitation are come; the days of ^brecompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a ^cfool, the man that hath the spirit is ^dmad, for the abundance of thine ^einiquity, and because the enmity is great. 8 Ephraim ¹was a watchman with my God: as for the prophet, a ^ffowler's snare is in all his ways, and enmity in the house of his God. 9 They have ^gdeeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of ^hGibeah: he will ⁱremember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like ^kgrapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the ^lfirst-ripe in the fig-tree at its first season: but they came to ^mBaal-peor, and ⁿconsecrated themselves unto the ^oshameful thing, and became ^pabominable like that which they loved. 11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall ^qfly away like a bird: there shall be ^rno birth, and none with child, and no conception. 12 Though they ^sbring up their children, yet will I bereave them, so that not a man shall be left: yea, ^twoe also to them when I depart from them! 13 Ephraim, ^ulike as I have seen ^vTyre, is planted in a pleasant place; but Ephraim shall bring out his children to the slayer. 14 Give them, O Jehovah — what wilt thou give? give them a ^wmiscarrying womb and dry breasts. 15 All their wickedness is in ^xGilgal; for there I hated them; because of the ^ywickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house; I will love them no more; all their princes are ^zrevolters. 16 ^{aa}Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear ^{ab}no fruit: yea, though they ^{ac}bring forth, yet will I slay the ^{ad}beloved fruit of their womb. 17 My God will cast them away, because they did ^{ae}not hearken unto him; and they shall be ^{af}wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a luxuriant ^{ag}vine, that putteth forth his fruit: according to the abundance of his fruit he hath ^{ah}multiplied his altars; according to the ^{ai}goodness of their land they have made goodly ^{aj}pillars. 2 ^{ak}Their heart is ^{al}divided;

shall come trembling as a bird out of ^aEgypt, and as a ^bdove out of the land of ^cAssyria; and I will make them to ^ddwell in their houses, saith Jehovah.

^{*12} Ephraim compasseth me about with ^mfalsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit; ⁹ but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the Holy One.

12 I Ephraim feedeth on ⁿwind, and followeth after the ^oeast wind: he continually ^pmultiplieth lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with ^qAssyria, and oil is carried into ^rEgypt. ² Jehovah hath also a ^scontroversy with Judah, and will ¹⁰punish Jacob ^taccording to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him. ³ In the womb he ^utook his brother by the heel; and in his ¹¹manhood he ¹²had ^vpower with God: 4 yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and ^wmade supplication unto him; he found him at ^xBeth-el, and there he spake with us, ⁵ ¹³even Jehovah, the God of hosts; Jehovah is his ^ymemorial name. ⁶ Therefore ^zturn thou to thy God: keep ^akindness and justice, and ^bwait for thy God continually.

⁷ ¹⁴ ¹⁵ ^aHe is ^atrafficker, the ^bbalances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to ¹⁶oppress. ⁸ And Ephraim said, Surely I am become ^crich, I have found me wealth: in all my labors they shall find in me ^dno iniquity that were sin. ⁹ But I am Jehovah thy God from the land of ^eEgypt; I will yet again make thee to ^fdwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. ¹⁰ I have also spoken unto the ^gprophets, and I have multiplied visions; and ¹⁷by the ministry of the prophets have I used ^hsimilitudes. ¹¹ Is ⁱGilead iniquity? they are altogether false; in ^jGilgal they sacrifice bullocks; yea, ^otheir altars ¹⁸are as heaps in the furrows of the field. ¹² And ^pJacob fled into the field of Aram, and ^qIsrael served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. 13 And by a prophet Jehovah brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved. 14 Ephraim hath provoked to anger most bitterly: therefore shall his blood be left upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

13 When Ephraim spake, there was trembling; he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died. 2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves. 3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the dew that passeth early away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am Jehovah thy God from the land of Egypt; and thou shalt know no god but me, and besides me there is no saviour. 5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. 6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore have they forgotten me. 7 Therefore am I unto them as a lion; as a leopard will I watch by the way; 8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart; and there will I devour them like a lioness; the wild beast shall tear them.

9 It is thy destruction, O Israel, that thou art against me, against thy help. 10 Where now is thy king, that he may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes? 11 I have given thee a king in mine anger, and have taken him away in my wrath. 12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is laid up in store. 13 The sorrows of a travelling woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for it is time he should not tarry in the place of the breaking forth of children. 14 I will ransom them from the power of Sheol; I will redeem them from death: O death, where are thy plagues? O Sheol, where is thy destruction? repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the breath of Jehovah coming up from the wilderness; and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall make spoil of the treasure of all goodly vessels. * 16 Samaria shall bear her guilt; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

14 O Israel, return unto Jehovah thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity. 2 Take with you words, and return unto Jehovah: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and accept that which is good: so will we render as bullocks the offering of our lips. 3 Assyria shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods; for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely; for mine anger is turned away from him. 5 I will be as the dew unto Israel; he shall blossom as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon. 6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive-tree, and his smell as Lebanon. 7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the grain, and blossom as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon. 8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have answered, and will regard him: I am like a

THE BOOK OF JOEL

A Devastation of the Land by Locusts. Terribleness of the Visitation

1 The "word of Jehovah that came to ^bJoel the son of Pethuel.

⁸ Lament like a virgin "girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. ⁹ The "meal-offering and the drink-offering are cut off from the house of Jehovah; the "priests, Jehovah's ministers, mourn. ¹⁰ The field is "laid waste, the land mourneth; for the grain is destroyed, the "new wine is "dried up, the oil languisheth. ¹¹ Be "confounded, O ye husbandmen, wail, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the "harvest of the field is perished. ¹² The "vine is "withered, and the fig-tree languisheth; the "pomegranate-tree, the "palm-tree also, and the "apple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: for "joy is "withered away from the sons of men.

the dawn spread upon the mountains; a ^agreat people and a strong; there hath ^bnot been ever the like, neither shall be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. 3 A ^cfire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is ^das the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a ^edesolate wilderness; yea, and none hath escaped them.

4 The ^fappearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as ^ghorsemen, so do they run. 5 Like the ^hnoise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a ⁱflame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. 6 At their presence the peoples are in ^janguish; all ^kfaces are waxed pale. 7 They run like ^lmighty men; they ^mclimb the wall like men of war; and they ⁿMarch every one on his ways, and they break not their ranks. 8 Neither doth one thrust another; they march every one in his path; and ^othey burst through the weapons, and ^pbreak not off their course. 9 They ^qleap upon the city; they run upon the wall; they climb up into the ^rhouses; they ^senter in at the windows like a thief. 10 The earth ^tquaketh before them; the heavens tremble; the ^usun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. 11 And Jehovah ^vuttereth his voice before ^whis army; for his camp is very great; for he is ^xstrong that executeth his word; for the ^yday of Jehovah is great and very terrible; and ^zwho can abide it?

12 Yet even now, saith Jehovah, ^aturn ye unto me with all your heart, and with ^bfasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: 13 and rend your ^cheart, and ^dnot your garments, and turn unto Jehovah your God; for he is ^egracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and ^frepenteth him of the evil. 14 Who knoweth ^gwhether he will not turn and repent, and leave a ^hblessing behind him, even a ⁱmeal-offering and a drink-offering unto Jehovah your God?

18 Then was Jehovah ^ljealous for his land, and had ^mpity on his people. 19 And Jehovah answered and said unto his people, Behold, I will send you ⁿgrain, and new wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will ^ono more make you a reproach among the nations; 20 but I will remove far off from you the ^pnorthern army, and will drive it into a land barren and desolate, ^qits forepart ^rinto the ^seastern sea, and its hinder part ^tinto the ^uwestern sea; and its ^vstench shall come up, and its ill savor shall come up, because it hath done great things.

21 ^wFear not, O land, be glad and rejoice; for Jehovah hath ^xdone great things. 22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field; for the ^ypastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth its fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength. 23 Be glad then, ye ^zchildren of Zion, and ^arejoice in Jehovah your God; for he ^bgiveth you the former rain ^cin just measure, and he causeth to come down for you the rain, the former rain and the ^dlatter rain, ^ein the first month. 24 And the ^ffloors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil. 25 And I will restore to you the years that the ^glocust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you: 26 And ye shall ^aeat in plenty and be satisfied, and shall ^bpraise the name of Jehovah your God, that hath ^cdealt wondrously with you; and my people shall never be ^dput to shame. 27 And ye shall ^eknow that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Jehovah your God, and there is ^fnone else; and my people shall never be ^gput to shame.

*28 ^hAnd it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my ⁱSpirit upon ^kall flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: 29 and also upon the ^lservants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit. 30 And I will ^mshow wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 The ⁿsun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the ^ogreat and terrible day of Jehovah cometh. 32 And it shall come to pass, that ^pwhosoever shall call on the name of Jehovah shall be delivered; for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those that ^qescape, as Jehovah hath said, and ^ramong the remnant those whom Jehovah doth call.

*3 For, behold, in those days. 3 and in that time, when I shall ^sbring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, 2 I will ^tgather all nations, and will bring them down into the ^uvalley of Jehoshaphat; and I will ^vexecute judgment upon them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have ^wscattered among the nations: and they have ^xparted my land, 3 and have ^ycast lots for my people, and have ^zgiven a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. 4 Yea, and what are ye to me, O ^{aa}Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of ^{ab}Philistia? ^{ac}Will ye ^{ad}render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I ^{ae}return your ^{af}recompense upon your own head. 5 Forasmuch as ye have ^{ag}taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly

God's Judgments on Neighboring Nations

1 The words of Amos, who was among the ^aherdsmen of ^bTekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of ^cUzziah king of Judah, and in the days of ^aJeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the ^eearthquake.

2 And he said, ^fJehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the ^gpastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the ^htop of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith Jehovah: ⁱFor three transgressions of ^kDamascus, yea, for four, I will ^jnot ^lturn away ^mthe punishment thereof; because they have threshed ⁿGilead with threshing instruments of iron.

4 But I will send a ⁿfire into the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the palaces of ^oBen-hadad. 5 And I will ^pbreak the bar of Damascus, and cut off ^qthe inhabitant from the valley of ^rAven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ^sthe house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto ^tKir, saith Jehovah.

6 Thus saith Jehovah: For three transgressions of ^uGaza, yea, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive ^vthe whole people, to deliver them up to ^wEdom. 7 But I will send a fire on the wall of ^xGaza, and it shall devour the palaces thereof. 8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from ^yAshdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ^zAshkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the ^{aa}Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord Jehovah.

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

The Pride of Edom shall be humbled. Her Wicked Joy in Israel's Distress. Israel shall be exalted

1 The vision of Obadiah.

Thus saith the Lord Jehovah concerning ^aEdom: ^bWe have heard tidings from Jehovah, and an ^cambassador is sent among the nations, ^dsaying, ^eArise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle. 2 Behold, I have made thee ^fsmall among the nations: thou art greatly despised. 3 The ^gpride of thy heart hath deceived thee, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the ^hrock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, ⁱWho shall bring me down to the ground? 4 Though thou ^jmount on high as the eagle, and though thy nest be set among the ^kstars, I will bring thee down from thence, saith Jehovah.

5 If ^lthieves came to thee, if robbers by night (how art thou ^mcut off!), would they not steal ⁿonly till they had enough? if grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some ^ogleaning grapes? 6 How are ^pthe things of Esau ^qsearched! how are his hidden treasures sought out! 7 All the ^rmen of thy confederacy have ^sbrought thee on thy way, even to the border: the men that were at ^tpeace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; ^uthey that eat thy ^vbread lay a ^wsnare under thee: there is ^xno understanding ^yin him. 8 Shall I not in that day, saith Jehovah, ^zdestroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? 9 And thy ^{aa}mighty men, O ^{ab}Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be ^{ac}cut off from the mount of Esau by slaughter.

10 For the ^{ad}violence done to thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever. 11 In the day that thou ^{ae}stoodest ^{af}on the other side, in the

THE BOOK OF JONAH

Jonah, sent by God to Nineveh, flees to Tarshish. In a Tempest he is cast overboard, and is swallowed by a Fish. His Prayer

1 Now the word of Jehovah came unto ^aJonah the son of Amittai, saying, ² Arise, go to ^bNineveh, that ^cgreat city, and ^dcry against it; for their ^ewickedness is come up before me. 3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto ^fTarshish ^gfrom the presence of Jehovah; and he went down to ^hJoppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of Jehovah.

4 But ⁱJehovah ¹sent out a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto ^khis god; and they ^lcast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it unto them. But Jonah was gone down into the innermost parts of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. 6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ^mcall upon thy God, if so be that ⁿGod will think upon us, that we perish not. 7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ^ocast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the ^plot fell upon Jonah. 8 Then said they unto him, ^qTell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; what is thine ^roccupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? 9 And he said unto them, I am a ^sHebrew; and I ^tfear Jehovah, the ^uGod of heaven, who hath ^vmade the sea and the dry land. 10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, What is this that thou hast done? For the men knew that he was ^xfleeing from

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was ^{at}angry. 2 And he ^{au}prayed unto Jehovah, and said, I pray thee, O Jehovah, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I ^{av}hasted to ^{aw}flee unto Tarshish; for I knew that thou art a ^{ax}gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving-kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. 3 Therefore now, O Jehovah, ^{ay}take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is ^{az}better for me to die than to live. 4 And Jehovah said, ^{ba}Doest thou well to be angry? 5 Then Jonah went out of the city, and ^{bb}sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And ^{bc}Jehovah God prepared a ^{bd}gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his evil case. So Jonah was ^{be}exceeding glad because of the gourd. 7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it ^{bf}withered. 8 And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry ^{bg}east wind; and the ^{bh}sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might

Destruction denounced against Israel and Judah. The Coming Desolation lamented. Woe to Greedy Oppressors

1 The word of Jehovah that came to ^aMicah the ^bMorash-tite in the days of ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, ye peoples, all of you; ^fhearken, O earth, and ^gall that therein is: and let the Lord Jehovah be ^hwitness ⁱagainst you, the Lord from his holy temple. 3 For, behold, Jehovah ^kcometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and ^ltread upon the high places of the earth. 4 And ^mthe mountains shall be melted under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place. 5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not ⁿSamaria? and what are the ^ohigh places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? 6 Therefore I will make Samaria as a ^pheap of the field, and as places for ^qplanting vineyards; and I will ^rpour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will ^suncover the foundations thereof. 7 And all her ^tgraven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her ^uhires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols will I lay desolate; for of the hire of a harlot hath she gathered them, and unto the hire of a harlot shall they return.

8 For this will I lament and wail; I will go ^vstripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the ^wjackals, and a lamentation like the ostriches. 9 For her ^xwounds are incurable; for it is come even unto Judah; it reacheth unto the ^ygate of my people, even to Jerusalem. 10 ^zTell it not in Gath, weep not at all: at ^{aa}Beth-le-aprah ^{ab}have I rolled myself in

5 Thus saith Jehovah concerning the prophets that ^{ar}make my people to err; that ^{as}bite with their teeth, and ^{at}cry, Peace; and whoso ^{au}putteth not into their mouths, they even ^{av}prepare war against him: 6 Therefore it shall be ^{aw}night unto you, that ye shall have no vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the ^{ax}sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them. 7 And the seers shall be ^{ay}put to shame, and the ^{az}diviners confounded; yea, they shall all ^{ba}cover their lips; for there is ^{bb}no answer of God. 8 But as for me, ^{bc}I am full of power ^{bd}by the Spirit of Jehovah, and of judgment, and of might, to ^{be}declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

"Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and ^bhe will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. For ^cout of Zion shall go forth ¹the law, and the word of Jehovah from Jerusalem; 3 and he will ^ajudge ²between ³many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. 4 But they shall ^csit every man under his vine and under his fig-tree; and ^dnone shall make them afraid: for the ^emouth of Jehovah of hosts hath spoken it. 5 For all the peoples walk every one in the ^fname of his god; and we will walk in the name of ^gJehovah our God for ever and ever.

"teareth in pieces, and there is none to deliver. 9 Let thy hand be lifted up above thine adversaries, and let all thine enemies be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith Jehovah, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and will destroy thy chariots: 11 and I will cut off the cities of thy land, and will throw down all thy strongholds. 12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thy hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers: 13 and I will cut off thy graven images and thy pillars out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thy hands; 14 and I will pluck up thine Asherim out of the midst of thee; and I will destroy thy cities. 15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations which hearkened not.

6 Hear ye now what Jehovah saith: Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. 2 Hear, O ye mountains, Jehovah's controversy, and ye enduring foundations of the earth; for Jehovah hath a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. 3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. 4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of bondage; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. 5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; remember from Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye may know the righteous acts of Jehovah.

6 Wherewith shall I come before Jehovah, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves a year old? 7 will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? 8 He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth Jehovah require of thee, but to do justly, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The voice of Jehovah crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom will see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it. 10 Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a scant measure that is abominable? 11 Shall I be pure with wicked balances, and with a bag of deceitful weights? 12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. 13 Therefore I also have smitten thee with a grievous wound; I have made thee desolate because of thy sins. 14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy humiliation shall be in the midst of thee: and thou shalt put away, but shalt not save; and that which thou savest will I give up to the sword. 15 Thou shalt sow, but shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but shalt not anoint thee with oil; and the vintage, but shalt not drink the wine. 16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I may make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof a hissing: and ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; my soul desireth the first-ripe fig. 2 The godly man is perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net. 3 Their hands are upon that which is evil to do it diligently; the prince asketh, and the judge is ready for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth the evil

THE BOOK OF NAHUM

Goodness and Severity of Jehovah. The Overthrow of Nineveh decreed

1 The ^{1a}burden of ^bNineveh.
The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

² Jehovah is a jealous God and avengeth; Jehovah ^aavengeth and is full of wrath; Jehovah taketh vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth ^awrath for his enemies.

³ Jehovah is ^aslow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means clear the guilty: Jehovah hath his way in the ^awhirlwind and in the storm, and the ^bclouds are the dust of his feet. ⁴ He ^arebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: ^aBashan languisheth, and Carmel;
and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

⁵ The mountains ^aquake at him, and the hills ^mmelt; and the earth is ⁿupheaved at his presence, yea, the ^aworld, and all that dwell therein. ⁶ Who can stand before his ^aindignation? and who can abide in the ^afierceness of his anger? his ^awrath is poured out like fire, and the ^arocks are broken asunder by him. ⁷ Jehovah is ^agood, a "stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that take refuge in him. ⁸ But with an ^aover-running flood he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into ^adarkness.

⁹ What do ye ^adevise against Jehovah? he will make a ^afull end; affliction shall not rise up the second time. ¹⁰ For entangled like ^athorns, and ^bdrunken as with their drink, they are ^acon-sumed ²utterly as dry stubble.
¹¹ There is one gone forth out of thee, that ^adeviseth evil against Jehovah, ^athat ^acounselleth ^awicked-ness. ¹² Thus saith Jehovah:
Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so shall they be ^acut down, and he shall pass away. ¹³ Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee ^ano more. ¹³ And now will I ^abreak

the ^aexcellency of Jacob, ^aas the excellency of Israel; for the emptiers have ^aemptied them out, and ^adestroyed their vine-branches.

³ The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in like the lightnings. ⁵ He remembereth his ^anobles: they ^astumble in their march; they make haste to the wall thereof, and the mante-let is prepared. ⁶ The ^agates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. ⁷ ^aAnd it is decreed: she is uncovered, she is

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

The Chaldeans raised up to punish Judah's Sins. Habakkuk's Remonstrance. Jehovah's Reply

1 The ¹burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O Jehovah, ^bhow long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? I cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt ^cnot save. 3 Why dost thou show me ^ainiquity, and ²look upon perverseness? for ^cdestruction and violence are before me; and there is ^fstrife, and contention riseth up. 4 Therefore the ^glaw is slackened, and justice ³doth never go forth; for the wicked doth ^hcompass about the righteous; therefore justice goeth forth ⁱperverted.

5 ^kBehold ye ^lamong the nations, and look, and ^mwonder marvelously; for ⁴I am working a ⁿwork in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you. 6 For, lo, I ^oraise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to ^ppossess dwelling-places that are not theirs. 7 ⁵They are ^qterrible and dreadful; their ^rjudgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8 Their ^shorses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the ^tevening wolves; and their horsemen ^upress proudly on: yea, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an ^veagle that hasteth to devour. 9 They come all of them for violence; ⁷the ^wset of their faces is ^zforwards; and they ^xgather captives as the sand. 10 ⁹Yea, he ^yscoffeth at kings, and princes are a derision unto him; he ^zderideth every stronghold; for he ^aheapeth up dust, and taketh it. 11 ¹⁰Then shall he sweep by as a ^bwind, and shall ¹¹pass over, and be ^cguilty, even he whose ^dmight is his god.

O Jehovah, thou hast ^fordained him for judgment; and thou, O ^gRock, hast established him for correction. 13 Thou that art of ^hpurer eyes than to behold evil, and that canst not look on perverseness, wherefore ⁱlookest thou upon them that deal ^ktreacherously, and ^lholdest thy peace when the wicked ^mswalloweth up the man that is more righteous than he; 14 and makest men ⁿas the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? 15 He ^otaketh up all of them with the angle, he ^pcatcheth them in his net, and gathereth them in his drag; therefore he rejoiceth and is glad. 16 Therefore he ^qsacrificeth unto his net, and burneth incense unto his drag; because by ^rthem his portion is fat, and his food ^splenteous. 17 Shall he therefore empty his ^tnet, and spare not to ^uslay the nations continually?

2 I will ^vstand upon my watch, and set me upon the ^wtower, and will ^xlook forth to see ^ywhat he will speak ¹⁴with me, and what I shall answer concerning my complaint. 2 And Jehovah answered me, and said, ^zWrite the vision, and make it plain upon tablets, that he may run that readeth it. 3 For the vision is yet for the ^aappointed time, and it ^bhasteth toward the end, and shall ^cnot lie: though it tarry, ^dwait for it; because it will ^esurely come, it will not delay.

Woes pronounced on the Chaldeans. God's Deliverance of his Ancient People

"keepeth not at home; who ^benlargeth his desire ^aas Sheol, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but ^agathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all peoples. 6 Shall not all these ^atake up a parable against him, and a taunting ¹proverb against him, and say, ²Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and that ladeth himself with ^apledges! 7 Shall they not ^arise up suddenly that shall ²bite thee, and awake that shall ³vex thee, and thou shalt be for booty unto them? 8 Because thou hast ^aplundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder thee, ^abecause of men's blood, and for the ²violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that getteth an ^aevil gain for his house, that he may ^aset his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10 Thou hast devised ^ashame to thy house, by cutting off many peoples, and hast ^asinned against thy soul. 11 For the ^astone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Woe to him that ^abuildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity! 13 Behold, is it not of Jehovah of hosts that the peoples ^alabor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for ^avanity? 14 For the earth shall be ^afilled with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor ^adrink, to thee that ^aaddest thy ^avenom, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness! 16 Thou art filled with ^ashame, and not glory: ^adrink thou also, and ^abe as one uncircumcised; the ^acup of Jehovah's right hand shall come round unto thee, and ^afoul shame shall be upon thy glory. 17 For the ^aviolence done to Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction of the beasts, which made them afraid; ^abecause of men's blood, and for the ^aviolence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

18 What ^aprofiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, even the ^ateacher of lies, that he that fashioneth its form ^atrusteth therein, to make dumb idols? 19 Woe unto him that ^asaith to the wood, ^aAwake; to the dumb stone, Arise! Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with ^agold and silver, and there is ^ano breath at all in the midst of it. 20 But ^aJehovah is in his holy temple: ^alet all the earth ^akeep silence before him.

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

Jehovah's Day of Wrath coming upon Judah. The People warned to seek Jehovah

1 The word of Jehovah which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of ^aJosiah the son of ^bAmon, king of Judah.

² I will utterly ^cconsume all things from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. ³ I will consume ^aman and beast; I will consume the ^cbirds of the heavens, and the fishes of the sea, and the ^dstumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, saith Jehovah. ⁴ And I will ^estretch out my hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will ^fcut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the ^gChemarim with the priests; ⁵ and them that worship the ^hhost of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship, that ⁱswear to Jehovah and swear by ^{1m}Malcam; ⁶ and them that are ^jturned back from following Jehovah; and those that have ^knot sought Jehovah, nor inquired after him.

¹⁴ The ⁱgreat ^kday of Jehovah is near, it is near and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of Jehovah; the mighty man ^jcrieth there bitterly. ¹⁵ That day is a day of wrath, a day of ^mtrouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of ⁿdarkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, ¹⁶ a day of the ^otrumpet and alarm, against the ^pfortified cities, and against the high ⁷battlements. ¹⁷ And I will bring ^qdistress upon men, that they shall walk ^rlike blind men, because they have sinned against Jehovah; and their ^sblood shall be poured out as dust, and their ^tflesh as dung. ¹⁸ Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of Jehovah's wrath; but the whole land shall be ^udevoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he will ^xmake an end, yea, a ⁸terrible end, of all them that dwell in the land.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

Haggai exhorts the People to build the Temple. Zerubbabel and Joshua obey. The Builders encouraged

1 In the ^asecond year of Darius the king, in the ^bsixth month, in the ^cfirst day of the month, came the word of Jehovah by ^dHaggai the prophet unto ^eZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^fgovernor of Judah, and to ^gJoshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2 Thus speaketh Jehovah of hosts, saying, This people say, ¹It is not the time for us to come, the time for Jehovah's house to be built. 3 Then came the word of Jehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying, 4 Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your ceiled ^hhouses, while this house ⁱlieth waste? 5 Now therefore thus saith Jehovah of hosts: ²Consider your ways. 6 Ye have ^ksown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: ²Consider your ways. 8 Go up to the ³mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will ^mtake pleasure in it, and I will be ⁿglorified, saith Jehovah. 9 Ye ^olooked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did ^pblow upon it. Why? saith Jehovah of hosts. Because of my house that ^qlieth waste, while ye run every man to his own house. 10 Therefore ^rfor your sake the ^rheavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholdeth its fruit. 11 And I called for a ^sdrought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon ^tmen, and upon cattle, and upon ^uall the labor of the hands.

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

Jehovah remonstrates with the People. Zechariah's Vision of Horses. Promise of Mercy to Zion. Vision of Horns

1 In the ^aeighth month, in the second year of ^aDarius, came the word of Jehovah unto ^bZechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of ^cIddo, the prophet, saying, 2 Jehovah was ^asore displeased with your fathers. 3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: ^cReturn unto me, saith Jehovah of hosts, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of hosts. 4 Be ye not ^aas your fathers, unto whom the ^aformer prophets cried, saying, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, ^bReturn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did ^anot hear, nor hearken unto me, saith Jehovah. 5 Your ^afathers, where are they? and the ^aprophets, do they live for ever? 6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not ^movertake your fathers? and they turned and said, ^aLike as Jehovah of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the ^aeleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of ^aDarius, came the word of Jehovah unto ^aZechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, 8 I saw in the night, and, behold, a man riding upon a ^ared horse, and he stood among the ^amyrtle-trees that were in the ^abottom; and behind him there were horses, ^ared, sorrel, and white. 9 Then said I, O ^amy lord, what are these? And the ^aangel that talked with me said unto me, I will show thee what these are. 10 And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are they whom Jehovah hath sent to ^awalk to and fro through the earth. 11 unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in ⁿChisleu. ²¹¹Now they of Beth-el had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to ^oentreat the favor of Jehovah, ³and to speak unto the ^ppriests of the house of Jehovah of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the ^qfifth month, ^aseparating myself, as I have done these so many years? ⁴Then came the word of Jehovah of hosts unto me, saying, ⁵Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye ^bfasted and mourned in the fifth and in the ^cseventh month, even these seventy years, did ye at all fast unto ^dme, even to me? ⁶And when ye eat, and when ye drink, ¹²do not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? ⁷*Should ye not hear* the words which Jehovah ^ecried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in ^fprosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, and the ^gSouth and the lowland were inhabited?

⁸And the word of Jehovah came unto Zechariah, saying, ⁹Thus hath Jehovah of hosts spoken, saying, ^hExecute true judgment, and show ⁱkindness and compassion every man to his brother; ¹⁰and ^koppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the sojourner, nor the poor; and ^llet none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart. ¹¹But they ^mrefused to hearken, and ¹³ⁿpulled away the shoulder, and ¹⁴^ostopped their ears, that they might not hear. ¹²Yea, they made their ^phearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the ^qwords which Jehovah of hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former ^rprophets: therefore there came great ^swrath from Jehovah of hosts. ¹³And it is come to pass that, as ^the cried, and they would not hear, so ^uthey shall cry, and I will not hear, said Jehovah of hosts; ¹⁴but I will ^vscatter them with a ^wwhirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was ^adesolate after them, so that ^bno man passed through nor returned: for they ^claid the ^dpleasant land desolate.

8 And the word of Jehovah of hosts came to me, saying, 2 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I am ^ajealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath. 3 Thus saith Jehovah: I am ^ereturned unto Zion, and will ^fdwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called The city of ^gtruth; and the mountain of Jehovah of hosts, The ^hholy mountain. 4 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: There shall yet ⁱold men and old women ^jdwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand ^kfor very age. 5 And the streets of the city shall be full of ^lboys and girls playing in the streets thereof. 6 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: If it be ^mmarvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvellous in ⁿmine eyes? saith Jehovah of hosts. 7 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the ^oeast country, and from the west country: 8 and I will ^pbring them, and they shall ^qdwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be ^rmy people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: Let your hands be ^sstrong, ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the ^tprophets that were in the day that the foundation of the house of Jehovah of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. 10 For before those days there was ^uno hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there ^vany peace to him that went out or came in, because of the adversary: for ^wI set all men every one against his neighbor. 11 But now I will ^xnot be unto the remnant of this people as in the former days, saith Jehovah of hosts. 12 For there shall be the ^yseed of peace; the vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their ^zdew; and I will cause the remnant of this people

7 So I ^rfed the flock of slaughter, verily ⁸the ^apoor of the flock. And I took unto me ^rtwo staves; the one I called ^{9m}Beauty, and the other I called ¹⁰ⁿBands; and I fed the flock. 8 And I cut off the three shepherds in ^cone month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that which ^rdieth, let it die; and ¹¹that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let them that are left eat every one the flesh of another. 10 And I took my staff ^qBeauty, and cut it asunder, that I might ^rbreak my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

11 And it was broken in that day; and ¹²thus ⁸the ^apoor of the flock that gave heed unto me knew that it was the word of Jehovah. 12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my ^rhire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire ^rthirty pieces of silver.

13 And Jehovah said unto me, Cast it unto the ^rpotter, the goodly price that I was prized at by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them unto the potter, in the house of Jehovah. 14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even ^rBands, that I might ^rbreak the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And Jehovah said unto me, Take unto thee yet again the instruments of a ^rfoolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will ^cnot ¹³visit those that are ¹⁴cut off, neither will seek ¹⁵those that are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which ¹⁶is sound; but he will ^ceat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. 17 ^cWoe to the worthless shepherd that leaveth the flock! the ^asword shall be upon his ^carm, and upon his right ^reye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

The Coming Might of Judah. Jerusalem's Repentance. Her Purification. Jehovah's Shepherd smitten

12 The ¹burden of the word of Jehovah concerning Israel.

Thus saith Jehovah, who stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him: 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a ^acup of reeling unto all the peoples round about, and ²upon ^eJudah also ³shall it be in the siege against Jerusalem. 3 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome ^fstone for all the peoples; all that burden themselves with it shall be ^gsore wounded; and all the ^hnations of the earth shall be gathered together against it. 4 In that day, saith Jehovah, I will smite every ⁱhorse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5 And the chieftains of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my ^kstrength in Jehovah of hosts their God. 6 In that day will I make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of ^lfire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left; and they of ^mJerusalem shall yet again dwell in ⁿtheir own place, even in Jerusalem. 7 Jehovah also shall ^osave the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of ^pDavid and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be not magnified above Judah. 8 In that day shall Jehovah ^qdefend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he ^rthat is ^sfeeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as ^tGod, as the ^uangel of Jehovah before them. 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will ^vseek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will ^wpour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of ^xgrace and of supplication; and they shall look unto ^yme whom they have ^zpierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one ^{aa}mourneth

"covenant may be with Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. 5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear; and he feared me, and stood in awe of my name. 6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips; he walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. 7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Jehovah of hosts. 8 But ye are turned aside out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble in the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith Jehovah of hosts. 9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have had respect of persons in the law.

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of Jehovah which he loveth, and hath married the daughter of a foreign god. 12 Jehovah will cut off, to the man that doeth this, him that waketh and him that answereth, out of the tents of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto Jehovah of hosts. 13 And this again ye do: ye cover the altar of Jehovah with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, neither receiveth it with good will at your hand. 14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because Jehovah hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously, though she is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. 15 And did he not make one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? And wherefore one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. 16 For I hate putting away, saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, and him that covereth his garment with violence, saith Jehovah of hosts; therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 Ye have wearied Jehovah with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? In that ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of Jehovah, and he delighteth in them; or where is the God of justice?

3 Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom ye desire, behold, he cometh, saith Jehovah of hosts. 2 But who can abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: 3 and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer unto Jehovah offerings in righteousness. 4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto Jehovah, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. 5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the sojourner from his right, and fear not me, saith Jehovah of hosts. 6 For I, Jehovah, change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

7 From the days of your fathers ye have turned aside from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of hosts. But ye say, Wherein shall we return? 8 Will a man rob God? yet ye rob me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. 9 Ye are cursed with the curse;

PREFACE

THIS edition of the Revised New Testament of 1881 embodies a purpose entertained by many members of the American Revision Committee almost from the publication of the work. The list of passages in which the New Testament Company dissented from the decisions of their English associates, when it was transmitted to them, bore the heading, "The American New Testament Revision Company, having in many cases yielded their preference for certain readings and renderings, present the following instances in which they differ from the English Company, as in their view of sufficient importance to be appended to the revision, in accordance with an understanding between the Companies."

The knowledge of the existence of these suppressed deviations naturally stirred a desire that they should be made accessible to at least the American public. This desire, especially on the part of those whose generous interest in the work from its inception had enabled the American revisers to meet the pecuniary outlay its preparation involved, they were not unwilling to gratify. The obligation they felt, however, to guard as far as they might the purity and integrity of the version, led them to pledge their support for fourteen years to the editions issued by the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge. But the reiterated suggestion to those Presses to publish an edition especially for American readers not having met with favor, they acceded to the overtures of the Messrs. Nelson and engaged in preparing gratuitously the desired edition, to be issued when the expiration of the period specified should open the way for its honorable publication. The publishers, on their part, agreed to protect the version in its integrity, and to sell the book at a price not exceeding a fair profit on its cost.

In the preparation of this edition no attempt has been made to preserve a full record of the other readings and renderings than those that appeared in the work as published in 1881 which were preferred by the American revisers. The Appendix of that edition, however, was not only hastily compiled under pressure from the University Presses, but its necessarily limited compass compelled, as the original heading intimated, the exclusion of many suggestions that the American Company held to be of interest and importance. These, amounting in the aggregate to a considerable number, have been incorporated in the present edition. The opportunity has been taken also to introduce not a few alterations, individually of slight importance, yet as a body contributing decidedly to the perfection of the work. But the survivors of the New Testament Company have not felt at liberty to make new changes of moment which were not favorably passed upon by their associates at one stage or another of the original preparation of the work.

Respecting details, but little need be added to the ample statements made in the Preface prefixed to the work on its first appearance.

In the delicate matter of rendering the names of the several coins that occur in the New Testament, we have departed somewhat from our English brethren. For the Greek λεπτόν the term "mite" has been retained, and for κοδράντης the rendering "farthing" (see Mk. xii. 42). But ἀσάριον has been translated "penny" (Matt. x. 29; Lk. xii. 6); while in thirteen out of the sixteen instances where in the edition of 1881 the Greek δηνάριον was represented by this English word, the term "shilling" has been substituted, not only as corresponding more nearly to the coin's relative value, but also because "penny," according to its modern use, is in some cases highly inappropriate (see Matt. xx. 2; Lk. x. 35; Rev. vi. 6). In the three remaining instances (Matt. xxii. 19; Mk. xii. 15; Lk. xx. 24), the Greek name of the coin has been introduced, in order to meet the obvious requirement of the context. Where the English value of coins is given in the margin, we have added the equivalents in our national currency; but in the case of the talent (Matt. xviii. 24) what is believed to be a more accurate valuation has been given.

In formal particulars, this new edition will show but slight and infrequent deviations from its predecessor. The division of the text into paragraphs in that edition has not been often departed from; and then chiefly in cases where the same matter is found in more than one of the Gospels, and hence uniformity of division seemed desirable. Further, in the Epistles and the Revelation the more decided transitions to a new topic have been indicated by leaving a line blank. The somewhat ponderous and peculiar system of punctuation of the original edition has been in the main adhered to; although, pursuant to the principle there followed, a comma has here and there been dropped which seemed likely to obstruct the reader, and the gradations of thought have been occasionally indicated more distinctly by substituting a semicolon for the overworked colon. The titles of the books, which in the former edition were given as printed in 1611, have been somewhat abbreviated, at the dictate of convenience, and agreeably to usage, ancient as well as modern. They have been altered only in the few instances where the former heading was erroneous (as in the case of the Epistle to the Hebrews), or apt to mislead (as in the case of the Book of Acts), or hardly intelligible to the ordinary reader (as the "General" in the heading of some of the shorter Epistles), or founded in a misapprehension (as in the case of "Saint" prefixed to the names of the Evangelists). Moreover, the alternate title of the New Testament, and the mode of printing the headings of the Four Evangelists' narratives, are designed to recall to mind the inherent signification and primitive use of the terms "Testament" (compare Hebrews ix. 15 f.) and "Gospel." In the Book of Revelation, also, the "Glorias," "Trisagia," etc., have been marked typographically.

In dealing with the Language, the American revisers have endeavored to act with becoming deference and reserve. A few archaisms, such as "how that," "for to," "the which," "howbeit," etc., which are becoming uncouth to a modern ear, have been generally although not invariably discarded. Not a few of the instances of the superfluous use of "do" and "did" as auxiliaries, of "that" as equivalent to "that which," and the like, have also been removed; and current usage has been recognized in the case of forms which King James's revision employed indiscriminately, as "beside" and "besides" (see Luke xvi. 26; xxiv. 21). But in making these and other slight changes, the American editors have not forgotten that they were dealing with a venerable monument of English usage, and have been careful not to obliterate the traces of its historic origin and descent.

The two most obvious departures of this edition from that of 1881 consist in the addition of references to parallel and illustrative Biblical passages, and of running headings to indicate the contents of the pages.

The references have been selected in the main from a numerous collection provisionally attached to the text at one stage of the preparation of the original work, but withheld at the time of its publication. In selecting them, however, other similar collections and the better commentaries have not been neglected; but the aim has been to avoid multiplying them to such a degree as to embarrass or discourage a student. Accordingly, references which may be said to be of a hortatory or dogmatic character have been comparatively neglected, as belonging less to the study of Scripture than to its application, whether in the realm of thought or of life. On the other hand, prominence has been given to those which illustrate national customs, characteristic phrases, peculiarities of vocabulary or style, correspondences between different Biblical books, and the like. Some attempt has been made, also, to group references topically; as for example, in the case of Matthew's allusions to the "words" of Christ; of the "we" sections in Acts; of the use of "brethren" in addressing Christians on the one hand, and Jews on the other; of "Jews" as employed in a national and a hierarchical reference; and the like. In order further to lessen the number of "superiors" tending to distract a reader's eye, the different references belonging to a verse have often been consolidated, with the result occasionally that in the given group of passages one may illustrate one part of a verse, another another. References printed in italics designate parallel passages; in such cases the comprehensive reference is generally held to suffice for all details falling within the limits of the parallels, especially in the Gospels. In many cases, however, striking aphorisms, particularly when not found in all of the parallel narratives, have received a notation of their own. As the references constitute an apparatus mainly for Biblical study, and as their selection has been inevitably influenced somewhat by modern exegetical opinion, they have been separated from the citations and express allusions for which the sacred writer is responsible, by printing this latter class with Roman chapter-numerals and setting them at the foot of the page.

Notwithstanding the caution — as wise perhaps as prudent — which led the English Committee wholly to omit the headings of chapters and pages, and in spite of the disfavor which has been the fate of many attempts to furnish them from the days of Dr. Blayney, who, with four assistants, produced a set which speedily fell into neglect, it has been deemed best to equip the present edition with running headlines, which may serve in some sort instead of a detailed Table of Contents, and as landmarks to a reader familiar with the text. In preparing them it has been the constant aim to avoid as far as possible all pre-commitments, whether doctrinal or exegetical; and with this object in view, the forms of statement employed have been drawn in the main from the Biblical text. Often a fragmentary quotation which might serve as a catchword or reminder of a well-known passage has been deemed sufficient. The limitations of space have frequently compelled a partial selection from the contents of a given page, the continuation of a heading from one page to the next, or even the entry of the kernel of a statement on a page adjoining that on which it appears in the text. Slight displacement in such a case seemed preferable to total omission.

It is not superfluous to mention expressly the fact that in this edition the variant readings and renderings are placed at the foot of the pages, but in as close juxtaposition as possible with the passages to which they relate. The reader's attention is thereby drawn to the circumstance that some degree of uncertainty still cleaves, in the judgment of scholars, either to the text of the passage before him, or to its translation, or to both. Accordingly, when he remembers that, by the rule of procedure which the Committee followed, the translation of 1611 held its place in every instance until an alteration commanded the votes of two-thirds of the revisers, it will become evident to him that a rendering given in the margin may have commended itself to a majority, while still falling short of the degree of approval necessary to enable it to supplant the text. It is known that this was the case in a considerable number of instances, of which the established term "Comforter" as the appellation of the Holy Spirit in the fourteenth chapter of the Gospel of John is a notable representative.

The present volume, it is believed, will on the one hand bring a plain reader more closely into contact with the exact thought of the sacred writers than any version now current in Christendom, and on the other hand prove itself especially serviceable to students of the Word. In this belief the editors bid it anew God-speed, and in the realization of this desired result they will find their all-sufficient reward.

ILLUSTRATING THE BIBLE LANDS OF

THE NEW TESTAMENT.

Specially prepared for Nelson's Bibles by Frank Lloyd Rose, Cartographer, and edited by Rev. W. W. White, Ph.D., D.D., President of the Bible Teacher's Training School, New York,

These Maps include the results of recent careful surveys and the most authentic identification of Biblical localities.

They are placed through the Bible just where they should be to locate and firmly fix in the mind of the reader the places mentioned in the Sacred Text.

¹⁷ So all the generations from Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the ⁶ carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the ⁶ carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations.

¹⁸ Now the ⁸ birth ⁹ of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When his ⁱ mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was ^k found with child of the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. ²⁰ But when he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is ¹⁰ conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. ²¹ And she shall bring forth a son; and ^l thou shalt call his name JESUS; for it is he that ^m shall save his people from their sins. ²² Now all this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, ²³ ¹¹ Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son,

And they shall call his name ¹² Immanuel;

which is, being interpreted, God with us. ²⁴ And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife; ²⁵ and knew her not till she had brought forth a son: and ⁿ he called his name JESUS.

¹⁶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the ¹ Wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had exactly learned of the ¹ Wise-men. ¹⁷ Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁸ ^a A voice was heard in Ramah, Weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children;

And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

¹⁹ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord ^a appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, ²⁰ Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's life. ²¹ And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being ^k warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, ²³ and came and dwelt in a city called ¹ Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, ⁸ that he should be called a ^m Nazarene.

13 ^t Then cometh Jesus ^u from Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. 14 But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? 15 But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer ^v it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth him. 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened ^w unto him, and ^x he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him; 17 and lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, ^y This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

4 ^z Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. 2 And when he had ^{aa} fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. 3 And ^{ab} the tempter came

5 And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love to ^bstand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they ^cmay be seen of men. ^aVerily I say unto you, They have received their reward. 6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret, and ^ethy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee. 7 And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be heard for their ^fmuch speaking. 8 Be not therefore like unto them: for ^gyour Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. 9 ^aAfter this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. 10 ^aThy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. 11 ^aGive us this day ²our daily bread. 12 And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. 13 And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from ³the evil one.⁴ 14 ^mFor if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 Moreover ⁿwhen ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. ^oVerily I say unto you, They have received their reward. 17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face; 18 that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father who is in secret: and ^pthy Father, who seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.

their synagogues, and ^apreaching the ¹gospel of the kingdom, and ^bhealing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. 36 But when he ^csaw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, ^dbecause they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd. 37 Then saith he unto his disciples, ^eThe harvest indeed is plenteous, but the laborers are few. 38 ^fPray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest.

10 ^gAnd he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to ^hheal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.

2 ⁱNow the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, ^jSimon, who is called Peter, and ^kAndrew his brother; ^lJames the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; ^mPhilip, and Bartholomew; ⁿThomas, and ^oMatthew the ^ppublican; ^qJames the son of Alphaeus, and ^rThaddæus; ^s4 Simon the ^tCananean, and ^uJudas Iscariot, who also ^vbetrayed him.

5 ^wThese twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying, Go not into ^xany way of the Gentiles, and enter not into any city of the ^ySamaritans: 6 but go rather to ^zthe lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And as ye go, preach, saying, ^{aa}The kingdom of heaven is at hand. 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons: freely ye received, freely give. 9 ^{ab}Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your ^{ac}purses: 10 no wallet for ^{ad}your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for ^{ae}the laborer is worthy of his food. 11 And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go forth. 12 And as ye enter into the house, ^{af}salute it. 13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or that city, ^{ag}shake off the dust of your feet. 15 Verily I say unto you, ^{ah}It shall be more toler-

36 And I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in ^rthe day of judgment. 37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, Teacher, ^swe would see a sign from thee. 39 But he answered and said unto them, ^tAn evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet: 40 for as ^uJonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the ^vwhale; so shall ^wthe Son of man be ^xthree days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 ^yThe men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for ^zthey repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ^{aa}a greater than Jonah is here. 42 ^bThe queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ^{ac}a greater than Solomon is here. 43 ^dBut the unclean spirit, when ^ehe is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not. 44 Then ^fhe saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when ^ghe is come, ^hhe findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. 45 Then goeth ⁱhe, and taketh with ^jhimself seven other spirits more evil than ^khimself, and they enter in and dwell there: and ^lthe last state of that man cometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

46 ^mWhile he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his ⁿmother and his ^obrethren stood without, seeking to speak to him. 47 ^pAnd one said unto him, Behold, thy ^qmother and thy ^rbrethren stand without, seeking to speak to thee. 48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? 49 And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren! 50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 On that day went Jesus out of ^athe house, and sat ^bby the sea side. 2 And there were gathered unto him great multitudes, so that ^che entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. 3 And he spake to them many things in ^aparables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; 4 and as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: 5 and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. 7 And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked them: 8 and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, some a ^ahundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 ^aHe that hath ears¹, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? 11 And he answered and said unto them, ^aUnto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. 12 ^aFor whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables; because ^aseeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. 14 And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith, ²By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand; And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, And their ears are dull of hearing, And their eyes they have closed;

Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes, And hear with their ears, And understand with their heart, And should turn again, And I should heal them.

16 ^aBut blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17 For verily I say unto you, that ^mmany prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not. 18 ⁿHear then ye the parable of the sower. 19 When any one heareth ^othe word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh ^pthe evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the way side. 20 And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with joy receiveth it; 21 yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway he ^astumbleth. 22 And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and the care of ^rthe ³world, and the ^adeceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. 23 And he that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some ^aa hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable set he before them, saying, ^aThe kingdom of heaven is likened unto ^aa man that sowed good seed in his field: 25 but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed ⁴tares also among the wheat, and went away. 26 But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 And the ⁵servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? 28 And he said unto them, ⁶An enemy hath done this. 31 Another parable set he before them, saying, ^b° The kingdom of heaven is like unto ^aa grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: 32 which indeed is less than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that ^cthe birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them; ^b° The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in ^dthree ¹measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and ^awithout a parable spake he nothing unto them: 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

I will utter things hidden from the foundation ³of the world.

36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into ^bthe house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, ^aExplain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. 37 And he answered and said, He that soweth the good seed is ^kthe Son of man; 38 and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are ⁱthe sons of the kingdom; and the tares are ^mthe sons of ⁿthe evil one; 39 and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is ^a° the end of the world; and the reapers are angels. 40 As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in the ^a° end of the world. 41 ^kThe Son of man ^pshall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity, 42 and ^ashall cast them into the furnace of fire: ^rthere shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth. 43 Then shall the right-

And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. 24 But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto ^s the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 25 But she came and ⁹ worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. 26 And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's ¹⁰ bread and cast it to the dogs. 27 But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. 28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, ^u great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 ^v And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto ^x the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. 30 And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet; and ^y he healed them: 31 insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they ^z glorified the God of Israel.

32 ^a And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, ^b I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint on the way. 33 And the disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so many loaves in a desert place as to fill so great a multitude? 34 And Jesus said unto them, How many loaves have ye? 13 ^c'Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus said, ^d'Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for ^eto such belongeth ^fthe kingdom of heaven. 15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

into the kingdom of God. 25 And when the disciples heard it, they were astonished exceedingly, saying, Who then can be saved? 26 And Jesus looking upon them said to them, ^aWith men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. 27 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? 28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye who have followed me, in the regeneration when ^bthe Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ^cye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And ^devery one that hath left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, ^eor children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive ^fa hundred-fold, and shall inherit eternal life. 30 ^gBut many shall be last that are first; and first that are last.

20 1 For ^hthe kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that was a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his ⁱvineyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the laborers for a ^jshilling a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; 4 and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. 8 And when ^keven was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his ^lsteward, Call the laborers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. 9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a ^mshilling. 10 And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a ⁿshilling. 11 And among you shall be your ¹servant : 28 even as ^athe Son of man ^bcame not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 ^cAnd as they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. 30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, ^dhave mercy on us, thou ^eson of David. 31 And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace : but they cried out the more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou ^eson of David. 32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you ? 33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. 34 And Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes ; and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

21 ^fAnd when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto ^gthe mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her : loose them, and bring them unto me. 3 And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them ; and straightway he will send them. 4 ^hNow this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

5 ⁱTell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, Meek, and riding upon an ass, And upon a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus appointed them, 7 and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments ; and he sat thereon. 8 And the most part of the multitude ^j'spread their garments in the way ; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread them in the way. 9 And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, ^kHosanna to the ^lson of David : ^mBlessed ⁿis he that cometh in the name of the Lord ; Hosanna ^oin the highest. 10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this ? 11 And the multitudes said, This is ^mthe prophet, Jesus, from ⁿNazareth of Galilee.

12 ^oAnd Jesus entered into the temple ^pof God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the ^qmoney-changers, and the seats of them that sold ^rthe doves ; 13 and he saith unto them, It is written, ^sMy house shall be called a house of prayer : ^tbut ye make it a den of robbers. 14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple ; and ^uhe healed them. 15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the ^vson of David ; they were moved with indignation, 16 and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying ? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea : did ye never read, ^wOut of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise ? 17 And he left them, and went forth out of the city to ^xBethany, and lodged there.

18 ^yNow in the morning as he returned to the city, he hungered. 19 And seeing ^za fig tree by the way side, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only ; and he saith unto it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. and said unto them, I also will ask you one ¹question, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then did ye not believe him? 26 But if we shall say, From men; we fear the multitude; for all hold John as ^aa prophet. 27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. 28 But what think ye? A man had two ²sons; and he came to the first, and said, ³Son, go work to-day in the ^bvineyard. 29 And he answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented himself, and went. 30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. 22 And Jesus ^aanswered and spake again in parables unto them, saying, 2 ^b The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, 3 and ^csent forth his ^dservants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. 4 Again he ^esent forth other ^fservants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage feast. 5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise; 6 and the rest laid hold on his ^gservants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. 7 But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. 8 Then saith he to his ^hservants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not worthy. 9 Go ye therefore unto ⁱthe partings of the high-

the ⁷seventh. 27 And after them all, the woman died. 28 In the resurrection therefore whose wife shall she be of the seven ? for they all had her. 29 But Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, ^{ad}not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither ^{ae}marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels ^{af}in heaven. 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 ^{ag}I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob ? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 33 And when the multitudes heard it, ^{ah}they were astonished at his teaching.

34 ^{ai}But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put ^{aj}the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. 35 And one of them, ^{ak}a lawyer, asked him a question, trying him : 36 Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law ? 37 And he said unto him, ^{al}Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the great and first commandment. 39 ^{am}And a second like unto it is this, ^{an}Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 40 ^{ao}On these two commandments the whole law hangeth, and the prophets.

41 ^{ap}Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, 42 saying, What think ye of the Christ ? whose son is he ? They say unto him, ^{aq}The son of David. 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David ^{ar}in the Spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 ^{as}13 ^{at}The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet ?

45 If David then calleth him Lord, how is he his son ? 46 And ^{au}no one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

23 ^{av}Then spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, 2 saying, ^{aw}The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat :

6 ^e Now when Jesus was in ^f Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 there came unto him a woman having ¹ an alabaster cruse of exceeding precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head, as ² he sat at meat. 8 But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. 10 But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. 11 For ^g ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always. 12 For in that she ^h poured this ointment upon my body, she did it ⁱ to prepare me for burial. 13 Verily I say unto you, ^j Whosoever ^k this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

14 ^k Then one of the twelve, who was called ^l Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 and said, What are ye willing to give me, and I will ^m deliver him unto you? And ⁿ they weighed unto him thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to ^o deliver him unto them.

about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, ⁸Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, ⁹why hast thou forsaken me? 47 And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This man calleth Elijah. 48 And ⁹straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. 49 And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to save him.¹⁰ 50 And Jesus ^ccried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. 51 ^aAnd behold, ^bthe veil of the ⁵temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom; and ^cthe earth did quake; and the rocks were rent; 52 and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints that had ^afallen asleep were raised; 53 and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into ^cthe holy city and appeared unto many. 54 ⁷Now the centurion, and they that were with him ⁹watching Jesus, when they saw ^cthe earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was ¹¹the ^hSon of God. 55 ^aAnd many women were there beholding from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ^kministering unto him: 56 among whom was ⁱMary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of ¹²James and Joses, and ^mthe mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 ^aAnd when even was come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: 58 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. 59 And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled ^aa great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. 61 And ⁱMary Magdalene was

62 Now on the morrow, which is the day after ^athe Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, 63 saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said while he was yet alive, ^bAfter three days I rise again. 64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first. 65 Pilate said unto them, ¹Ye have a ^cguard: go, ²make it as sure as ye can. 66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, ^dsealing ^ethe stone, ^fthe guard being with them.

28 ^gNow late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came ^hMary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. 2 And behold, there was a great earthquake; for ⁱan angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away ^jthe stone, and sat upon it. 3 ^kHis appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow: 4 and for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men. 5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, ^lFear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, who hath been crucified. 6 He is not here; for he is risen, ^meven as he said. Come, see the place ⁿwhere the Lord lay. 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you ^ointo Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. 8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. 9 And behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his feet, and ^pworshipped him. 10 Then saith Jesus unto them, ^qFear not: go tell ^rmy brethren that they depart ^sinto Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of ^tthe guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass. 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave much money unto the soldiers, 13 saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. 14 And if this ^ucome to ^vthe governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care. 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was ^wspread abroad among the Jews, and continueth ^xuntil this day.

16 But the eleven disciples went ^yinto Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they ^zworshipped him; but ^{aa}some doubted. 18 And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, ^{ab}All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth. 19 ^{ac}Go ye therefore, and ^{ad}make disciples of ^{ae}all the nations, ^{af}baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: 20 teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, ^{ag}I am with you ^{ah}always, even unto ^{ai}the end of the world.

The Twelve are chosen. Calumny of the Scribes refuted. Spiritual Kinship more than Natural. The Reason for Parables pointed twelve,¹ that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, ¹⁵ and to have authority to cast out demons: ¹⁶² and Simon he surnamed Peter; ¹⁷ and ³James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of ³James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder: ¹⁸ and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and ³James, the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus and Simon the ⁴Cananæan, ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot, who also ⁵betrayed him.

And he cometh ⁶into a house. ²⁰ And ⁶the multitude cometh together again, ⁶so that they could not so much as eat bread. ²¹ And when ⁶his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, ⁷He is beside himself. ²² And the scribes that came down ⁸from Jerusalem said, He hath ^{7a}Beelzebub, and, ^{8a}By the prince of the demons casteth he out the demons. ²³ ^kAnd he called them unto him, and said unto them in ²parables, How can ^mSatan cast out Satan? ²⁴ And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵ And if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. ²⁶ And if ^mSatan hath risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. ²⁷ ⁿBut no one can enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. ²⁸ ^oVerily I say unto you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: ²⁹ but whosoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: ³⁰ because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

³¹ ^pAnd there come his mother and his brethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, calling him. ³² And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. ³³ And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother and my brethren? ³⁴ And looking round on them that sat round about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren! ³⁵ For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

⁴ ^qAnd again he began to teach ^rby the sea side. And there is gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land. ² And he taught them many things in ¹parables, and said unto them in his teaching, ³Hearken: Behold, the sower went forth to sow: ⁴ and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured it. ⁵ And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had no deepness of earth: ⁶ and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. ⁷ And other fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. ⁸ And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing; and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. ⁹ And he said, ⁶Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁰ And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parables. ¹¹ And he said unto them, Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto ¹them that are without, all things are done ^uin parables: ¹² ^vthat seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn again, and it should be forgiven them. ¹³ ^wAnd he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how shall ye know all the parables? ¹⁴ The sower soweth the word. ¹⁵ And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, straightway cometh ^mSatan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. ¹⁶ And these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it with joy;

Admonition to hear. The Secret Growth of the Seed. The Mustard Seed. The Storm. The Gerasene Demoniac

17 and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway they stumble. 18 And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, 19 and the cares of ^athe ¹world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. 20 And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.

21 And he said unto them, ^bIs the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand? 22 ^cFor there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. 23 ^aIf any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: ^ewith what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you; and more shall be given unto you. 25 ^fFor he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

26 And he said, ^gSo is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; 27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. 28 The earth ²beareth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. 29 But when the fruit ³is ripe, straightway he ⁴putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ^aAnd he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? 31 ⁵It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, 32 yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

they were able to hear it; 34 and ^kwithout a parable spake he not unto them: but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things.

35 ¹And on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. 36 And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, ^min the boat. And other boats were with him. 37 And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the boat was now filling. 38 And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, Teacher, carest thou not that we perish? 39 And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith? 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5 ⁿAnd they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. 2 And when he was come out of ^mthe boat, straightway there met him out of the tombs a man ^owith an unclean spirit, 3 who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more bind him, no, not with a chain; 4 because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame him. 5 And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. 6 And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and ⁶worshipped him; 7 and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, ^pWhat have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou ^qSon of ^rthe Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me not. 8 For he said unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the man. 9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith unto him, My name is ^sLegion; for we are many. 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away

Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I beheaded, he is risen. ¹⁷ For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of ²Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. ¹⁸ For John said unto Herod, ^aIt is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. ¹⁹ And ²Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him; and she could not; ²⁰ for ^bHerod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he ⁹was much perplexed; and he heard him gladly. ²¹ And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday ^cmade a supper to his lords, and the ¹⁰high captains, and the chief men ^dof Galilee; ²² and when ¹¹the daughter of ²Herodias herself came in and danced, ¹²she pleased Herod and them that sat at meat with him; and the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. ²³ And he swore unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto ^ethe half of my kingdom. ²⁴ And she went out, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptizer. ²⁵ And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me on a platter the head of John the Baptist. ²⁶ And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat, he would not reject her. ²⁷ And straightway the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring his head: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, ²⁸ and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother. ²⁹ And when his disciples heard thereof, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

The Five Thousand fed. Jesus walks on the Sea. In Gennesaret

saith unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and ^a they had no leisure so much as to eat. 32 ^b And they went away in ^c the boat to a desert place apart. 33 And the people saw them going, and many knew them, and they ran together there ¹ on foot from all the cities, and outwent them. 34 And he came forth and ^a saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because ^e they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. 35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, The place is desert, and the day is now far spent; 36 send them away, that they may go into the country and villages round about, and buy themselves somewhat to eat. 37 But he answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. ^f And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred ^{2g} shillings' worth of bread, and give them to eat? 38 And he saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. 39 And he commanded them that all should ³ sit down by companies upon the green grass. 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. 41 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he ^h blessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. 42 And they all ate, and were filled. 43 And they took up broken pieces, twelve ⁱ basketfuls, and also of the fishes. 44 And they that ate the loaves were ^k five thousand men.

45 ^l And straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into ^m the boat, and to go before him unto the other side to ⁿ Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the multitude away. 46 And after he had ^o taken leave of them, he departed ^p into the mountain to pray. 47 And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. 48 And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the ^q fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have passed by them: 49 but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; 50 for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, ^r Be of good cheer: it is I; ^s be not afraid. 51 And he went up unto them into ^t the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves; 52 for ^u they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart ^v was hardened.

53 ^w And when they had ^x crossed over, they came to the land unto Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. 54 And when they were come out of the boat, straightway the people knew him, 55 and ran round about that whole region, and began to carry about on their ^y beds those that were sick, where they heard he was, 56 And whosoever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the market-places, and besought him that they might ^z touch if it were but ^a the border of his garment: and as many as touched ^b him were made whole.

7 ^c And there are gathered to-gather unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, who had come ^d from Jerusalem, 2 and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with ^e defiled, that is, unwashen, hands. 3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands ^f diligently, eat not, holding the ^g tradition of the elders; 4 and when they come from the marketplace, except they ^h bathe themselves, they eat not; and many other things there are, which they have received to hold, ⁱ washings of ^j cups, and pots, and brassen vessels¹¹.) 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the ^k tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with ^l defiled hands? 6 And he said unto them,

Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

¹This people honoreth me with their lips,

But their heart is far from me.

8 Ye leave the commandment of God, and hold fast the ^atradition of men. 9 And he said unto them, Full well do ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your ^atradition. 10 For Moses said, ²Honor thy father and thy mother; and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him ³die the death: 11 but ye say, If a man shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is ⁴Corban, that is to say, Given to God; 12 ye no longer suffer him to do ought for his father or his mother; 13 making void the word of God by your ^atradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things ye do. 14 And he called to him the multitude again, and said unto them, Hear me all of you, and understand: 15 there is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.⁴ 17 And when he was entered ^cinto the house from the multitude, ^ahis disciples asked of him the parable. 18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the man, it cannot defile him; 19 because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? This he said, ^emaking all meats ^fclean. 20 And he said, ^gThat which proceedeth out of the man, that defileth the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, ^eevil thoughts proceed, fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, 22 covetings, wickednesses, deceit, lasciviousness, an ^eevil eye, railing, pride, foolishness: 23 all these evil things proceed from within, and defile the man.

and went away into the borders of ^kTyre ⁶and Sidon. And he entered into a house, and would have no man know it; and he could not be hid. 25 But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. 26 Now the woman was a ⁷Greek, a Syrophonician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter. 27 And he said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's ⁸bread and cast it to the dogs. 28 But she answered and saith unto him, Yea, Lord; even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. 29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the demon is gone out of thy daughter. 30 And she went away unto her house, and found the child laid upon the bed, and the demon gone out.

31 And again he went out from the borders of ^kTyre, and came through Sidon unto ^mthe sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of ⁿDecapolis. 32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to ^olay his hand upon him. 33 And ^phe took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he ^pspat, and touched his tongue; 34 and looking up to heaven, he ^qsighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. 35 And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. 36 And ^rhe charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they ^spublished it. 37 And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

8 In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, ^the called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, 2 ^uI have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: 3 and if I send them away fast-

And they said, Seven. 6 And he commandeth the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. 7 And they had a few small fishes: and ^ahaving blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them. 8 And they ate, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over, seven ^b baskets. 9 And they were about four thousand: and he sent them away. 10 And straightway he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of ^c Dalmanutha.

11 ^aAnd the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, ^cseeking of him a sign from heaven, trying him. 12 And he ^fsighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. 13 And he left them, and again entering into the boat departed to the other side.

14 And they forgot to take bread; and they had not in the boat with them more than one loaf. 15 And he charged them, saying, ^gTake heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of ^h Herod. 16 And they reasoned one with another, ²saying, ³We have no bread. 17 And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? ⁴do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your heart hardened? 18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? 19 When I brake ^athe five loaves among the five thousand, how many ⁴²baskets full of broken pieces took ye up? be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, ^athe Son of man also shall be ashamed of him, when he ^bcometh in the glory of his Father with ^cthe holy angels. 1 And he said unto them, ^bVerily I say unto you, There are some here of them that stand ^bby, who shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ^cAnd after six days Jesus taketh with him ^aPeter, and ¹James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them; 3 and ^chis garments became glistening, exceeding white, so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. 4 And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answereth and saith to Jesus, ^cRabbi, it is good for us to be here: and ^clet us make three ²tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. 6 For he knew not what to answer; for they became sore afraid. 7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and there came ^ba voice out of the cloud, ^cThis is my beloved Son: hear ye him. 8 And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 ^cAnd as they were coming down from the mountain, he ^ccharged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. 10 And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. 11 And they asked him, saying, ³How is it that the scribes say that ^mElijah must first come? 12 And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of ⁿthe Son of man, that ^ohe should suffer many things and be set at nought? 13 But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they would, even as it is written of him.

titude about them, and scribes questioning with them. 15 And straightway all the multitude, when they saw him, were ^qgreatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. 16 And he asked them, What question ye with them? 17 And one of the multitude answered him, Teacher, I brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit; 18 and where-soever it taketh him, it ^cdasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not able. 19 And he answereth them and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him unto me. 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit ^ctare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. 21 And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. 22 And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. 23 And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! ^rAll things are possible to him that believeth. 24 Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said⁶, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. 25 And when Jesus saw that ^ca multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. 26 And having cried out, and ^ctorn him much, he came out: and ^cthe boy became as one dead; insomuch that the more part said, He is dead. 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose. 28 And when he was come ^cinto the house, his disciples asked him privately, ⁷How is it that we could not cast it out? 29 And he said unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer⁸.

17 ^bAnd as he was going forth into the way, there ran one to him, and ^ckneeled to him, and asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may ^ainherit eternal life? 18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, even God. 19 Thou knowest the commandments, ²Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor thy father and mother. 20 And he said unto him, Teacher, ^aall these things have I observed from my youth. 21 And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have ¹treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 22 But his countenance fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, ⁹How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! 24 And the disciples ^awere amazed at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it ³for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! 25 ⁴It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they were astonished exceedingly, saying ⁴unto him, Then who can be saved? 27 Jesus looking upon them saith, ^aWith men it is impossible, but not with God: for all things are possible with God. 28 ¹Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. 29 Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, ^mThere is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for my sake, and for the ⁵gospel's sake, 30 but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in ⁿthe ⁶world to come eternal life. 31 But ^omany that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ^pAnd they were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them: and they ^qwere amazed; and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen unto him, 33 saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and ^rthe Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles: 34 and they shall mock him, and ^sshall spit upon him, and shall scourge him, and shall kill him; and after three days he shall rise again.

35 ^tAnd there come near unto him ⁷James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, Teacher, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall ask of thee. 36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? 37 And they said unto him, Grant unto us that we ^umay sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy glory. 38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able ^vto drink the cup that I drink? or ^xto be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? 39 And they said unto him, We are able. And Jesus said unto them, The cup that I drink ^yye shall drink; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: 40 but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give; ^zbut it is for them for whom it hath been prepared. 41 ^aAnd when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation concerning ⁷James and John. 42 And Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they who are accounted to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them; and their great ones exercise authority over them. 43 But it is not so among you: ^bbut whosoever would become great among you, shall be your ⁸minister; 44 and whosoever would be first among you, shall be ¹servant of all. 45 For the Son of man ^aalso came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ^bAnd they come to Jericho: and ^cas he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timæus, Bartimæus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the way side. 47 And when he heard that it was Jesus the ^dNazarene, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou ^eson of David, have mercy on me. 48 And many rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou ^eson of David, have mercy on me. 49 And Jesus stood still, and said, Call ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, ^fBe of good cheer: rise, he calleth thee. 50 And he, casting away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus answered him, and said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him, ^gRabboni, that I may receive my sight. 52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; ^hthy faith hath ⁱmade thee whole. And straightway he received his sight, and followed him in the way.

11 ^jAnd when they draw nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and ^kBethany, at ^lthe mount of Olives, he sendeth two of his disciples, 2 and saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and straightway as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat; loose him, and bring him. 3 And if any one say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye, The Lord hath need of him; and straightway he ^mwill send him ⁿback hither. 4 And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door without in the open street; and they loose him. 5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? 6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had said: and they let them go. 7 ^oAnd they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him. 8 And many spread their garments upon the way; and others ^pbranches, which they had cut from the fields. 9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, ^qHosanna; Blessed ^ris he that cometh in the name of the Lord: 10 Blessed ^ris the kingdom that cometh, ^sthe kingdom of our father David: Hosanna ^tin the highest.

11 And ^uhe entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, ^vhe went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 ^wAnd on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, he hungered. 13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs. 14 And he answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ^xAnd they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; 16 and he would not suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the temple. 17 And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, ^yMy house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? ^zbut ye have made it a den of robbers. 18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and ^{aa}sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for ^{ab}all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

19 And ^{ac}every evening ^{ad}he went forth out of the city.

20 ^{ae}And as they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, ^{af}Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, ^{ag}Have faith in God. 23 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall say

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: ^dand as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders; 28 and they said unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? or who gave thee this authority to do these things? 29 And Jesus said unto them, I will ask of you one ^equestion, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me. 31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? 32 ^fBut should we say, From men — they feared the people: ^gfor all verily held John to be a prophet. 33 And they answered Jesus and say, We know not. Last of all the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. 24 Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God? 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. 26 But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, ^ain the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, ¹I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? 27 ^bHe is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.

28 ^cAnd one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and ^dknowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first of all? 29 Jesus answered, The first is, ²Hear, O Israel; ³The Lord our God, the Lord is one: 30 and thou shalt love the Lord thy God ⁴with all thy heart, and ⁴with all thy soul, and ⁴with all thy mind, and ⁴with all thy strength. 31 The second is this, ⁶Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. 32 And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, Teacher, thou hast well said that ^ehe is one; and ^fthere is none other but he: 33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, ^gis much more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices. 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. ^hAnd no man after that durst ask him any question.

33 ^cAnd when the ^asixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole ¹land until the ^aninth hour. 34 And at the ^aninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, ^eEloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, ²My God, my God, ³why hast thou forsaken me? 35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. 36 And one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him down. 37 ^fAnd Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. 38 ^gAnd the veil of the ⁴temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. 39 ^hAnd when the centurion, who stood by over against him, saw that he ⁵so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was ⁶the Son of God. 40 ⁱAnd there were also women beholding from afar: among whom ⁷were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of ⁸James ^kthe ⁸less and of ⁹Joses, and ⁹Salome; 41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ^mministered unto him; and many other women that came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 ⁿAnd when even was now come, because it was ^othe Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 there came Joseph of Arimathæa, a ^pcouncillor ^qof honorable estate, who also himself was ^rlooking for the kingdom of God; and he ^sboldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he ⁹had been any while dead. 45 And when he learned it of ^tthe centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph. 46 And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled

ACCORDING TO LUKE

Preface. Birth of the Baptist foretold

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which ^ahave been ¹fulfilled among us, ²even as they delivered them unto us, who ^bfrom the beginning were ^ceyewitnesses and ^dministers of ^ethe word, ³it seemed good to me also, ^fhaving traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee ^gin order, ^hmost excellent ⁱTheophilus; ⁴that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the ^jthings ^kwherein thou ^lwast instructed.

⁵There was ^min the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the ⁿcourse of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. ⁶And they were both ^orighteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord ^pblameless. ⁷And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were ^qnow ^rwell stricken in years.

⁸Now it came to pass, while ^she executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, ⁹according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was ^tto enter into the ^utemple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰And the whole multitude of the people were praying ^vwithout at the hour of incense. ¹¹And there appeared unto him ^wan angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. ¹²And Zacharias was troubled when he saw ^xhim, and fear fell upon him. ¹³But the angel said unto him, ^yFear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and ^zthou shalt call his name John. ¹⁴And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many

shall rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall ^{aa}drink no wine nor ^{ab}strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶And many of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God. ¹⁷And he shall ^{ac}go before his face in the spirit and power of ^{ad}Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient ^{ae}to walk in the wisdom of the just; to ^{af}make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him. ¹⁸And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife ^{ag}well stricken in years. ¹⁹And the angel answering said unto him, I am ^{ah}Gabriel, that ^{ai}stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings. ²⁰And behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. ²¹And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled ^{aj}while he tarried in the ^{ak}temple. ²²And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the ^{al}temple: and he ^{am}continued making signs unto them, and remained dumb. ²³And it came to pass, when the days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.

²⁴And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying, ²⁵Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to ^{an}take away my reproach among men.

Birth of Jesus foretold. The Annunciation. Mary visits Elisabeth. The 'Magnificat.' Naming of the Baptist

26 Now in the sixth month the angel ^aGabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named ^bNazareth, 27 to ^ca virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, ^dof the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. 28 And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art ^ehighly favored, the Lord ^fis with thee². 29 But she ^gwas greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be. 30 And the angel said unto her, ^hFear not, Mary: for thou hast found ⁱfavor with God. 31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and ^jshalt call his name JESUS. 32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of ^kthe Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: 33 ^land he shall reign over the house of Jacob ^mfor ever; ⁿand of his kingdom there shall be no end. 34 And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? 35 And the angel answered and said unto her, ^oThe Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of ^pthe Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also ^qthe holy thing which is begotten⁶ shall be called ^rthe Son of God. 36 And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her that ^swas called barren. 37 For ^tno word from God shall be void of power. 38 And Mary said, Behold, the ^uhandmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in these days and went into ^vthe hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. 41 And it came to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was ^wfilled with the Holy Spirit; 42 and she lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed ^xart thou among women, and blessed ^yis the fruit of thy womb. 43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of ^zmy Lord should come unto me? 44 For behold, when the voice of thy salutation came into mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. 45 And ^{aa}blessed ^{ab}is she that ^{ac}believed; for there shall be a fulfilment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord. 46 And Mary said, ^{ad}"My soul ^{ae}doth magnify the Lord,

47 And ^{af}my spirit hath rejoiced in ^{ag}God my Saviour.

48 For he hath looked upon the low estate of his ^{ah}handmaid: For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me ^{ai}blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things;

And holy is his name. 50 And his mercy is unto generations and generations On them that fear him.

51 ^{aj}"He hath showed strength with his arm;

He hath scattered the proud ^{ak}in the imagination of their heart.

52 He hath put down princes from ^{al}their thrones, And hath exalted them of low degree.

53 The hungry he hath filled with good things; And the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath given help to Israel his servant,

That he might remember mercy 55 ^{am}(^{an}As he spake unto our fathers) Toward Abraham and his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned unto her house.

57 Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. 58 And her neighbors and her kinsfolk heard that the Lord had ^{ao}magnified his mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her. 59 And it came to pass on ^{ap}the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. 60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but ^{aq}he shall be called John. 61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy 80 ^pAnd the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel.

2 Now it came to pass in those ^qdays, there went out a decree from ^rCæsar Augustus, that ^sall ^tthe world should be enrolled. 2 This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius was governor of ^uSyria. 3 And all went to enrol themselves, every one to his own city. 4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because ^vhe was of the house and family of David; 5 to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child. 6 And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered. 7 And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping ^wwatch by night over their flock. 9 And ^xan angel of the Lord ^ystood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. 10 And the angel said unto them, ^zBe not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: 11 for there is born to you this day in the city of David a ^aSaviour, who is ^bChrist ^cthe Lord. 12 And ^dthis is the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 ^eGlory to God in the highest, And on earth ^fpeace among ^gmen ^hin whom he is well pleased.

15 And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to 21 And when^c eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him,^a his name was called JESUS, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of their purification³ according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord 23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord,⁴ Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord,⁵ A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. 25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and this man was⁶ righteous and devout,⁷ looking for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26 And⁸ it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not⁹ see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus,¹⁰ that they might do concerning him after the custom of the law, 28 then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,

32^a A light for^a revelation to the Gentiles,
And the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And his father and^o his mother were marvelling at the things which were spoken concerning him; 34 and Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary^o his mother, Behold, this child is set for² the falling and the rising of many in Israel; and for a sign which is spoken against; 35 yea and a sword shall pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed. 36 And there was one Anna, a^q prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of^r the tribe of Asher (she was⁹ of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37 and she had been a widow even unto fourscore and four years), who departed not from the temple, worshipping with⁴ fastings and supplications night and day. 38 And coming up at that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were^u looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. 39 And when they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to^v their own city Nazareth.

40^x And the child grew, and waxed strong,¹⁰ filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 And his parents went every year to Jerusalem at⁷ the feast of the passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up after the custom of the feast; 43 and when they had^z fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not; 44 but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance: 45 and when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking for him. 46 And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the¹¹ teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions: 47 and all that heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. 48 And when they saw him, they were astonished; and ^ahis mother said unto him, ¹Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, ^bthy father and I sought thee sorrowing. 49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must be ²in my Father's house? 50 And ^cthey understood not the saying which he spake unto them. 51 And he went down with them, and came to ^aNazareth; and he was subject unto them: and ^ahis mother ^ckept all these ³sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus advanced in wisdom and ⁴stature, and in ^{5f}favor with God and men.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, ^aPontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and ^bHerod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituræa and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 in the high-priesthood of ^aAnnas and ^aCaiaphas, ⁱthe word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. 3 And he came into all ^mthe region round about the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins; 4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

⁶The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

Make ye ready the way of the Lord,

Make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, And every mountain and hill shall be brought low; And the crooked shall become straight,

And the rough ways smooth;

6 And all flesh shall ⁿsee the salvation of God.

7 He said therefore to the multitudes that went out to be baptized of him, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of ⁷repentance, and ^abegin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. 9 And even now the axe also lieth at the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 10 And the multitudes asked him, saying, What then must we do? 11 And he answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him do likewise. 12 And there came also ^spublicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, Teacher, what must we do? 13 And he said unto them, Extort no more than that which is appointed you. 14 And ⁹soldiers also asked him, saying, And we, what must we do? And he said unto them, Extort from no man by violence, neither accuse any one wrongfully; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, ^pwhether haply he were the Christ; 16 ^aJohn answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but there cometh he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not ¹⁰worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you ¹¹in the Holy Spirit and in fire: 17 whose ^rfan is in his hand, thoroughly to cleanse his threshing-floor, and to gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn up with ^aunquenchable fire.

18 With many other exhortations therefore preached he ¹²good tidings unto the people; 19 but ^aHerod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for ^aHerodias his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which ⁿHerod had done, 20 added this also to them all, that ^vhe shut up John in prison.

21 ^aNow it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that, Jesus also having been baptized, and ⁹praying, the heaven was opened, 22 and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form, as a dove, upon him, and a voice came out of heaven, ²Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. 8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. 9 For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; 10 and so were also ^cJames and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, ^dFear not; from henceforth thou shalt ^ecatch men. 11 And when they had brought their boats to land, ^fthey left all, and followed him.

the ¹sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? 35 ^aBut the days will come; and when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, then will they fast in those days. 36 And he spake also a parable unto them: No man rendeth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old garment; else he will rend the new, and also the piece from the new will not agree with the old. 37 And no man putteth new wine into old ²wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be spilled, and the skins will perish. 38 But new wine must be put into fresh wine-skins. 39 And no man having drunk old wine desireth new; for he saith, The old is ³good.

6 ⁴Now it came to pass on a sabbath, that he was going through the grainfields; and his disciples ⁵plucked the ears, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. ²But certain of the Pharisees said, Why do ye that which ^ait is not lawful to do on the sabbath day? ³And Jesus answering them said, ⁵Have ye not read even this, what David did, when he was hungry, he, and they that were with him; ⁴how he entered into the house of God, and took and ate the showbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests alone? ⁵And he said unto them, The Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

⁶And it came to pass ⁷on another sabbath, that he entered into ^athe synagogue and taught; and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. ⁷And the scribes and the Pharisees ^bwatched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they might find how to accuse him. ⁸But he ^cknew their thoughts; and he said to the man that had his hand withered, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. ⁹And Jesus said unto them, I ask you, Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to destroy it? ¹⁰And he ^dlooked round about on them all, and said unto him,

And when all denied, Peter said, ¹and they that were with him, ^bMaster, the multitudes press thee and crush thee. 46 But Jesus said, Some one did touch me; for I perceived that ^cpower had gone forth from me. 47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people for what cause she touched him, and how she was healed immediately. 48 And he said unto her, Daughter, ^dthy faith hath ^emade thee whole; ^fgo in peace.

49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from ^gthe ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Teacher. 50 But Jesus hearing it, answered him, ^hFear not: only believe, and she shall be ⁱmade whole. 51 And when he came to the house, he suffered not any man to enter in with him, save Peter, and John, and James, and the father of the maiden and her mother. 52 And all were weeping, and ^jbemoaning her: but he said, Weep not; for she is not dead, but ^ksleepeth. 53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. 54 But he, taking her by the hand, called, saying, Maiden, arise. 55 And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately: and he commanded that ^lsomething be given her to eat. 56 And her parents were amazed: but he ^mcharged them to tell no man what had been done.

9 ⁿAnd he called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. 2 And he sent them forth to ^opreach the kingdom of God, and to heal ^pthe sick. 3 And he said unto them, ^qTake nothing for your journey, ^rneither staff, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats. 4 And into whatsoever house ye enter, there abide, and thence de-

7 ⁴Now ⁵Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done: and he was much perplexed, because that it was said by some, that ⁶John was risen from the dead; 8 and by some, that ⁷Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. 9 And Herod said, John I beheaded: but who is this, about whom I hear such things? And ⁸he sought to see him.

10 ⁹And the ¹⁰apostles, when they were returned, declared unto him what things they had done. ¹¹And he took them, and withdrew apart to a city called ¹¹Bethsaida. 12 But the multitudes perceiving it followed him: and he welcomed them, and spake to them of the kingdom of God, and them that had need of healing he cured. 13 And the day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and country round about, and lodge, and get provisions: for we are here in a desert place. 14 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy food for all this people. 15 For they were about five thousand men. And he said unto his disciples, Make them ¹²sit down ¹³in companies, about fifty each. 16 And they did so, and made them all ¹⁴sit down. 17 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake; and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. 18 And they ate, and were all filled: and there was taken up that which remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve ¹⁵baskets.

19 ¹⁶And it came to pass, as he was ¹⁷praying apart, the disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes say that I am? 20 And they answering said, John the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others,

I will turn back unto my house whence I came out. ²⁵ And when ⁶he is come, ⁶he findeth it swept and garnished. ²⁶ Then goeth ⁶he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than ⁷himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first.

²⁷ And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, ⁹Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. ²⁸ But he said, Yea rather, blessed are ⁷they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

²⁹ And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, ^aThis generation is an evil generation: it ^tseeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah. ³⁰ For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. ³¹ The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ⁸a greater than Solomon is here. ³² The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ⁸a greater than Jonah is here.

³³ No ^uman, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a cellar, neither under the bushel, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see the light. ³⁴ ^vThe lamp of thy body is thine eye: when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. ³⁵ Look therefore whether the light that is in thee be not darkness. ³⁶ If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining doth give thee light.

42 ^gBut woe unto you Pharisees! for ye ^htithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over justice and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. 43 Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye ⁱlove the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces. 44 ^jWoe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

45 And one of the ^klawyers answering saith unto him, Teacher, in saying this thou reproachest us also. 46 And he said, Woe unto you ^llawyers also! for ^mye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. 47 ⁿWoe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build ^otheir tombs. 49 Therefore also said ^pthe wisdom of God, ^qI will send unto them prophets and apostles; and ^rsome of them they shall kill and persecute; 50 that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed ^sfrom the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; 51 from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the ^tsanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation. 52 Woe unto you ^ulawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ^vye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, ^{an}even as a hen ^{ao}gathereth her own brood under her wings, and ye would not! 35 Behold, your house is left unto you ^{ap}desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, ^{aq}Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that ^{ar}they were watching him. 2 And behold, there was before him a certain man that had the dropsy. 3 And Jesus ^{as}answering spake unto the ^{at}lawyers and Pharisees, saying, ^{au}Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not? 4 But they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go. 5 And he said unto them, ^{av}Which of you shall have ^{aw}an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? 6 ^{ax}And they could not answer again unto these things.

7 And he spake a parable unto those that were bidden, when he marked how ^{ay}they chose out the chief seats; saying unto them, 8 When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, ^{az}sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honorable man than thou be bidden of him, 9 and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt ^{ba}begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, ^{bb}go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that ^{bc}sit at meat with thee. 11 ^{bd}For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbors; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee. 13 But when thou makest a feast, bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: 14 and thou shalt be blessed; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in ^athe resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that ¹sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, ^bBlessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. 16 But he said unto him, ^cA certain man made a great supper; and he bade many: 17 and he sent forth his ²servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. 18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it; I pray thee have me excused. 19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused. 20 And another said, ^aI have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. 21 And the ²servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his ²servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. 22 And the ²servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room. 23 And the lord said unto the ²servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24 For I say unto you, that none of those men that were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 Now there went with him great multitudes: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 ^eIf any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. 27 Whosoever doth not ^fbear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. 28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it? 29 Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, 30 saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. 31 Or what king, as he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassador, and asketh conditions of peace. 33 So therefore whosoever he be of you that ^grenounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. 34 Salt therefore is good: but ^hif even the salt have lost its savor, wherewith shall it be seasoned? 35 It is fit neither for the land nor for the dunghill: men cast it out. ⁱHe that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

15 Now all the ^{3*}publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him to hear him. 2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and ^jeateth with them.

3 And he spake unto them this parable, saying, 4 ^mWhat man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? 5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. 7 I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance.

8 Or what woman having ten ⁴pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? 9 And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. 10 Even so, I say unto you, there is joy ⁿin the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

And he divided unto them his ²living. 13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living. 14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. 15 And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16 And he would fain ²have filled his belly with ³the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. 17 But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish here with hunger! 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: 19 I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. 20 And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and ^cfell on his neck, and ^dkissed him. 21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son ^e. 22 But the father said to his ^fservants, Bring forth quickly ^athe best robe, and put it on him; and ^eput a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: 23 and bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and make merry: 24 for this my son was ⁷dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. 25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 And he called to him one of the servants, and inquired what these things might be. 27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. 28 But he was angry, and would not go in: and his father came out, and entreated him. 29 But he answered and said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: 30 but when this thy son came, who hath devoured thy ⁹living with harlots, thou killedst for him the fatted calf. 31 And he said unto him, ⁷Son, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. 32 But it was meet to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was ^hdead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

16 And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was ²wasting his goods. 2 And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. 3 And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. 4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. 5 And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? 6 And he said, A hundred ⁸measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy ⁹bond, and sit down quickly and write fifty. 7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred ¹⁰measures of wheat. He saith unto him, Take thy ⁹bond, and write fourscore. 8 And his lord commended ¹¹the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of ^kthis ¹²world are for their own generation wiser than the ⁷sons of the light. 9 And I say unto you, ^mMake to yourselves friends ¹³by means of the ⁿmammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, ^othey may receive you into the eternal tabernacles. 10 ^pHe that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous in a very little is unrighteous also in much. 11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous ^amammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is ¹your own? 13 ²No² servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and ^amammon.

14 And the Pharisees, who were ^alovers of money, heard all these things; and they ^ascoffed at him. 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they that ^ajustify yourselves in the sight of men; but ¹God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. 16 ^aThe law and the prophets were until John: from that time ^athe ³gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every man entereth violently into it. 17 ¹But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall.

19 Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, ^afaring sumptuously every day: 20 and a certain beggar named Lazarus ¹was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into ^aAbraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. 23 And in ^aHades he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And he cried and said, ^aFather Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in ^athis flame. 25 But Abraham said, ⁵Son, remember that ^athou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. 26 And ^abesides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they that would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to us. 27 And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; 28 for I have five brethren; that he may ^atestify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. 29 But Abraham saith, They have ^aMoses and the prophets; let them hear them. 30 And he said, Nay, ^afather Abraham: but if one go to them from the dead, they will repent. 31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

17 And he said unto his disciples, ^aIt is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come; but woe unto him, through whom they come! 2 ^aIt were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Take heed to yourselves: ^aif thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. 4 And if he sin against thee ^aseven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

11 And it came to pass,² as they were ^aon the way to Jerusalem, that ^bhe was passing ^calong the borders of Samaria and Galilee. 12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, who ^cstood afar off: 13 and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, ^aMaster, have mercy on us. 14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, ^cGo and show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. 15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice ^cglorifying God; 16 and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a ^cSamaritan. 17 And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? 18 ^dWere there none found that returned to ^cgive glory to God, save this ^estranger? 19 And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: ^hthy faith hath ^emade thee whole.

20 And being asked by the Pharisees, ^awhen the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with ^kobservation: 21 neither shall ⁱthey say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is ^jwithin you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, ^mThe days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. 23 ⁿAnd they shall say to you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow after ^{them}: 24 ^ofor as the lightning, when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall the Son of man be ^sin his day. 25 ^pBut first must he suffer many things and be rejected of this generation. 26 ^qAnd as it came to pass ^rin the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. 27 They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered

And he said unto them, ^uWhere the body is, thither will the ¹¹eagles also be gathered together.

18 And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ^aought always to pray, and not to ^bfaint; 2 saying, There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, and ^cregarded not man: 3 and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, ¹²Avenge me of mine adversary. 4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor ^cregard man; 5 yet ^abecause this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, ¹³lest she ¹⁴wear me out by her continual coming. 6 And ^jthe Lord said, Hear what ¹⁵the unrighteous judge saith. 7 And shall not God ⁹avenge his ^belect, that cry to him day and night, ¹⁶and yet he is ¹⁷longsuffering over them? 8 I say unto you, that he will avenge them speedily. The Pharisee and the Publican. Little Children received. The Peril of Riches. Jesus again foretells his Fate. The Blind Man cometh, ¹ shall he find ¹ faith on the earth?

9 And he spake also this parable unto certain who ^b trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and ² set ² all others at nought: 10 Two men ^a went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a ³ publican. 11 The Pharisee ^c stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this ³ publican. 12 I ^d fast twice in the week; ^e I give tithes of all that I get. 13 But the ³ publican, ^f standing afar off, ^h would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but ^g smote his breast, saying, God, ⁱ be thou merciful to me ⁵ a sinner. 14 I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: ^k for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
15 ^l And they were bringing unto him also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16 But Jesus called them unto him, saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for ⁶ to such belongeth the kingdom of God. 17 Verily I say unto you, ^m Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.
18 ⁿ And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? 19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even God. 20 Thou knowest the commandments, ⁷ Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and mother. 21 And he said, All these things have I observed from my youth up. 22 And when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: ⁸ sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have ^p treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. 23 But when he heard these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich.

24 And Jesus seeing him said, ⁹ How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! 25 For ⁹ it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. 26 And they that heard it said, Then who can be saved? 27 But he said, ⁹ The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. 28 And Peter said, Lo, ⁹ we have left ⁹ our own, and followed thee. 29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ⁹ There is no man that hath left house, or wife, or brethren, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 who shall not receive manifold more in this time, and in ⁹ the ⁹ world to come eternal life.
31 ⁹ And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, ⁹ we go up to Jerusalem, and ⁹ all the things that are written through the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. 32 ⁹ For he shall be ¹⁰ delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shamefully treated, and spit upon: 33 and they shall scourge and kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. 34 And ⁹ they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.
35 ⁹ And it came to pass, ⁹ as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging: 36 and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. 37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. 38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou ⁹ son of David, have mercy on me. 39 And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou ⁹ son of David, have mercy on me. 40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. 42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: ⁹ thy faith hath ¹¹ made thee whole. 43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, ⁹ glorifying God:

at Jericho. Zacchæus the Publican. The Parable of the Pounds. The Triumphal Entry

19 And he ^bentered and was passing through Jericho. 2 And behold, a man called by name Zacchæus; and he was a chief publican, and he was rich. 3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature. 4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into a ^csycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. 5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house. 6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. 7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. 8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto ^dthe Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have ^ewrongfully exacted aught of any man, I restore ^ffourfold. 9 And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is ^ga son of Abraham. 10 For ^hthe Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because ⁱhe was nigh to Jerusalem, and ^jbecause they supposed that ^kthe kingdom of God was immediately to appear. 12 He said therefore, ^lA certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 And he called ten ^mservants of his, and gave them ten ⁿpounds, and said unto them, Trade ye ^oherewith till I come. 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us. 15 And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these ^pservants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. 16 And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more. 17 And he said unto him, Well done, thou good ^qservant:

because thou wast found ^mfaithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. 18 And the second came, saying, Thy pound, Lord, hath made five pounds. 19 And he said unto him also, Be thou also over five cities. 20 And ⁿanother came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: 21 for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that which thou layedst not down, and reapest that which thou didst not sow. 22 He saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked ^oservant. Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that which I laid not down, and reaping that which I did not sow; 23 then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and ^pI at my coming should have required it with interest? 24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. 25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds. 26 ^qI say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away from him. 27 But ^rthese mine enemies, that would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and ^sslay them before me.

them, I also will ask you a ⁹question; and tell me: 4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why did ye not believe him? 6 But if we shall say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a ¹⁰prophet. 7 And they answered, that they knew not whence it was. 8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 ¹¹'And he began to speak unto the people this parable: A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country for a long time. 10 And at the season he sent unto the husbandmen a ¹²servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. 11 And he sent yet another ¹³servant: and him also they beat, and handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12 And he sent yet a third: and him also they wounded, and cast him forth. 13 And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; it may be they will ¹⁴reverence him. 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. 15 And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them? 16 He will come and ¹⁷destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. And when they heard it, they said, ¹⁸'God forbid. 17 But he looked upon them, and said, What then is this that is written, ceived that he spake this parable against them. 20 ^{a b} And they watched him, and sent forth spies, who feigned themselves to be righteous, ^c that they might take hold of his speech, so as to deliver him up to the ^d rule and to the authority of ^e the governor. 21 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and acceptest not the person of any, but of a truth teachest the way of God: 22 Is it lawful for us ^e to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? 23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, 24 Show me a ² denarius. Whose image and superscription hath it? And they said, Cæsar's. 25 And he said unto them, Then ^f render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. 26 And they were not able to ^e take hold of the saying before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

Captious Questions: — Pay Tribute to Cæsar? Is there a Resurrection? The Widow's Mites. The Destruction of Jerusalem

27 ^g And there came to him certain of the Sadducees, they that say that there is no resurrection; 28 and they asked him, saying, Teacher, ³ Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. 29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless; 30 and the second; 31 and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. 34 And Jesus said unto them, The sons of ^h this ⁴ world marry, and are given in marriage: 35 but they that are accounted worthy to attain to ^h that ⁴ world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: 36 for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are ⁱ sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in ^{5 k} the place concerning the Bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. 38 ^l Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for ^m all live unto him. 39 And certain of the scribes answering said, Teacher, thou hast well said. 40 For ⁿ they durst not any more ask him any question.

41 ^o And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ is ^p David's son? 42 For David himself saith in the book of Psalms,

^q The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

43 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his son?

45 ^r And in the hearing of all the people he said unto his disciples, 46. Beware of the scribes, ^s who desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts; 47 who devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: ^t these shall receive greater condemnation.

21 ^u And he looked up, ^v and saw the rich men that were casting their gifts into the treasury. 2 And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither ^w two mites. 3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than they all: 4 for all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts; but she of her want did cast in all the ^x living that she had.

5 ^y And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said, 6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which ^z there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. 7 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass? 8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, ^{aa} I am he; and, The time is at hand: ^{ab} go ye not after them. 9 And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. 42 And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou comest ¹in thy kingdom. 43 And he said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in ^aParadise.

44 ^bAnd it was now about ^cthe sixth hour, and a darkness came over the whole ²land until the ninth hour, 45 ³the sun's light failing: and ^athe veil of the ⁴temple was rent in the midst. 46 ⁵And Jesus, ^ccrying with a loud voice, said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said this, he gave up the ghost. 47 ⁷And when the centurion saw what was done, he ⁹glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. 48 And all the multitudes that came together to this sight, when they beheld the things that were done, returned ^bsmiting their breasts. 49 ⁶And all his acquaintance, and ^dthe women that followed with him from Galilee, stood afar off, seeing these things.

50 ^kAnd behold, a man named Joseph, who was a ¹councillor, a good and righteous man 51 (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), a ^{man} of Arimathæa, a city of the Jews, who was ^mlooking for the kingdom of God: 52 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, where never man had yet lain. 54 And it was the day of ⁿthe Preparation, and the sabbath ⁶drew on. 55 And ^cthe women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid. 56 And they returned, and ^pprepared spices and ointments.

And on the sabbath they rested according to ^qthe commandment. 24 ¹But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 And they entered in, and found

Yea and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things came to pass. 22 Moreover certain women of our company amazed us, ^ehaving been early at the tomb; 23 and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. 24 And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. 25 And he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe ^fin all that ^gthe prophets have spoken! 26 ^hBehooved it not the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory? 27 And beginning from ⁱMoses and from all the ^jprophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. 28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and ^khe made as though he would go further. 29 And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to abide with them. 30 And it came to pass, when he had sat down with them to meat, he took the ^lbread and ^mblessed; and breaking ⁿit he gave to them. 31 And their ^oeyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. 32 And they said one to another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he ^popened to us the scriptures? 33 And they rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and ^qfound the eleven gathered together, and ^rthem that were with them, 34 saying, ^sThe Lord is risen indeed, and ^thath appeared to Simon. 35 And they rehearsed the things that ^uhappened in the way, and how ^vhe was known of them in the breaking of the bread. 36 And as they spake these things, ^whe himself stood in the midst of them, ^xand saith unto

ACCORDING TO JOHN

The Prologue. The Baptist's Disclaimer. The Baptist's Testimony

1 ^aIn the beginning was ^bthe Word, and the Word was ^cwith God, and ^dthe Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 ^eAll things were made through him; and without him ^fwas not anything made that hath been made. 4 ^gIn him was life; and the life was ^hthe light of men. 5 And ⁱthe light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness ^japprehended it not. 6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was ^kJohn. 7 The same came ^lfor witness, that he might bear witness of the light, ^mthat all might believe through him. 8 ⁿHe was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of the light. 9 ^oThere was ^pthe true light, even the light which lighteth ^qevery man, coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and ^rthe world was made through him, and the world knew him not. 11 He came unto ^shis own, and they that were his own received him not. 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become ^tchildren of God, even ^uto them that believe on his name: 13 ^vwho were ^wborn, not of ^xblood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And ^ythe Word ^zbecame flesh, and ^{aa}dwelt among us (and ^{ab}we beheld his glory, glory as of ^{ac}the only begotten from the Father), full of ^{ad}grace and ^{ae}truth. 15 John ^{af}bear-eth witness of him, and crieth, say-

Art thou ^mElijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou ⁿthe prophet? And he answered, No. 22 They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? 23 He said, ^oI am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as ^psaid Isaiah the prophet. 24 ^qAnd they had been sent from the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither ^rthe prophet? 26 John answered them, saying, ^sI baptize ^tin water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, ^ueven ^vhe that cometh after me, the ^wlatchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose. 28 These things were done in ^xBethany ^ybeyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Jesus answered and said unto him, Before ⁱPhilip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. 49 Nathanael answered him, ^jRabbi, thou art ^kthe Son of God; thou art ^lKing of Israel. 50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee underneath the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. 51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see ^mthe heaven opened, and ⁿthe angels of God ascending and descending upon ^othe Son of man.

2 And ^athe third day there was a marriage in ^bCana of Galilee; and the ^cmother of Jesus was there: 2 and Jesus also was bidden, and his ^ddisciples, to the marriage. 3 And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. 4 And Jesus saith unto her, ^eWoman, ^fwhat have I to do with thee? ^gmine hour is not yet come. 5 His ^hmother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. 6 Now there were six waterpots of stone set there ⁱafter the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three firkins apiece. 7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. 8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the ^jru-ler of the feast. And they bare it. 9 And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water ^know become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants that had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, 10 and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when ^lmen ^mhave drunk freely, ⁿthen that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now. 11 This beginning of his ^a signs did Jesus in Cana of ^b Galilee, and manifested his ^c glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 After this he went down to ^a Capernaum, he, and his ^c mother, and his ^c brethren, and his ^d disciples; and there they abode not many days.

13 And ^e the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus ^h went up to Jerusalem. 14 And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: 15 and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables; 16 and to them that sold ^k the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not ⁱ my Father's house a house of merchandise. 17 His ^j disciples remembered that it was written, ^l Zeal for thy house shall eat me up. 18 ^m The Jews therefore answered and said unto him, ⁿ What sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, ^o Destroy this ^p temple, and in three days I will raise it up. 20 ^m The Jews therefore said, ^q Forty and six years was this ^p temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? 21 But he spake of ^r the ^p temple of his body. 22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his ^j disciples ^r remembered that he spake this; and they believed ^s the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at ^t the passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, ^u beholding his signs which he did. 24 But Jesus did not trust himself unto them, for that he knew all men, 25 and because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning ^v man; ^w for he himself knew what was in man.

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named ^x Nicodemus, a ^y ruler of the Jews: 2 the same came unto him by night, and said to him, ^z Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no one can do these ^{aa} signs that the world; but that the world should be saved through him. 18 ^aHe that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of ^bthe only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the judgment, that ^cthe light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for ^dtheir works were evil. 20 ^eFor every one that ^fdoeth evil hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be ^greproved. 21 But he that ^hdoeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, ⁱthat they have been wrought in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his ^jdisciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and ^kbaptized. 23 And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there ^lwas much water there: and they came, and were baptized. 24 For ^mJohn was not yet cast into prison. 25 There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about ⁿpurifying. 26 And they came unto John, and said to him, ^oRabbi, he that was with thee ^pbeyond the Jordan, to whom thou ^qhast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. 27 John answered and said, ^rA man can receive nothing, except it have been given him from heaven. 28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, ^sI am not the Christ, but, that I am sent before him. 29 He that hath the bride is ^tthe bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, that standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my ^ujoy therefore is made full. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 ^vHe that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and ^wof the earth he speaketh: ^xhe that cometh from heaven is above all. 32 What he hath seen and heard, of that he ^ybeareth witness; and ^zno man receiveth his witness. 33 He that hath received his witness ^{aa}hath set his seal to this, that God is true.

4 When therefore ^athe Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and ^bbaptizing more disciples than John 2 (although ^cJesus himself baptized not, but his ^ddisciples), 3 he ^eleft Judæa, and departed ^fagain into Galilee. 4 And he must needs pass through ^gSamaria. 5 So he cometh to a city of ^hSamaria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that ⁱJacob gave to his son Joseph: 6 and Jacob's ^jwell was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat ^kthus by the ^lwell. It was about the sixth hour. 7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. 8 For his ^mdisciples were gone away into ⁿthe city to buy food. 9 The ^oSamaritan woman therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman? (^pFor ^qJews have no dealings with Samaritans.) 10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ^rliving water. 11 The woman saith unto him, ^sSir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: whence then hast thou that ^tliving water? 12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who ^ugave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle? 13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Every one that drinketh of this water shall thirst again: 14 but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him ^vshall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become in him a well of water springing up unto ^weternal life. 15 The woman saith

Jesus saith unto her, Thou saidst well, I have no husband: 18 for thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: this hast thou said truly. 19 The woman saith unto him, ¹Sir, I perceive that thou art ^ba prophet. 20 ^cOur fathers worshipped in "this mountain; and ye say, that ^cin Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. 21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, ^fthe hour cometh, when ^gneither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. 22 ^hYe worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know; for ⁱsalvation is from the Jews. 23 But ^kthe hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father ^jin spirit and truth: ^lfor such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers. 24 ^mGod is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship ⁿin spirit and truth. 25 The woman saith unto him, I know that ^mMessiah cometh ("he that is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all things. 26 Jesus saith unto her, ^oI that speak unto thee am he.

27 And upon this ^pcame his ^qdisciples; and they marvelled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why speakest thou with her? 28 So the woman left her water-pot, and went away into the city, and saith to the people, 29 Come, see a man, ^rwho told me all things that ever I did: ^scan this be the Christ? 30 They went out of the city, and were coming to him. 31 In the mean while the disciples prayed him, saying, ^tRabbi, eat. 32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not. 33 The ^udisciples therefore said one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? 34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to ^vdo the will of him that sent

39 And from ^cthat city many of the Samaritans believed on him because of the word of the woman, who testified, ^dHe told me all things that ever I did. 40 So when the Samaritans came unto him, they besought him to abide with them: and he abode there two days. 41 And many more believed because of his word; 42 and they said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed ^ethe Saviour of the world.

43 And after ^fthe two days he went forth from thence into Galilee. 44 For Jesus himself testified, that ^ga prophet hath no honor in his own country. 45 So when he came into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, ^hhaving seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 He came therefore again unto ⁱCaná of Galilee, ^kwhere he made the water wine. And there was a certain ^lnobleman, whose son was sick at ^mCapernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus was come ⁿout of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought ^ohim that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. 48 Jesus therefore said unto him, Except ye see ^psigns and ^qwonders, ye will in no wise believe. 49 The ^rnobleman saith unto him, ^sSir, come down ere my child die. 50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. in Capernaum. The Cure at Bethesda. Jesus censured for Sabbath-breaking; makes his Defence; his way. 51 And as he was now going down, his ¹servants met him, saying, that his son lived. 52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. 53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and ^ahis whole house. 54 This is again the ^bsecond ^csign that Jesus did, having ^dcome out of Judæa into Galilee.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by ^ethe sheep gate a pool, which is called ^fin Hebrew ^gBethesda, having five porches. 3 In these lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, halt, withered ⁴. 5 And a certain man was there, who had been thirty and eight years in his infirmity. 6 When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wouldest thou be made whole? 7 The sick man answered him, ⁵Sir, I have no man, when ⁶the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another step-peth down before me. 8 Jesus saith unto him, ^hArise, take up thy ⁱbed, and walk. 9 And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his ^jbed and walked.

^k Now it was the sabbath on that day. 10 So ^lthe Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and ^mit is not lawful for thee to take up thy ⁿbed. 11 But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy ^obed, and walk. 12 They asked him, Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy ^pbed, and walk? 13 But he that was healed knew not who it was; for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in the place. 14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: ^qsin no more, ^rlest a worse thing befall thee. 15 The man went away, and told ^sthe Jews that it was Jesus who had made him whole. 16 And for this cause ^tthe Jews persecuted Jesus, because he did these things on the sabbath. 17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh even until now, and I work. 18 For this cause therefore ^uthe Jews ^vsought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, ^wmaking himself equal with God.

19 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^xThe Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. 20 ^yFor the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and ^zgreater works than these will he show him, that ye may marvel. 21 For as the Father raiseth the dead and ^{aa}giveth them life, even so ^{ab}the Son also giveth life to whom he will. 22 For neither doth the Father judge any man, but ^{ac}he hath given all judgment unto the Son; 23 that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. ^{ad}He that honoreth not the Son honoreth not the Father that sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and ^{ae}believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and ^{af}cometh not into judgment, but hath ^{ag}passed out of death into life. 25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^{ah}The hour cometh, and now is, when ^{ai}the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that ^{aj}hear shall live. 26 For as the Father hath life in himself, even so ^{ak}gave he to the Son also to have life in himself: 27 and he gave him authority to ^{al}execute judgment, because he is a son of man. 28 Marvel not at this: for ^{am}the hour cometh, in which ^{an}all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, 29 and shall come forth; ^{ao}they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have ^{ap}done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

And Jesus went up into ^a the mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. 4 Now ^b the passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. 5 Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto ^c Philip, Whence are we to buy ^d bread, that these may eat? 6 And this he said to ^e prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. 7 ^f Philip answered him, ^g Two hundred ^h shillings' worth of ⁱ bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. 8 One of his ^k disciples, ^l Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, who hath five barley loaves, and two ^m fishes: but what are these among so many? 10 Jesus said, Make the people sit down. Now there was ⁿ much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about ^o five thousand. 11 Jesus therefore took the loaves; and ^p having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the ^q fishes as much as they would. 12 And when they were filled, he saith unto his ^k disciples, Gather up the broken pieces which remain over, that nothing be lost. 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve ^r baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto them that had eaten. 14 When therefore the people saw the ^s sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the ^t prophet that cometh into the world.

15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, ^u to make him king, ^v withdrew again into ^w the mountain himself alone.

16 And when evening came, his ^k disciples went down unto the sea; 17 and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea ^x unto Capernaum. 22 On the morrow ^b the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other ¹ boat there, save one, and that Jesus ^c entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone 23 (howbeit there came ² boats from ^a Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after ^c the Lord ^d had given thanks): 24 when the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the ² boats, and ^e came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. 25 And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, ^a Rabbi, when camest thou hither? 26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, I say unto you, Ye ^e seek me, not because ye saw ^k signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled. 27 ⁱ Work not for the food which perisheth, but for the food which abideth unto ^m eternal life, which ⁿ the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the Father, even God, ^o hath sealed. 28 They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the works of God? 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is ^p the work of God, that ye believe on him whom ³ he ^q hath sent. 30 They said therefore unto him, ^r What then doest thou for a ^s sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what workest thou? 31 ^t Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He ⁴ gave them bread out of heaven to eat. 32 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven. 33 For the bread of God is that which ^u cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. 34 They said therefore unto him, Lord, evermore ^v give us

52 ^aThe Jews therefore ^bstrove one with another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? 53 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of ^cthe Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves. 54 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will ^draise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is ^emeat indeed, and my blood is ^fdrink indeed. 56 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood ^gabideth in me, and I in him. 57 As the ^hliving Father ⁱsent me, and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live because of me. 58 This is the bread which ^jcame down out of heaven: not as ^kthe fathers ate, and died; he that eateth this bread ^lshall live forever. 59 These things said he ^min ⁿthe synagogue, as he taught ^oin Capernaum.

Judas ^athe son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that ^bshould ^cbetray him, ^dbeing ^eone of ^fthe twelve.

7 ^aAnd after these things Jesus ^bwalked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judaea, because ^cthe Jews ^dsought to kill him. 2 Now the feast of the Jews, ^ethe feast of tabernacles, was at hand. 3 His ^fbrethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy ^gdisciples also may behold thy works which thou doest. 4 For no man doeth anything in secret, ^hand himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the world. 5 For even his ⁱbrethren did not believe on him. 6 Jesus therefore saith unto them, ^j"My time is not yet come; but your time is always ready. 7 ^kThe world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that ^lits works are evil. 8 Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up ^munto this feast; because ⁿ"my time is not yet fulfilled. 9 And having said these things unto them, he abode ^ostill in Galilee.

10 But when his ^pbrethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. 11 ^qThe Jews therefore ^rsought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? 12 And there was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: ^ssome said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he leadeth the multitude astray. 13 Yet no man spake openly of him for ^tfear of the Jews.

14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and ^utaught. 15 ^vThe Jews therefore marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man ^wletters, having never learned? 16 Jesus therefore answered them, and said, ^x"My teaching is not mine, but his that sent me. 17 ^yIf any man willeth to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or ^zwhether I speak from

⁶ Or, When one speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for his father also is a liar.

⁷ Or, that he should see

⁸ Or, was hidden, and went &c.

⁹ Many ancient authorities add and going through the midst of them went his way and so passed by.

¹⁰ Or, and with the clay thereof anointed his eyes

away therefore, and washed, and ^acame seeing. 8 The neighbors therefore, and they that saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that ^bsat and begged? 9 Others said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he. 10 They said therefore unto him, How then were thine eyes opened? 11 He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to ^cSiloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. 12 And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not.

13 They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. 14 ^aNow it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. 15 ^aAgain therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and I see. 16 Some therefore of the Pharisees said, ^aThis man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such ^asigns? And ^bthere was a division among them. 17 They say therefore unto the blind man ^aagain, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a ^aprophet. 18 ^aThe Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, 19 and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? 20 His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: 21 but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. 22 These things said his parents, because they ^mfeared the Jews: for the Jews ⁿhad agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, ^ohe should be put out of the synagogue. 23 Therefore said his parents, ^pHe is of age; ask him. 24 So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, ^qGive glory to God: we know that ^rthis man is a sinner. 25 He therefore answered, Whether he is a sinner,

I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. 26 They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? 27 He answered them, ^aI told you even now, and ye did not ^ahear; wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his disciples? 28 And they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but ^a"we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, ^a"we know not whence he is. 30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he opened mine eyes. 31 We know that ^aGod heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth. 32 Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of a man born blind. 33 ^aIf this man were not from God, he could do nothing. 34 They answered and said unto him, ^aThou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they ^acast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had ^acast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on ^athe ^bSon of God? 36 He answered and said, And ^cwho is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and ^ahe it is that speaketh with thee. 38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he ^aworshipped him. 39 And Jesus said, ^aFor judgment came I into this world, that ^athey that see not may see; and that ^athey that see may become blind. 40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said unto him, ^aAre we also blind? 41 Jesus said unto them, ^kIf ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, ^aWe see: your sin remaineth.

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is ^ma thief and a robber. 2 But he that entereth in by the door is ⁿthe shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear ^ohis voice: and he calleth his own sheep

² The Greek word denotes an act of reverence, whether paid to a creature (as here) or to the Creator (see ch. 4. 20).

Parable of the Sheep-fold. The Good Shepherd. Opinions again divided. The Feast of the Dedication

by name, and ^aleadeth them out. 4 When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know ^bhis voice. 5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not ^bthe voice of strangers. 6 This ^{1c}parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am ^athe door of the sheep. 8 All that came ²before me are ^athieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. 9 ^aI am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture. 10 The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they ⁷may have life, and may ³have it abundantly. 11 ^aI am the good shepherd: the good shepherd ^blayeth down his life for the sheep. 12 He that is a hireling, and not a ⁴shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: 13 ^bhe fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. 14 ^aI am the good shepherd; and ¹I know mine own, and mine own know me, 15 even as ^mthe Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and ¹I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 And ^oother sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must ⁴bring, and they shall hear my voice; and ⁵they shall become ²one flock, ⁹one shepherd. 17 Therefore doth the Father love me, because I ¹lay down my life, that I may take it again. 18 ⁿNo one ⁶taketh it away from me, but I ¹lay it down of myself. I have ⁷power to lay it down, and I have ⁷power to take it again. ⁸This commandment received I from my Father.

19 There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words. 20 And many of them said,

He ^ahath a demon, and ^ais mad; why hear ye him? 21 Others said, These are not the sayings of one ^apossessed with a demon. ^aCan a demon open the eyes of the blind?

22 ^aAnd it was ²the feast of the dedication at Jerusalem: 23 it was winter; and Jesus was walking in the temple in ^aSolomon's ³porch. 24 ^bThe Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us ^aplainly. 25 Jesus answered them, ^aI told you, and ye believe not: ^athe works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. 26 But ye believe not, because ^aye are not of my sheep. 27 My sheep ^ahear my voice, and ¹I know them, and they follow me: 28 and I give unto them ^aeternal life; and they shall never perish, and ^ano one shall snatch them out of ^kmy hand. 29 ¹⁰My Father, who hath given ^athem unto me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch ¹¹them out of ^kthe Father's hand. 30 ¹I and the Father are one. 31 The Jews ^mtook up stones again to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? 33 The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for ^ablasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, ^amakest thyself God. 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in ^ayour ^alaw, ¹²I said, Ye are gods? 35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), 36 say ye of him, whom the Father ¹³sanctified and ^asent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, ^aI am ^athe Son of God? 37 ^aIf I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. 38 But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe ^athe works: that ye may know and understand that ^athe Father is in me, and I in the Father. 39 ^aThey sought

Jesus goes again to Perna. Jesus hears of the Sickness of Lazarus. Raises Lazarus from the Dead again to take him: and ^ahe went forth out of their hand.

40 And he went away ^bagain beyond the Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and there he abode. 41 And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no ^csign: but ^dall things whatsoever John spake of this man were true. 42 And ^emany believed on him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of ^fBethany, of the village of Mary and her sister ^gMartha. 2 And it was that Mary who ^hanointed ⁱthe Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. 3 The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, ^jLord, behold, ^khe whom thou lovest is sick. 4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for ^lthe glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby. 5 Now Jesus loved ^mMartha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at that time two days in the place where he was. 7 Then after this he saith to the disciples, ⁿLet us go into Judæa again. 8 The disciples say unto him, ^oRabbi, the Jews were but now seeking ^pto stone thee; and goest thou thither again? 9 Jesus answered, ^qAre there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. 10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in him. 11 These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our ^rfriend Lazarus ^sis fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. 12 The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will ^trecover. 13 Now ^uJesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep. 14 Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. 16 ^vThomas therefore, who is called ^wDidymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. 35 Jesus ^a wept. 36 ^b The Jews therefore said, Behold how he ^c loved him! 37 But some of them said, Could not this man, who ^d opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man also should not die? 38 Jesus therefore again ^e groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. 9 The "common people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, ^bwhom he had raised from the dead. 10 But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus also to death; 11 because that ^cby reason of him ^amany of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the morrow ^{1a}a great multitude that had come to ^dthe feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took the ^ebranches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, ^bHosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the ⁱKing of Israel. 14 And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 ²Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. 16 ^kThese things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus ^lwas glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. 17 ^mThe multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare witness. 18 ⁿFor this cause also the multitude went and met him, ^ofor that they heard that he had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, ^pBehold how ye prevail nothing; lo, the world is gone after him.

gan to ^a wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. 6 So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? 7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand ^b hereafter. 8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, ^c thou hast no part with me. 9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not ^d save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ^e ye are clean, but not all. 11 For ^f he knew him that should ^g betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So when he had washed their feet, and ^h taken his garments, and ⁱ sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? 13 Ye call me, ^j Teacher, and, ^k Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. 14 If I then, ^l the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you ^m an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you. 16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ⁿ A ^o servant is not greater than his lord; neither ^p one that is sent greater than he that sent him. 17 If ye know these things, ^q blessed are ye if ye do them. 18 ^r I speak not of you all: I know whom I ^s have ^t chosen: but ^u that the scripture may be fulfilled, ^v He that eateth ^w my bread lifted up his heel against me. 19 From henceforth ^x I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that ^y I am ^z he. 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^a He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

Jesus points out the Betrayer. The New Commandment. Peter's Denial foretold. The Farewell Discourse

I say unto you, that ^aone of you shall ^bbetray me. 22 The disciples looked one on another, ^adoubting of whom he spake. 23 There was at the table reclining in ^bJesus' bosom one of his disciples, ^cwhom Jesus loved. 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. 25 He ^aleaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? 26 Jesus therefore answereth, ^aHe it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, ^athe son of Simon Iscariot. 27 And after the sop, then ^centered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, What thou doest, do quickly. 28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. 29 For some thought, because Judas ^ahad the ^bbag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of ^cfor the feast; or, that he should ^agive something to the poor. 30 He then having received the sop went out straightway: and ^cit was night.

31 When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now ^ais ^bthe Son of man ^cglorified, and ^dGod ^eis glorified in him; 32 and ^fGod shall glorify him in himself, and straightway shall he glorify him. 33 ^aLittle children, ^byet a little while I am with you. ^cYe shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. 34 A ^anew commandment I give unto you, ^bthat ye love one another; ^ceven as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. 35 ^aBy this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, ^aWhither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but ^bthou shalt follow afterwards. 37 Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? ^aI will lay down my life for thee. 38 Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, joy. 21 ^a A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. 22 And ^b ye therefore now have sorrow: but ^c I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you. 23 And ^d in that day ^e ye shall ^f ask me no question. Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^g If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it you in my name. 24 ^h Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your ⁱ joy may be made full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in ^j dark sayings: ^k the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in ^l dark sayings, but shall tell you plainly of the Father. 26 ^m In that day ⁿ ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will ^o pray the Father for you; 27 for ^p the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and ^q have believed that ^r I came forth from the Father. 28 ^s I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and ^t go unto the Father. 29 His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no ^u dark saying. 30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we ^v believe that thou ^w camest forth from God. 31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? 32 Behold, ^x the hour cometh, yea, is come, that ^y ye shall be scattered, every man to ^z his own, and shall leave me alone: and ^{aa} yet ^{ab} I am not alone, because the Father is with me. 33 These things have I spoken unto you, that ^{ac} in me ye may have peace. ^{ad} In the world ye have tribulation: but ^{ae} be of good cheer; ^{af} I have overcome the world.

17 These things spake Jesus; and ^{ag} lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, the hour is come; ^{ah} glorify thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee: 2 even as ^{ai} thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that ^{aj} to all whom thou

17 ^{1a}Sanctify them in the truth: thy word is truth. 18 As ^bthou didst send me into the world, ^ceven so sent I them into the world. 19 And for their sakes I ^{1a}sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be ^asanctified ^cin truth. 20 Neither for these only do I ²pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word; 21 that they may all be one; ^ceven as thou, Father, ^aart in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: ^athat the world may believe that ^bthou didst send me. 22 And the ^aglory which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even as we ^aare one; 23 ¹I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that ^bthou didst send me, and ^clovedst them, even as thou lovedst me. 24 Father, ³I desire that ^athey also whom thou hast given me ^bbe with me where I am, that they may behold my ^aglory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before ^mthe foundation of the world. 25 O ⁿrighteous Father, ^othe world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that ^bthou didst send me; 26 and ¹I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that ^athe love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. 8 Jesus answered, I told you that I am ^{he}; if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: 9 that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, ^oOf those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. 10 Simon Peter therefore ^dhaving a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's ^bservant, and cut off his right ear. Now the ^bservant's name was Malchus. 11 Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: ^ethe cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? 12 ⁷So ^gthe ⁷band and the ⁹chief captain, and the ^aofficers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, 13 and led him to ^aAnnas first; for he was father in law to ^aCaiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14 Now Caiaphas was he that gave counsel to the Jews, that ⁱit was expedient that one man should die for the people.

²⁵ ^hNow ⁱSimon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, ^jArt thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. ²⁶ One of the ^kservants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him ^lwhose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in ^mthe garden with him? ²⁷ Peter therefore denied again: and straightway ⁿthe cock crew.

The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: ³² that ^wthe word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

³³ Pilate therefore ^xentered again into the ^yPrætorium, and called Jesus, and said unto him, ^zArt thou the King of the Jews? ³⁴ Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? ³⁵ Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? release thee, and have ¹power to crucify thee? 11 Jesus answered him, ^aThou wouldest have no ¹power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore ^bhe that delivered me unto thee hath greater sin. 12 Upon this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, ^cIf thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king ^dspeaketh against Cæsar. 13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and ^esat down on the judgment-seat at a place called The Pavement, but ^fin Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 Now it was ^gthe Preparation of the passover: it was about the ^hsixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, ⁱyour King! 15 They therefore cried out, ^jAway with him, away with him, crucify him! Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. 16 Then therefore he ^kdelivered him unto them to be crucified.

17 ^lThey took Jesus therefore: and he went out, ^mbearing the cross for himself, unto the place called ⁿThe place of a skull, which is called ^oin Hebrew Golgotha: 18 where they crucified him, and with him ^ptwo others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. 19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, ^qJESUS OF NAZARETH, ^rTHE KING OF THE JEWS. 20 This title therefore read many of the Jews, ^sfor the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city; and it was written ^tin Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. 21 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, ^uThe King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am. ^vKing of the Jews. 22 Pilate answered, ^wWhat I have written I have written.

23 ^xThe soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made ^yfour parts, to every soldier a part; and also the ^zcoat: now the ^acoat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 They said therefore one to another, ^bLet us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: ^cthat the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

⁵ They parted my garments among them,
And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

25 These things therefore the soldiers did. ⁶But there were standing by the cross of Jesus ⁷his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of ⁸Clopas, and ⁹Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and ¹⁰the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, ¹¹Woman, behold, thy son! 27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her unto ¹²his own home.

28 After this Jesus, ¹³knowing that all things are now finished, ¹⁴that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst. 29 There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so ¹⁵they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, ¹⁶It is finished: and he bowed his head, and ¹⁷gave up his spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was ¹⁸the Preparation, that ¹⁹the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a ²⁰high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and ²¹that they might be taken away. 32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other that ²²was crucified with him: 33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: 34 howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out ²³blood and water. 35 And he that hath seen hath ²⁴borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. 36 For these things came to pass, ²⁵that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be ²⁶broken. 37 And again another scripture saith, ²⁷They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ²⁸And after these things Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but ^asecretly for ^bfear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took away his body. 39 And there came also ^cNicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, ^dbringing a ^emixture of ^fmyrrh and aloes, about a ^ghundred pounds. 40 So they took the body of Jesus, and ^hbound it in ⁱlinen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a ^jnew tomb ^kwherein was never man yet laid. 42 There then because of the Jews' ^lPreparation (for the tomb was ^mnigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 ⁿNow on the first day of the week cometh ^oMary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth ^pthe stone taken away from the tomb. 2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other ^qdisciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, ^r"They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him. 3 ^sPeter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. 4 And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; 5 and ^tstooping and looking in, he seeth the ^u"linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. 6 Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, 7 and ^vthe napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the ^w"linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, who ^xcame first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet ^ythey knew not the scripture, ^zthat he must rise again from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again ^aunto their own home.

11 ^bBut Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she ^cstooped and looked into the tomb; 12 and she beholdeth ^dtwo angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say unto

"My Lord and my God." The Writer's Object. The Epilogue: — the Appearance at the Sea of Tiberias. "Lovest thou me?"

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be unto you." 27 Then saith he to Thomas, "Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing." 28 Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. 29 Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, "thou hast believed: "blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 "Many other "signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: 31 but these are written, "that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, "the Son of God; and that "believing ye may have life in his name.

21 After these things Jesus "manifested himself again to the disciples at "the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested himself on this wise. 2 There were together Simon Peter, and "Thomas called "Didymus, and "Nathanael of "Cana in Galilee, and "the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and "that night they took nothing. 4 But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: yet the disciples "knew not that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, "have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. 6 And he said unto them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. 7 "That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he "was naked), and cast himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. 9 So when they got out upon the land, they see "a "fire of coals there, and "fish laid thereon, and "bread. 10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the "fish which ye have now taken. 11 Simon Peter therefore went "up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent. 12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and "break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus cometh, and taketh "the "bread, and giveth them, and the "fish likewise. 14 This is now the "third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had "broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of "John, "lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I "love thee. He saith unto him, Feed "my lambs. 16 He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of "John, "lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I "love thee. He saith unto him, "Tend my sheep. 17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of "John, "lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him "the third time, "Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, "thou knowest all things; thou "knowest that I "love thee. Jesus saith unto him, "Feed my sheep. 18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. 19 Now this he spake, "signifying by "what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, "Follow me. 20 Peter, turning about, seeth "the disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also "leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that "betrayeth thee? 21 Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, 29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the ^gpatriarch David, that he both ^hdied and ⁱwas buried, and ^jhis tomb is with us unto this day.

30 Being therefore ^ka prophet, and knowing that ^lGod had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins ^mhe would set ⁿone upon his throne; 31 he foreseeing ^othis spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left unto ^pHades, nor did his flesh see corruption. 32 This Jesus did ^qGod raise up, ^rwhereof we all are ^switnesses. 33 Being therefore ^tby the right hand of God exalted, and ^uhaving received of the Father ^vthe promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath ^wpoured forth this, which ye see and hear. 34 For David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,

^{8a}The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

36 Let ⁹all the ¹⁰house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both ¹¹Lord and Christ, this Jesus ¹²whom ye crucified.

and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, ¹⁴what shall we do? 38 And Peter said unto them, ¹⁵Repent ye, and be ¹⁶baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For to you is ¹⁷the promise, and to your children, and to all that are ¹⁸afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. 40 And with many other words he ¹⁹testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this ²⁰crooked generation. 41 They then ²¹that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand ²²souls. 42 And they ²³continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and ²⁴fellowship, in ²⁵the breaking of bread and ²⁶the prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many ²⁷wonders and signs were done through the apostles²⁸. 44 And all that believed were together, and ²⁹had all things common; 45 and they ³⁰sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need. 46 ³¹And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and ³²breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God, and ³³having favor with all the people. Peter's Discourse. Peter and John are arrested; brought before the Sanhedrin; fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us. 5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that give I thee. ^aIn the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength. 8 And leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And ^aall the people saw him walking and praising God: 10 and they took knowledge of him, that it was he that ^asat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as he held ^aPeter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the ¹porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he ^aanswered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this ²man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? 13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, ^athe God of our fathers, hath glorified his ³Servant Jesus; whom ^mye delivered up, and denied before the face of ^aPilate, when he had ^adetermined to release him. 14 But ye denied ^athe Holy and Righteous One, and ^aasked for a murderer to be granted unto you, 15 and killed the ⁴Prince of life; whom ^aGod raised from the dead; ^awhereof we are ^awitnesses. 16 And ^aby faith ^ain his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 And now, brethren, I know that ^ain ignorance ye did it, as did also your ^arulers. 18 But the things which ^aGod foreshowed by the mouth of all the prophets, ^athat his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. 19 ^aRepent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may

⁷ And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. ⁸ And Peter ^qanswered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land ^rfor so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. ⁹ But Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to ^stry ^tthe Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them that have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. ¹⁰ And she ⁿfell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. ¹¹ And ^ogreat fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things.

¹⁷ But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is ^athe sect of ^bthe Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, ¹⁸ and laid hands on the apostles, and ^cput them in public ward. ¹⁹ But ^aan angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them out, and said, ²⁰ Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all ^athe words of this Life. ²¹ And when they heard ^{this}, they entered into the temple ¹about daybreak, and taught. And the high priest asked them, 28 saying, We ^bstrictly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and ^cintend to bring this man's blood upon us. 29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, ^dWe must obey God rather than men. 30 ^eThe God of our fathers ^fraised up Jesus, whom ye ^gslew, hanging him on a tree. 31 ^hHim did God exalt ⁱwith his right hand to be a ^jPrince and a ^kSaviour, to give ^lrepentance to Israel, and remission of sins. 32 And we are ^mwitnesses ⁿof these ^othings; ^pand ^qso ^ris the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 But they, when they heard this, were ^scut to the heart, and were minded to slay them. 34 But there stood up one in ^tthe council, a Pharisee, named ^uGamaliel, a ^vdoctor of the law, had in honor of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. 35 And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. 36 For before these days rose up Theudas, ^wgiving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought. 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of ^xthe enrolment, and drew away ^ysome of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work ^zbe of men, it will be overthrown: 39 but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be ^{aa}fighting against God. 40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they ^{ab}beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 They

Stephen seized. He makes his Defence

Stephen. 10 And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake. 11 Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into the council, 13 and set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this holy place, and the law: 14 for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered unto us. 15 And all that sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7 And the high priest said, Are these things so? 2 And he said.

Brethren and fathers, hearken:

The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, 3 and said unto him, Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee. 4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: 5 and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. 6 And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them ill, four hundred years. 7 And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. 8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. 9 And the patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt: and God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 Now there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time. 13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's race became manifest unto Pharaoh. 14 And Joseph sent, and called to him Jacob his father, and all his kindred, three-score and fifteen souls. 15 And Jacob went down into Egypt; and he died, himself and our fathers; 16 and they were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver of the sons of Hamor in Shechem. 17 But as the time of the promise drew nigh which God vouchsafed unto Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 till there arose another king over Egypt, who knew not Joseph. 19 The same dealt craftily with our race, and ill-treated our fathers, that they should cast out their babes to the end they might not live. 20 At which season Moses was born, and was exceeding fair; and he was nourished three months in his father's house: 21 and when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. 22 And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he was mighty in his words and works. 23 But when he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, smiting the Egyptian: 25 and he supposed that his brethren understood that God by his hand was giving them deliverance; but they understood not. 26 And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? 27 But he that did his neighbor wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Wouldest thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yesterday? 29 And ^aMoses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons. 30 And when forty years were fulfilled, ^ban angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, there came a voice of the Lord, 32 ^c'I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. And Moses trembled, and durst not behold. 33 And the Lord said unto him, ^d'Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. 34 ^e'I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to deliver them: and ^f'now come, I will send thee into Egypt. 35 This Moses whom they ^grefused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a ^h'deliverer with the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the bush. 36 ⁱ'This man led them forth, having wrought ^j'wonders and ^k'signs in Egypt, and in the Red sea, and ^l'in the wilderness forty years. 37 This is that Moses, who said unto the children of Israel, ^m'A prophet shall God raise up unto you from among your brethren, ⁿ'like unto me. 38 This is he that was in ^o'the ^p'church in the wilderness with ^q'the angel that spake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received ^r'living ^s'oracles to give unto us: 39 to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but ^t'thrust him from them, and turned back in their hearts unto Egypt, 40 saying unto Aaron, ^u'Make us gods that shall go before us: for as for this Moses, who led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. 41 And ^v'they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in ^w'the works of their hands. 42 But God ^x'turned, and gave them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets,

8 And when he had said this, he ⁱfell asleep. 1 And ^jSaul was consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against ^kthe church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all ^lscattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and ^mSamaria, except the apostles. 2 And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. 3 But ⁿSaul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and ^odragging men and women committed them to prison.

4 They therefore that ^pwere scattered abroad went about ^qpreaching the word. 5 And ^rPhilip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. 6 And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. 7 ^sFor from many of those that had ^tunclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were ^upalsied, and that were lame, were healed. 8 And there was ^vmuch joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who beforetime in the city used ^wsorcery, and amazed the ^xpeople of Samaria, ^ygiving out that himself was some great one: 10 to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, ^zThis man is that power of God which is called Great. 11 And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had amazed them with his ^{aa}sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philip ^{ab}preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were ^{ac}baptized, both

14 Now when ^ethe apostles that were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them ^fPeter and John: 15 who, when they were come down, prayed for them, ^gthat they might receive the Holy Spirit: 16 for as yet it was fallen upon none of them: only they had been ^hbaptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then ⁱlaid they their hands on them, and they ^jreceived the Holy Spirit. 18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the ^kHoly Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. 20 But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought ^lto obtain the gift of God with money. 21 Thou hast ^mneither part nor lot in this ⁿmatter: for thy heart is not ^oright before God. 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. 23 For I see that thou ^part in the gall of bitterness and in ^qthe bond of iniquity. 24 And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch. The Conversion of Saul, who is visited by Ananias eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who ^ahad come to Jerusalem to worship; 28 and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 And ^bthe Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. 30 And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? 31 And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 Now the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this,

¹He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;

And as a lamb before his shearers is dumb,

So he openeth not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away;

His generation who shall declare?

For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other? 35 And Philip ^copened his mouth, and ^dbeginning from this scripture, ^epreached unto him Jesus. 36 And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; ^fwhat doth hinder me to be baptized? ^g38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. 39 And when they came up out of the water, ^hthe Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at ⁱAzotus: and passing through he ^jpreached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to ^kCæsarea.

9 ^lBut Saul, yet ^mbreathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, 2 and asked of him ⁿletters to ^oDamascus unto ^pthe synagogues, that if he found any that were of ^qthe Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and ^rsuddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven: 4 and ^she fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: 6 but rise, and enter into the city, and ^tit shall be told thee what thou must do. 7 And the men that journeyed with him ^ustood speechless, ^vhearing the ^wvoice, but beholding no man. 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and ^xwhen his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into ^yDamascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at ^zDamascus, named ^{aa}Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in ^{ab}a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. 11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of ^{ac}Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth: 12 and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and ^{ad}laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight. 13 But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, ^{ae}how much evil he did to ^{af}thy saints at Jerusalem: 14 and here he ^{ag}hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that ^{ah}call upon thy name. 15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for ^{ai}he is a ^{aj}chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before ^{ak}the Gentiles and ^{al}kings, and the children of Israel: 16 for ^{am}I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake. 17 And Ananias departed, and entered into the house; and ^alaying his hands on him said, ^bBrother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be ^cfilled with the Holy Spirit. 18 And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized; 19 and he took food and was strengthened.

And ^dhe was certain days with ^ethe disciples that were at Damascus. 20 And straightway ^fin the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is ^gthe Son of God. 21 And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem ^hmade havoc of them that ⁱcalled on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them bound before the chief priests. 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews that dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

23 And when ^kmany days were fulfilled, ^lthe Jews took counsel together to kill him: 24 but ^mtheir plot became known to Saul. And ⁿthey watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him: 25 but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a ^obasket.

26 And ^pwhen he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to ^qthe disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But ^rBarnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had ^sseen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how ^tat Damascus he had ^upreached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem, 29 ^vpreaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the ^wGrecian Jews; but they were seeking to kill him. 30 And when ^xthe brethren knew it, they brought him down to ^yCæsarea, and ^zsent him forth to ^{aa}Tarsus.

31 So ^{ab}the church throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being ^{ac}edified; and, walking ^{ad}in the fear of the Lord and ^{ae}in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, was multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to ^bthe saints that dwelt at ^cLydda. 33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, who had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied. 34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And straightway he arose. 35 And all that dwelt at ^dLydda and in ^eSharon saw him, and they ^fturned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at ^gJoppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ^hDorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an ⁱupper chamber. 38 And as Lydda was nigh unto ^jJoppa, ^kthe disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, entreating him, Delay not to come on unto us. 39 And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the ^lupper chamber: and all the ^mwidows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. 40 But Peter ⁿput them all forth, and ^okneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, ^pTabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling ^qthe saints and ^rwidows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all ^sJoppa: and ^tmany believed on the Lord. 43 And it came to pass, that he abode many days in ^uJoppa with ^vone Simon a tanner.

10 Now ^wthere was a certain man in ^xCæsarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of ^ythe ^zband called the Italian ^{aa}band, ^{ab}a devout man, and ^{ac}one that feared God with all his house, who ^{ad}gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always. 3 He saw ^{ae}in a vision openly, as it were about ^{af}the ninth hour of the day, ^aan angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. 4 And he, ^bfastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms ^care gone up ^dfor a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to ^eJoppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Peter: 6 he lodgeth with ^fone Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. 7 And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; 8 and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to ^eJoppa.

⁵ Or, cohort

9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, ^gPeter went up upon ^hthe housetop to pray, about ⁱthe sixth hour: 10 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, he ^kfell into a trance; 11 and he beheld ^lthe heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth: 12 wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and birds of the heaven. 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. 14 But Peter said, Not so, ^mLord; for ⁿI have never eaten anything that is common and unclean. 15 And a voice ^ocame unto him again the second time, ^pWhat God hath cleansed, make not thou common. 16 And this was done thrice: and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what ^qthe vision which he had seen might mean, behold, ^rthe men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. 19 And while Peter thought on ^sthe vision, ^tthe Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. 20 But arise, and get thee down, and ^ugo with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them. 21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? 22 And they said, Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man and ¹one that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, ²was warned of God by a ³holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear ⁴words from thee. 23 So he called them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and ⁵certain of ⁶the brethren from ⁷Joppa accompanied him. 24 And on the morrow ⁸they entered into ⁹Cæsarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and his near friends. 25 And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and ¹⁰worshipped him. 26 But Peter raised him up, saying, ¹¹Stand up; I myself also am a man. 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and findeth ¹²many come together: 28 and he said unto them, Ye yourselves know ¹³how ¹⁴it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and yet ¹⁵unto me hath God showed that I should not call any man common or unclean: 29 wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore with what intent ye sent for me. 30 And Cornelius said, ¹⁶Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping ¹⁷the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, ¹⁸a man stood before me in bright apparel, 31 and saith, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to ¹⁹Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea side. 33 Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have been commanded thee of the Lord. 34 And Peter ²⁰opened his mouth, and said,

him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him. 36 ¹The word which he sent unto the children of Israel, ^apreaching ²good tidings of ^bpeace by Jesus Christ (he is ^cLord of all)—37 that saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judæa, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 even ^aJesus of Nazareth, how God ^aanointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power: ^cwho went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for ^cGod was with him. 39 And we are ^awitnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they ^aslew, hanging him on a tree. 40 Him ^aGod raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, 41 ^anot to all the people, but unto ^awitnesses that were chosen before of God, even to us, ^mwho ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he ^acharged us to preach unto the people, and to ^atestify that this is he who is ^aordained of God to be the ^aJudge of the living and the dead. 43 To him bear ^aall the prophets witness, that through ^ahis name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, ^athe Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the word. 45 And ^athey of the circumcision that believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was ^apoured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. 46 For they heard them ^aspeak with tongues, and magnify God. Then ^aanswered Peter, 47 ^aCan any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who ^ahave received the Holy Spirit as well as we? 48 And he ^acommanded them to be baptized ^ain the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

11 Now the apostles and ^athe brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. 2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, ^athey that were of the circumcision contended with him,

Paul's Address at Antioch of Pisidia. Asked to speak on the next Sabbath

God, hearken : 17 The God of this people Israel ^a chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led them forth out of it. 18 And for about ^b the time of forty years ^c as a nursing-father bare he them in the wilderness. 19 And ^d when he had destroyed ^e seven nations in the land of Canaan, he ^f gave them their land for an inheritance, for ^g about four hundred and fifty years : 20 and after these things he ^h gave them judges until ⁱ Samuel the prophet. 21 And afterward they ^j asked for a king : and God gave unto them ^k Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years. 22 And when he had ^l removed him, he raised up David to be their king ; to whom also he bare witness and said, ^m I have found ⁿ David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who shall do all my ^o will. 23 ^p Of this man's seed hath God ^q according to promise brought unto Israel ^r a Saviour, Jesus ; 24 when ^s John had first preached ^t before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John ^u was fulfilling his course, ^v he said, What suppose ye that I am ? I am not ^w he. But behold, there cometh one after me the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose. 26 Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of ^x this salvation sent forth. 27 For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their ^y rulers, ^z because they knew him not, nor the voices of ^{aa} the prophets which ^{ab} read every sabbath, fulfilled ^{ac} them by condemning ^{ad} him. 28 And though they found no cause of death ^{ae} in him, yet ^{af} asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. 29 And when they had ^{ag} fulfilled all things that were written of him, ^{ah} they took him down from ^{ai} the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God ^{aj} raised him from the dead : 31 and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him ^{ak} from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now ^{al} his witnesses unto the people. 32 And we ^{am} bring you good tidings of ^{an} the promise made unto the fathers, 33 that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he ^a raised up Jesus ; as also it is written in the second psalm, ^b Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. 34 And as concerning that he ^c raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, ^d I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David. 35 Because he saith also in another psalm, ^e Thou wilt not give thy Holy One to see corruption. 36 For ^f David, after he had ^g in his own generation served ^h the counsel of God, ⁱ fell asleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption : 37 but he whom God ^j raised up saw no corruption. 38 Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that ^k through this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins : 39 and by him ^l every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken ^m in the prophets :

41 ⁿ Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and ^o perish ;

For I work a work in your days, A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.

42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next ^p sabbath. 43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the ^q devout ^r proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas ; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in ^s the grace of God.

44 And the next ^t sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of ^u God.

45 But when ^v the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and ^w blasphemed. 46 And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should ^afirst be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, ^bwe turn to the Gentiles. 47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying,

¹I have set thee for a ^clight of the Gentiles,

That thou shouldest be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

48 And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified ^athe word of ²God: and as many as were ^cordained to eternal life believed. 49 And ^athe word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. 50 But ^dthe Jews urged on the ^edevout women ^fof honorable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders. 51 But ^gthey shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto ^hIconium. 52 And the disciples were ⁱfilled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14 And it came to pass in ^kIconium that ^mthey entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake ⁿthat a great multitude both of Jews and of ^oGreeks believed. 2 But ^pthe Jews that were ^qdisobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against ^rthe brethren. 3 Long time therefore they tarried ^sthere ^tspeaking boldly in the Lord, who bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting ^usigns and ^vwonders to be done by their hands. 4 ^wBut the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with ^xthe Jews, and part with ^ythe apostles. 5 And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of ^zthe Jews with their rulers, to treat them shamefully and to ^{aa}stone them, 6 they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of ^{ab}Lycaonia, ^{ac}Lystra and ^{ad}Derbe, and the region round about: 7 and there they ^{ae}preached the gospel.

Deputation and Letter to Antioch. Its Reception.

Paul and Barnabas disagree about Mark. Paul chooses Timothy him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to ^athe apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to ^bAntioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and ^cSilas, chief men among ^athe brethren: 23 and they wrote thus by them, ^{1a}The apostles and the elders, brethren, unto ^athe brethren who are of the Gentiles in ^bAntioch and ^cSyria and ^dCilicia, ^egreeting: 24 Forasmuch as we have heard that ^acertain ²who went out from us have ⁱtroubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no commandment; 25 ^ait seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men that have ⁱhazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore ^mJudas and ⁿSilas, who themselves also shall tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28 For ^kit seemed good to ^ethe Holy Spirit, and to ^pus, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29 that ye abstain from ^qthings sacrificed to idols, and from ^rblood, and from ^rthings strangled, and from ^qfornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

30 So they, when they were dismissed, ^acame down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle. 31 And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the ³consolation. 32 And ^mJudas and ⁿSilas, being themselves also ⁱprophets, ^aexhorted ^athe brethren with many words, and confirmed them. 33 And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed ⁿin peace from the brethren unto those that had ⁿsent them forth.⁵ 35 But ^aPaul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and ⁶preaching ²the word of the Lord, with many others also.

16 And he came also to ^kDerbe and to ^kLystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named ⁱTimothy, the son of ^ma Jewess that believed; but his father was a Greek. 2 The same was well reported of by ⁿthe brethren that were at ^kLystra and ^oIconium. 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he ^ptook and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them ^qthe decrees to keep which had been ordained of ^rthe apostles and ^selders that were at Jerusalem. 5. So ^tthe churches were strengthened ^uin the faith, and ^vincreased in number daily.

6 And they went through ^athe region of ^vPhrygia and ^xGalatia, having been forbidden of the Holy Spirit to speak the word in ^yAsia; 7 and when they were come over against ^zMysia, they assayed to go into ^aBithynia; and the ^bSpirit of Jesus suffered them not; 8 and passing by ^zMysia, they came down to ^cTroas. 9 And ^aa vision appeared to Paul in the night: There was a man of ^cMacedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. 10 And when he had seen ^o the vision, straightway ^o we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to ¹ preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore from ^a Troas, we made ^a a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12 and from thence to ⁷ Philippi, which is a city of ⁹ Macedonia, the first of the district, ^a a Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying certain days. 13 And on ⁴ the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, ² where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women that were come together. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of ^b Thyatira, ¹ one that worshipped God, heard us: ^m whose heart the Lord opened to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, and ⁿ her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going to ^o the place of prayer, that a certain maid having ³ ^a a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. 17 The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are ⁴ servants of ^o the Most High God, who proclaim unto you ⁵ the way of salvation. 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee ^r in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their ⁶ gain was ⁶ gone, they laid hold on ⁷ Paul and Silas, and ^u dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers, 20 and when they had brought them unto the ⁷ magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 and ^v set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe, being ^z Romans. 22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the ⁷ magistrates rent their garments off them, and commanded to ^z beat them with rods. 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging ^z the jailor to keep them safely: 24 who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in ^a the stocks. 25 But about midnight ⁷ Paul and Silas were praying and ^z singing hymns unto God, and the prisoners were listening to them; 26 and suddenly ^a there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately ^a all the doors were opened; and every one's ⁷ bands were loosed. 27 And ^z the jailor, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about ⁹ to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. 29 And he called for lights and sprang in, and, trembling for fear, fell down before ⁷ Paul and Silas, 30 and brought them out and said, Sirs, ^a what must I do to be saved? 31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and ^a thy house. 32 And they spake the word of ⁸ the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house. 33 And he took them ¹ the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately. 34 And he brought them up into his house, and set ⁹ food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with ^m all his house, ¹⁰ having believed in God.

35 But when it was day, the ⁷ magistrates sent the ¹¹ serjeants, saying, Let those men go. 36 And ^z the jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, The ⁷ magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go ⁿ in peace. 37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned,

"men that are Romans, and have cast us into prison; and do they now cast us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and bring us out. 38 And the ¹serjeants reported these words unto the ²magistrates: and ³they feared when they heard that they were Romans; 39 and they came and besought them; and when they had brought them out, they asked them ⁴to go away from the city. 40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of ⁵Lydia: and when they had seen ⁶the brethren, they ⁷comforted them, and departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to ¹Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 and Paul, ²as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three ³sabbath days reasoned with them from ⁴the scriptures, 3 opening and alleging that ⁵it behooved the Christ to suffer, and ⁶to rise again from the dead; and that ⁷this Jesus, whom, said he, I proclaim unto you, is the Christ. 4 ⁸And some of them were persuaded, and consorted with ⁹Paul and Silas; and of the ¹⁰devout ¹¹Greeks a great multitude, and of the ¹²chief women not a few. 5 But ¹³the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assaulting the house of ¹⁴Jason, they sought to bring them forth to the people. 6 And when they found them not, they ¹⁵dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned ¹⁶the world upside down are come hither also; 7 whom Jason ¹⁷hath received: and these all act ¹⁸contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. 8 And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken security from ¹⁹Jason and the rest, they let them go.

synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these were more noble than those in ¹Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so. 12 ²Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek ³women ⁴of honorable estate, and of men, not a few. 13 But when the Jews of ⁵Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at ⁶Berea also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. 14 And then immediately ⁷the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea; and ⁸Silas and ⁹Timothy abode there still. 15 But ¹⁰they that conducted Paul brought him as far as ¹¹Athens: and receiving a commandment unto ¹²Silas and Timothy that they should ¹³come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at ¹⁴Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he beheld the city full of idols. 17 So he reasoned ¹⁵in the synagogue with the Jews and the ¹⁶devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met him. 18 And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would ¹⁷this babbler say? others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of ¹⁸strange ¹⁹gods: because he ²⁰preached ²¹Jesus and the resurrection. 19 And they ²²took hold of him, and brought him ²³unto ²⁴the Areopagus, saying, May we know what ²⁵this new teaching is, which is spoken by thee? 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. 21 (Now all the Athenians and the strangers ²⁶sojourning there ²⁷spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) 22 And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said, and observed the ^aobjects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, To AN UNKNOWN God. What therefore ^bye worship in ignorance, this I set forth unto you. 24 ^cThe God that made the world and all things therein, he, being ^dLord of heaven and earth, ^edwelleth not in ^ftemples made with hands; 25 neither is he served by men's hands, ^gas though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 and ^hhe made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having ⁱdetermined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him and find him, ^jthough he is not far from each one of us: 28 for ^kin him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets ^lhave said,

For we are also his offspring. 29 Being then the offspring of God, we ^mought not to think that ⁿthe Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. 30 ^oThe times of ignorance therefore God ^poverlooked; but ^qnow he ^rcommandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: 31 inasmuch as he hath appointed ^sa day in which ^the will judge ^uthe world in righteousness ^vby ^wthe man whom he hath ^xordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he ^yhath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of ^zthe resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again. 33 Thus Paul went out from among them. 34 But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the ^{aa}Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things he departed from ^{ab}Athens, and came to ^{ac}Corinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named ^{ad}Aquila, a man of ^{ae}Pontus by race, lately come from ^{af}Italy, with his wife ^{ag}Priscilla, because ^{ah}Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and he came unto

5 But when ^{bf}Silas and Timothy ^{bg}came down from ^{bh}Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, ^{bi}testifying to the Jews that ^{bj}Jesus was the Christ. 6 And when they opposed themselves and ^{bk}blasphemed, he ^{bl}shook out his raiment and said unto them, ^{bm}Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go ^{bn}unto the Gentiles. 7 And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, ^{bo}one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. 8 And ^{bp}Crispus, ^{bq}the ruler of the synagogue, ^{br}believed in the Lord ^{bs}with all his house; and many of the ^{bt}Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. 9 And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by ^{bu}a vision, Be not afraid, but speak and hold not thy peace: 10 for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much people in this city. 11 And he dwelt ^{bv}there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But when Gallio was ^{bw}proconsul of ^{bx}Achaia, ^{by}the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before ^{bz}the judgment-seat, 13 saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to ^{ca}the law. 14 But when Paul was about to ^{cb}open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: 15 but if they are ^{cc}questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these matters. 16 And Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that by thy providence evils are corrected for this nation, ³ we accept it in all ways and in all places, ^fmost excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. ⁴ But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I entreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. ⁵ For we have found this man ^aa pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout ²the world, and a ring-leader of the ^bsect of the Nazarenes: ⁶ who moreover assayed to ⁱprofane the temple: on whom also we laid hold: ³ ⁸ from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him. ⁹ And ^kthe Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I cheerfully make my defence: ¹¹ seeing that thou canst take knowledge that it is not more than ^ltwelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem: ¹² and ^mneither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or ⁿstirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. ¹³ ^oNeither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. ¹⁴ But this I confess unto thee, that after ^pthe Way which they call a ^qsect, so serve I ^rthe God of our fathers, ^rbelieving all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets; ¹⁵ having hope toward God, which ^sthese also themselves ^tlook for: that there shall be a res-

6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto ^e Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on ^f the judgment-seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he was come, the Jews that had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him ^g many and grievous charges ^h which they could not prove; 8 while Paul said in his defence, ⁱ Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. 9 But Festus, ^j desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, ^k Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? 10 But Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's ^l judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. 11 If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die; but if none of those things is true whereof these accuse me, no man can ^m give me up unto them. I ⁿ appeal unto Cæsar. 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with ^o the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 Now when certain days were passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at ^p Cæsarea, ^q and saluted Festus. 14 And as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man ^r left a prisoner by Felix; 15 about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews ^s informed me, asking for sentence against him. 16 To whom I ^t answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to ^u give up any man, before that ^v the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence concerning the matter laid against him. 17 When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat on ^a the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18 Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed; 19 but had certain ^b questions against him of their own ^c religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 And I, ^d being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem and there be judged of these matters. 21 But when Paul had ^e appealed to be kept for the decision of ^f the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Cæsar. 22 And ^g Agrippa said unto Festus, I also ^h could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

23 So on the morrow, when ⁱ Agrippa was come, and ^j Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing with the ^k chief captains and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom ^l all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that ^m he ought not to live any longer. 25 But I found that he had committed ⁿ nothing worthy of death: and as he himself ^o appealed to ^p the emperor I determined to send him. 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to write. 27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

26 And ^q Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his defence:

Paul might have been set at Liberty but for his Appeal. Paul sails for Italy. The Voyage Dangerous

30 And ^athe king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: 31 and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, ^bThis man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. 32 And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been ^cset at liberty, if he had not ^dappealed unto Cæsar.

27 And when it was determined that ^ewe ^fshould sail for ^gItaly, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan ^hband. 2 And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of ⁱAsia, we put to sea, ^kAristarchus, a ^lMacedonian of ^mThessalonica, being with us. 3 And the next day we touched at ⁿSidon: and Julius ^otreated Paul kindly, and ^pgave him leave to go unto his friends and ^qrefresh himself. 4 And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of ^rCyprus, because ^sthe winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed across the sea which is off ^tCilicia and ^uPamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found a ^vship of Alexandria sailing for ^wItaly; and he put us therein. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, ^xthe wind not ^yfurther suffering us, we sailed under the lee of ^zCrete, over against Salmone; 8 and with difficulty ^{aa}coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because ^{ab}the Fast was now already gone by, Paul admonished them, 10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with ^{ac}injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. 11 But the centurion gave more heed to the ^{ad}master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could

fathoms; and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. 29 And fearing lest haply we should ^abe cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and ¹wished for the day. 30 And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered ^bthe boat into the sea, under color as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ^cropes of the boat, and let her fall off. 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. 34 Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for ^dthere shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. 35 And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he ^egave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he brake it, and began to eat. 36 Then were they all ^fof good cheer, and themselves also took food. 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen ^gsouls. 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, ^hthrowing out the wheat into the sea. 39 And when it was day, ⁱthey knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could ^jdrive the ship upon it. 40 And casting off ^kthe anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to ^lkill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. 43 But the centurion, ^mdesiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they who could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to the land; 44 and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that ⁿthey all escaped safe to the land.

28 And when ^owe were escaped, ^pthen we knew that ^qthe island was called ^rMelita. 2 And ^sthe barbarians showed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and ^treceived us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out ^uby reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4 And when ^vthe barbarians saw the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, ^wNo doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet ^xJustice hath not suffered to live. 5 Howbeit ^yhe shook off the creature into the fire, and took no harm. 6 But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly; but when they were long in expectation and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and ^zsaid that he was a god.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three days courteously. 8 And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and ^{aa}prayed, and ^{ab}laying his hands on him healed him. 9 And when this was done, the rest also that had diseases in the island came, and were cured: 10 who also honored us with many honors; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.

11 And after three months we set sail in ^{ac}a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was ^{ad}The Twin Brothers. 12 And touching at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. 13 And from thence we ^{ae}made a circuit, and arrived at Rhegium: and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli; 14 where

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS

Salutation. Personal Explanations. The Gospel. The Gentiles' Need of Righteousness

1 Paul, a ¹servant of Jesus Christ, ^acalled to be an apostle, ^bseparated unto ^cthe ²gospel of God, ² which he ^apromised afore through his ^cprophets in the holy scriptures, ³ concerning his Son, who was born ^dof the seed of David ^eaccording to the flesh, ⁴ who was ³declared to be ^hthe Son of God ⁴with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection ⁵from the dead; even Jesus Christ our Lord, ⁵ through whom we received grace and ²apostleship, unto ^bobedience ⁶of faith among ^mall the ⁷nations, for his name's sake; ⁶ among whom are ye also, ⁿcalled to be Jesus Christ's: ⁷ to all that are in Rome, ^obeloved of God, ²called to be ⁹saints: ^rGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸ First, ⁱI thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, ^sthat ^tyour faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. ⁹ For ^uGod is my witness, whom I ^vserve in my spirit in the ²gospel of his Son, how unceasingly ⁱI make mention of you, always in my prayers ¹⁰ making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered ⁹ by ^vthe will of God to come unto you. ¹¹ For ⁱI long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; ¹² that is, that I with you may be comforted ¹⁰ in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. ¹³ And ⁱI would not have you ignorant, ^bbrethren, that oftentimes I ^opurposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some ^dfruit ¹⁰ in you also, even as ¹⁰ in the rest of the Gentiles. ¹⁴ ⁱI am debtor both to

² God judge the world? 7⁵ But if^a the truth of God through my lie abounded unto his glory, ^b why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8 and why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), ^c Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just.

9 What then? ^d are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge both of^e Jews and^f Greeks, that they are^g all under sin; 10 as it is written.

⁶ There is none righteous, no, not one;

11 There is none that understandeth,

There is none that seeketh after God;

12 They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable;

There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one:

13⁷ Their throat is an open sepulchre;

With their tongues they have used deceit:

⁸ The poison of asps is under their lips:

14⁹ Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15¹⁰ Their feet are swift to shed blood;

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18¹¹ There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the^h law saith, it speaketh toⁱ them that are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and^j all the world may be brought under the judgment of God: 20 because¹² by the law and the prophets; 22 even the ^arighteousness of God through ^bfaith ^cin Jesus Christ unto ^dall ^ethem that believe; for ^fthere is no distinction; 23 for all ^ghave sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; 24 being justified freely ^hby his grace through ⁱthe redemption that is in Christ Jesus: 25 whom God set forth ^jto be ^ka propitiation, through faith, ^lin his blood, to show his righteousness because of the ^mpassing over of the sins done aforetime, in the ⁿforbearance of God; 26 for the showing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be ^ojust, and the ^pjustifier of him that ^qhath faith ^rin Jesus. 27 Where then is the ^sglorying? It is excluded. By ^twhat manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith. 28 ^uWe reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from ^vthe works of the law. 29 Or ^wis God the God of Jews only? is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: 30 if so be that ^xGod is one, and ^yhe shall justify the circumcision ^zby faith, and the uncircumcision ^{aa}through faith.

31 Do we then make ^{ab}the law of none effect ^{ac}through faith? ^{ad}God forbid: nay, we ^{ae}establish ^{af}the law.

4 ^{ag}What then shall we say ^{ah}that Abraham, ^{ai}our forefather, hath found ^{aj}according to the flesh? 2 For if Abraham was justified ^{ak}by works, he hath whereof to glory; but ^{al}not toward God. 3 For what saith the scripture? ^{am}And ^{an}Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 4 Now to him that ^{ao}worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt. 5 But to him that worketh not, but ^{ap}believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. 6 Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from works, 7 saying,

9 Is this blessing then pronounced upon ^bthe circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for ^cwe say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness. 10 How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: 11 and he ^dreceived the sign of circumcision, ^ea seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be ^fthe father of ^gall them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; 12 and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. 13 For not ^hthrough the law was ⁱthe promise to Abraham or to his seed ^jthat he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For ^kif they that are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: 15 for ^lthe law worketh wrath; but ^mwhere there is no law, neither is there transgression. 16 For this cause ⁿit is of faith, that ^oit may be according to ^pgrace; to the end that the promise may be sure to ^qall the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is ^rthe father of us all 17 (as it is written, ^s17 A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, ^twho giveth life to the dead, and ^ucall-eth the ^vthings that are not, as though they were. 18 Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become ^wa father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, ^x18 So shall thy seed be. 19 And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body ¹now ^aas good as dead (^bhe being about a hundred years old), and ^cthe deadness of Sarah's ²womb; 20 yet, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, ^agiving glory to God, 21 and ^abeing fully assured that ^fwhat he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22 Wherefore also ^git was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 23 Now ^hit was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; 24 but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, ⁱwho believe on him that ^kraised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 who was ^jdelivered up for our trespasses, and was ^mraised for our justification.

5 ³By faith, ⁴we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; 2 through whom also we have ⁵had our access ^bby faith into this grace ^awherein we stand; and ^cwe ^jrejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 ⁷And not only so, but ⁸we also ⁷rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation worketh ⁱsteadfastness; 4 and ⁱsteadfastness, ⁱapprovedness; and approvedness, hope: 5 and hope ⁱputteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been ⁹shed abroad in our hearts through the Holy Spirit which was given unto us. 6 For while we were yet ⁹weak, ²in due season ^jChrist died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for the good man some one would even dare to die. 8 But God ^acommendeth ⁱhis own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, ^jChrist died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified ¹⁰by his blood, shall we be saved ^afrom the wrath of God through him. 10 For if, while we were ^eenemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved ¹⁰by his life; 11 ^rand not only so,

¹¹ but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received ⁹the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as through ^hone man sin entered into the world, and ⁱdeath through sin; and ^kso death passed unto all men, for that all sinned: — 13 for until the law sin was in the world; but ⁱsin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned ^mafter the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a ⁿfigure of him that was to come. 15 But not as the trespass, so also ⁱis the free gift. For if by the trespass of ^othe one ^pthe many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by ^qthe grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto ^rthe many. 16 And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift: for ^rthe judgment ^scame of one unto condemnation, but the free gift ^scame of many trespasses unto ¹²justification. 17 For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned ^hthrough the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and ¹³of the gift of righteousness ^areign in life through the one, even Jesus Christ. 18 So then as through ^oone trespass ^sthe judgment ^scame unto all men to condemnation; even so through one ^tact of righteousness ^sthe free gift ^scame unto all men to ^ujustification of life. 19 For as through the one man's disobedience ^pthe many ^vwere made sinners, even so through ^xthe obedience of the one shall ^pthe many be made righteous. 20 And ¹⁴the law ^scame in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, ^zgrace did abound more exceedingly: 21 that, as ^asin reigned in death, even so might ^bgrace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Believer dead to Sin but alive unto God. Grace and Sin Incompatible. The Believer is dead to the Law and alive unto God

6 ^aWhat shall we say then? Shall we ^bcontinue in sin, that grace may abound? ² ^cGod forbid. We who ^ddied to sin, how shall we any longer live therein? ³ Or are ye ignorant that all we who were ^ebaptized into ^fChrist Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴ We were ^gburied therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was ^hraised from the dead through the ⁱglory of the Father, so we also might walk in ^knewness of life. ⁵ For ^jif we have become ^kunited with him in the likeness of his death, we shall be also ^lin the likeness of his resurrection; ⁶ knowing this, that our ^mold man was ⁿcrucified with him, that the ^obody of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin; ⁷ for ^phe that hath died is ^qjustified from sin. ⁸ But ^rif we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; ⁹ knowing that Christ being ^sraised from the dead dieth no more; ^tdeath no more hath dominion over him. ¹⁰ For ^uthe death that he died, he died unto sin ^vonce; but ^wthe life that he liveth, he liveth unto God. ¹¹ Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be ^xdead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus. ¹² Let not sin therefore ^yreign in your mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts thereof: ¹³ neither ^zpresent your members unto sin as ^{aa}instruments of unrighteousness; but ^{ab}present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as ^{ac}instruments of righteousness unto God. ¹⁴ For ^{ad}sin shall not ^{ae}have dominion over you: for ^{af}ye are not under law, but ^{ag}under grace.

¹⁵ What then? ^{ah}shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? ^{ai}God forbid. ¹⁶ ^{aj}Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as ^{ak}servants unto obedience, his ^{al}servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of ^{am}sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? ¹⁷ But ^{an}thanks be to God, ^{ao}that, whereas ye were ^{ap}servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that ^{ba}form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered; ¹⁸ and being ^{bb}made free from sin, ye became ^{bc}servants of righteousness. ¹⁹ ^{bd}I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for ^{be}as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. ²⁰ For ^{bf}when ye were ^{bg}servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. ²¹ What ^{bh}fruit then had ye at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is ^{bi}death. ²² But now being ^{bj}made free from sin and become ^{bk}servants to God, ye have your ^{bl}fruit unto sanctification, and ^{bm}the end eternal life. ²³ For the wages of ^{bn}sin is death; but the free gift of God is ^{bo}eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or are ye ignorant, ^{ba}brethren (for I speak to men who know ^{bb}the law), that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? ² For ^{bc}the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. ³ So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. ⁴ Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were ^{bd}made dead ^{be}to the law ^{bf}through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God. ⁵ For when we were ^{bg}in the flesh, the ^{bh}sinful passions, which were ^{bi}through the law, wrought ^{bj}in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. ⁶ But now we have been ^{bk}discharged from the law, having ^{bl}died to that

7 ^cWhat shall we say then? Is the law sin? ^dGod forbid. Howbeit, ^eI had not known sin, except through ^fthe law: for I had not known ^gcoveting, except the law had said, ^hThou shalt not ⁱcovet: 8 but sin, ^jfinding occasion, wrought in me ^kthrough the commandment all manner of ^lcoveting: for ^mapart from ⁿthe law sin ^ois dead. 9 And I was alive apart from ^pthe law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; 10 and the commandment, which ^qwas ^runto life, this I found ^sto be unto death: 11 for sin, ^tfinding occasion, ^uthrough the commandment ^vbeguiled me, and through it slew me. 12 ^wSo that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. 13 Did then that which is good become death unto me? ^xGod forbid. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; — that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. 14 For we know that the law is ^yspiritual: but I am ^zcarnal, ^{aa}sold ^{ab}under sin. 15 For that which I ^{ac}do ^{ad}I know not: for ^{ae}not what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. 16 But if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto ^{af}the law that it is good. 17 So now ^{ag}it is no more I that ^{ah}do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my ^{ai}flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to ^{aj}do that which is good ^{ak}is not. 19 For ^{al}the good which I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. 20 But if what I would not, that I do, ^{am}it is no more I that ^{an}do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 21 I find then ^{ao}the law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. 22 For I delight ^{ap}in the law of God after ^{aq}the inward man: 23 but I see ^{ar}a different law in my members, warring against the ^{as}law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity ^{at}under ^{au}the law of sin which is in my members.

24 Wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of ^{sa}the body of this ^{sb}death? 25 ^{sc}I ^{sd}thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I of myself with the mind, indeed, serve the law of God; but with the flesh ^{se}the law of sin.

8 ^{sf}There is therefore now no ^{sg}condemnation to them that are ^{sh}in ^{si}Christ Jesus. 2 For ^{sj}the law of the Spirit of life in ^{sk}Christ Jesus ^{sl}made me free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For smwhat the law could not do, ^{sn}in that it ^{so}was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in ^{sp}the likeness of ^{sq}sinful flesh ^{sr}and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 that the ^{ss}ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who stwalk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 5 For they that are after the flesh mind ^{su}the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit ^{sv}the things of the Spirit. 6 ^{sw}For the mind of the flesh is ^{sx}death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace: 7 because the mind of the flesh is ^{sy}enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: 8 and they that are ^{sz}in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not ^{ta}in the flesh but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God ^{tb}dwellth in you. But ^{tc}if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And ^{td}if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him that ^{te}raised up Jesus from the dead dwellth in you, ^{tf}he that raised up ^{tg}Christ Jesus from the dead shall give life also to your mortal bodies ththrough his Spirit that dwellth in you.

12 So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: 13 for ^{ti}if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the Spirit ye ^{tj}put to death the ^{tk}deeds of the body, ye shall live.

The Spirit of Adoption. Pledge of Complete Redemption. "Who shall separate us from Christ's Love?" The Apostle's

14 For as many as are ^aled by the Spirit of God, these are ^bsons of God. 15 For ye ^creceived not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye ^dreceived the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, ^eAbba, Father. 16 The Spirit himself ^fbeareth witness with our spirit, that we are ^gchildren of God: 17 and if children, then ^hheirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; ⁱif so be that we suffer with ^jhim, that we may be also glorified with ^khim.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time ^lare not worthy to be compared with the ^mglory which shall be revealed to us-ward. 19 For the ⁿearnest expectation of the creation waiteth for ^othe revealing of the ^psons of God. 20 For the creation ^qwas subjected to ^rvanity, not of its own will, but ^sby reason of him who subjected it, ^tin hope 21 that ^uthe creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that ^vthe whole creation ^wgroaneth and travaileth in pain ^xtogether until now. 23 ^yAnd not only so, but ourselves also, who have ^zthe first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves ^{aa}groan within ourselves, ^{ab}waiting for ^{ac}our adoption, ^{ad}to wit, ^{ae}the redemption of our body. 24 For ^{af}in hope were we ^{ag}saved: but ^{ah}hope that is seen is not hope: ^{ai}for who ^{aj}hopeth for that which he seeth? 25 But ^{ak}if we hope for that which we see not, ^{al}then do we with ^{am}patience wait for it.

26 And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for ^{an}we know not how to pray as we ought; but ^{ao}the Spirit himself maketh intercession for ^{ap}us with groanings which cannot be uttered; 27 and ^{aq}he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is ^{ar}the mind of the Spirit, ^{as}because he ^{at}maketh intercession for the saints according to ^{au}the will of God. 28 And we know that to them that love God ^{av}all things work together for good, ^{aw}even to them that are ^{ax}called according to ^{ay}his purpose. 29 For whom he ^{az}fore-

witness with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For ^a I could ¹ wish that I myself were ^b anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen ^c according to the flesh: 4 who are ^d Israelites; whose is ^e the adoption, and ^f the glory, and ^g the covenants, and ^h the giving of the law, and ⁱ the service of God, and ^j the promises; 5 whose are ^k the fathers, and ^l of whom is Christ as concerning the ^m flesh, ⁿ who is over all, ^o God ^p blessed ^q for ever. 6 But it is not as though ^a the word of God hath come to nought. ^b For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel: 7 neither, ^c because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children: but, ^d In Isaac shall thy seed be called. 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are ^e children of God; but the ^f children of the promise are reckoned for a seed. 9 For this is a word of promise, ^g According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. 10 ^h And not only so; but ⁱ Rebecca also having conceived by one, even by our father Isaac — 11 for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that ^j the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, 12 it was said unto her, ^k The elder shall serve the younger. 13 Even as it is written, ^l Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

14 ^a What shall we say then? ^b Is there unrighteousness with God? ^c God forbid. 15 For he saith unto Moses, ^d I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that ^e runneth, but of ^f God that hath mercy. 17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, ^g For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might show in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth. 18 So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he ^h hardeneth.

^cAnd he that believeth on ³him ^dshall not be put to shame.

10 Brethren, my heart's ⁴desire and my supplication to God is for them, that they may be saved. ²For I bear them witness that they have ^ea zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³For being ignorant of ^fGod's righteousness, and ^gseeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. ⁴For ^hChrist is the end of the law unto righteousness to ⁱevery one that believeth. ⁵For Moses writeth that ^jthe man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law ^kshall live thereby. ⁶But ^lthe righteousness which is of faith saith thus, ^mSay not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) ⁿ7 or, Who shall descend into the ^oabyss? Israel's Loss the Gentiles' Gain. Their Partial Apostasy preludes Final Salvation is written, ^{1a} God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. ⁹ And David saith,

² Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,

Fulfillment of the Law. Salvation is at Hand. Forbearance towards Scruples. Self-denial on behalf of Others not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, ^aThou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbor; ^blove therefore is the fulfilment of the law.

11 And this, knowing the season, that ^aalready it is time for you to ^aawake out of sleep: for now is ¹salvation nearer to us than when we were ^afirst believed. 12 ^aThe night is far spent, and ¹the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off ^athe works of darkness, and let us put on ^athe armor of light. 13 Let us ^awalk becomingly, as in the day; ²not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. 14 But ^aput ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, ^mto fulfil the lusts thereof.

14 But him that is ^aweak in faith ^areceive ye, yet not ²for decision of scruples. ²One man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is ^aweak eateth herbs. 3 Let not him that eateth ^aset at nought him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not ^ajudge him that eateth: for God hath ^areceived him. 4 ^aWho art thou that judgest the ³servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand. 5 ^aOne man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let each man be ^afully assured in his own mind. 6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he ^agiveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. 7 For none of us ^aliveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: ^awhether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end ^aChrist died and lived again, that he might be ^aLord of both the dead and the living. 10 But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou ^aset at nought thy brother? for ^bwe shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God.

11 For it is written,

^aAs I live, saith the Lord, to me ^aevery knee shall bow,

And every tongue shall ^aconfess to God.

12 So then ^aeach one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore ^ajudge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that ^ano man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling.

14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that ^anothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who ^aaccounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou ^awalkest no longer in love. ^aDestroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died.

16 ^aLet not then your good be evil spoken of: 17 for the kingdom of God ^mis not eating and drinking, but righteouslyness and ^apeace and ^ajoy in the Holy Spirit.

18 For he that herein ^aserveth Christ is ^awell-pleasing to God, and approved of men.

19 So then ^alet us ^afollow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may ^aedify one another.

21 ^aIt is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth.

22 The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that ^ajudgeth not himself in that which he ^aapproveth.

23 But ^ahe that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

24 ^aWho art thou that judgest thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou ^aset at nought thy brother? for ^bwe shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God.

11 For it is written, ^aAs I live, saith the Lord, to me ^aevery knee shall bow, and every tongue shall ^aconfess to God.

12 So then ^aeach one of us shall give account of himself to God. 13 Let us not therefore ^ajudge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that ^ano man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling.

Mutual Helpfulness enjoined. Matters Personal. Paul asks their Prayers. Commends

15 Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the ^aweak, and not to please ourselves. 2 Let each one of us ^bplease his neighbor for that which is good, unto ^cedifying. 3 For ^aChrist also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, ¹The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell upon me. 4 For ^awhatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through ²patience and through comfort of the scriptures we might have hope. 5 Now the ³God of ²patience and of comfort grant you ⁴to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus: 6 that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify ^{3a}the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. 7 Wherefore ⁴receive ye one another, even as Christ also received ⁵you, to the glory of God. 8 For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of ^kthe circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm ⁶the promises ^{given} unto the fathers, 9 and that ^mthe Gentiles might ⁿglorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

⁵Therefore will I ⁶give praise unto thee among the ⁷Gentiles,

And sing unto thy name

10 And again he saith,

⁸Rejoice, ye ⁷Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again,

⁹Praise the Lord, all ye ⁷Gentiles;

And let all the peoples praise him.

12 And again, Isaiah saith,

¹⁰There shall be ^othe root of Jesse,

And he that ariseth to rule over the ⁷Gentiles;

²On him shall the ⁷Gentiles hope.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ^ajoy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, ⁱⁿthe power of the Holy Spirit.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye yourselves are full of ^agoodness, filled with ^call knowledge,

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving. Exhortation to Unity

1 Paul, ^acalled to be an apostle of Jesus Christ ^bthrough the will of God, and ^cSosthenes ¹our brother, ²unto ^dthe church of God which is at ^eCorinth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, ^fcalled to be saints, with all that ^hcall upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours: ³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I thank ²my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; ⁵that in everything ye were ^genriched in him, in all ³utterance and ^mall knowledge; ⁶even as ⁿthe testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: ⁷so that ye come behind in no gift; ^owaiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; ⁸^pwho shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be unreprouvable in ^qthe day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹^rGod is faithful, through whom ye were ^scalled into the ^tfellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰Now ^uI beseech you, ^vbrethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no ⁴divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in ^wthe same mind and in the same judgment. ¹¹For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by ^zthem that are of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. ¹²Now this I mean, that ^aeach one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of ^bApollos; and I of ^cCephas; and I of Christ. ¹³^bIs Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye ^dbaptized into the name of Paul? ¹⁴^eI thank God that I ^ebaptized none of you, save ^eCrispus and ^fGaius; ¹⁵lest any man should say that ye were baptized into my name. ¹⁶And I baptized also the ^ghousehold of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. ¹⁷^hFor Christ sent me not to baptize, but to ⁱpreach the gospel: ^jnot in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

¹⁸For the word of the cross is to ^kthem that ^lperish ^mfoolishness; but unto us who ⁿare saved it is ^mthe power of God. ¹⁹For it is written,

And the discernment of the discerning will I bring to nought.

²⁰Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of ^othis ^pworld? hath not God ^qmade foolish the wisdom of ^qthe world? ²¹For seeing that in the wisdom of God ^rthe world through its wisdom knew not God, it was ^rGod's good pleasure through the ^sfoolishness of the ^tpreaching to ^usave them that believe. ²²Seeing that ^vJews ask for signs, and Greeks seek after wisdom: ²³but we preach

"Christ the Power of God and the Wisdom of God." God's Choice the World's Foolishness. True and False Wisdom;

stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles ^a foolishness; 24 but unto ¹ them that are ^b called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ ^c the power of God, and ^d the wisdom of God. 25 Because the ^e foolishness of God is wiser than men; and ^f the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ² behold your ³ calling, brethren, that ⁴ not many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, ^{are called}: 27 but ⁵ God chose the foolish things of ⁶ the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of ⁷ the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; 28 and the base things of ⁸ the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, ⁹ yea ¹⁰ and ¹¹ the things that are not, that he might ¹² bring to nought the things that are: 29 that ¹³ no flesh should glory before God. 30 But of him are ye in ¹⁴ Christ Jesus, who was made unto us ¹⁵ wisdom from God, ¹⁶ and ¹⁷ righteousness and ¹⁸ sanctification, and ¹⁹ redemption: 31 that, according as it is written, ²⁰ "He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord."

2 And I, brethren, when I came unto you, ¹ came ² not with excellency of ³ speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you ⁴ the ⁵ testimony of God. 2 For I determined not to know anything among you, save ⁶ Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 3 And I ⁷ was with you in ⁸ weakness, and in ⁹ fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my ¹⁰ speech and my ¹¹ preaching were ¹² not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of ¹³ the Spirit and of power: 5 that your faith should not ¹⁴ stand in the wisdom of men, but in ¹⁵ the power of God.

6 We speak wisdom, however, among them that are ¹ fullgrown: yet a wisdom not of ² this ³ world, nor of the rulers of ⁴ this ⁵ world, who are ⁶ coming to nought: 7 but we speak God's wisdom in a ⁷ mystery, ⁸ even the wisdom that hath been hidden, which God ⁹ foreordained before the ¹⁰ worlds unto our glory: 8 ¹¹ which none of the rulers of ¹² this ¹³ world hath known: for had they known it, they would

¹¹ Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not,

And ¹² which entered not into the heart of man,

Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him.

10 ¹² But unto us God revealed ¹³ them ¹⁴ through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the ¹⁵ deep things of God.

11 For who among men knoweth the things of a man, save the ¹⁶ spirit of the man, which is in him? even so the things of God none knoweth, save the Spirit of God. 12 But we ¹⁷ received, not the spirit of ¹⁸ the ¹⁹ world, but the spirit which is from God; that we might know ²⁰ the things that were freely given to us of God. 13 Which things also we speak, ²¹ not in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit teacheth: ²² combining spiritual things with spiritual words. 14 Now the ²³ natural man ²⁴ receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are ²⁵ foolishness unto him; and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually ²⁶ judged. 15 But he that is ²⁷ spiritual ²⁸ judgeth all things, and he himself is ²⁹ judged of no man. 16 For ³⁰ who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? But ³¹ we have the mind of Christ.

3 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto ¹ spiritual, but as unto ² carnal, as unto ³ babes in Christ. 2 I fed you with ⁴ milk, not with meat; for ye ⁵ were not yet able to ⁶ bear it: nay, not even now are ye able: 3 for ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you ⁷ jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and do ye not walk ⁸ after the manner of men? 4 For when ⁹ one saith, I am of Paul;

and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not ^amen? 5 What then is Apollos? and what is Paul? ^bMinisters through whom ye believed; and each ^cas the Lord gave to him. 6 ^dI planted, ^eApollos watered; but ^fGod gave the increase. 7 So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: but each shall ^greceive his own reward according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's ^hfellow-workers; ye are God's ⁱhusbandry, God's ^jbuilding.

10 According to ^kthe grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder ^lI laid a foundation; and ^manother buildeth thereon. But let each man take heed how he buildeth thereon. 11 For ⁿother foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 But if any man buildeth on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble; 13 ^oeach man's work shall be made manifest: for ^pthe day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; ^qand the fire itself shall prove each man's work of what sort it is. 14 If any man's work shall abide which he built thereon, he shall ^rreceive a reward. 15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet ^sso as through fire.

16 ^tKnow ye not that ^uye are a temple of God, and ^vthat the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? 17 If any man destroyeth the ^wtemple of God, him shall God destroy; for the ^xtemple of God is holy, ^yand such are ye.

18 ^zLet no man deceive himself. ^{aa}If any man thinketh that he is wise among you in ^{ab}this ^{ac}world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. 19 For ^{ad}the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, ^{ae}He that taketh the wise in their craftiness: 20 and again, ^{af}The Lord knoweth the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain. 21 Wherefore ^{ag}let no one glory in men. For ^{ah}all things are yours; 22 ^{ai}whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or ^blife, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; 23 and ^cye are Christ's; and ^dChrist is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of ^eministers of Christ, and ^fstewards of ^gthe mysteries of God. 2 Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. 3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be ^hjudged of you, or of man's ⁱjudgment: yea, I ^jjudge not mine own self. 4 For I ^kknow nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby ^ljustified: but he that ^mjudgeth me is the Lord. 5 Wherefore ⁿjudge nothing before the time, ^ountil the Lord come, who will both ^pbring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man ^qhave his praise from God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to ^rgo beyond ^sthe things which are written; that no one of you be ^tpuffed up ^ufor the one against the other. 7 For who maketh thee to differ? and ^vwhat hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it? 8 ^wAlready are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have come to reign without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. 9 For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men ^xdoomed to death: for we are ^ymade a spectacle unto the world, ^zboth to angels and men. 10 We are ^{aa}fools for Christ's sake, but ^{ab}ye are wise in Christ; ^{ac}ye are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonor. 11 Even unto this present hour we both ^{ad}hunger, and thirst,

Concerning Virgins. Concerning Things sacrificed to Idols

And ^aso ordain I in ^ball the churches. 18 ^cWas any man called being circumcised? let him not become ^cuncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? ^dlet him not be circumcised. 19 ^eCircumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but ^fthe keeping of the commandments of God. 20 ^gLet each man abide in that calling wherein he was called. 21 Wast thou called being a bond-servant? care not for it: ^h1 nay, even if thou canst become free, use ⁱit rather. 22 For he that was called in the Lord being a bond-servant, is ^jthe Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called being free, is ^kChrist's bond-servant. 23 ^l*Ye were bought with a price; become not bond-servants of men. 24 Brethren, ^mlet each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have ⁿno commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgment, as one that hath ^oobtained mercy of the Lord to be trustworthy. 26 I think therefore that this is good by reason of the ^pdistress that is upon us, ^qnamely, that ^r'it is good for a man ^s2 to be as he is. 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 28 But shouldest thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would spare you. 29 But this I say, brethren, ^tthe time ^u3 is shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, as though they possessed not; 31 and those that use the world, as not ^vusing it to the full: for ^wthe fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is ^xunmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his ^y4 wife, 34 and is divided. ^zSo also the woman that is unmarried and the virgin is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a ^{aa}snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his ^{ab}virgin daughter, if she be ^{ac}'past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. 37 But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own ^{ad}virgin daughter, shall do well. 38 So then both he that giveth his own ^{ae}virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. 39 ^{af}*A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be ^{ag}'dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only ^{ah}'in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she abide as she is, ^{ai}'after my judgment; and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now concerning ^{aj}things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have ^{ak}knowledge. Knowledge ^{al}'puffeth up, but love ^{am}'edifieth. 2 ^{an}'If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he ^{ao}'knoweth not yet as he ought to know; 3 but if any man loveth God, the same ^{ap}'is known by him. 4 Concerning therefore the eating of ^{aq}things sacrificed to idols, we know that ^{ar}'no idol is ^{as}anything in the world, and that ^{at}'there is no God but one. 5 For though there be ^{au}'that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; 6 yet to us ^{av}'there is one God, ^{aw}'the Father, ^{ax}'of whom are all things, and we unto him; and ^{ay}'one Lord, Jesus Christ, ^{az}'through whom are Nevertheless we ^{aj}did not use this right; but we bear all things, ^{ak}that we may cause no hindrance to the ^{al}gospel of Christ. 13 ^{am}Know ye not that they that ^{an}minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they that wait upon the altar have their portion with the altar? 14 Even so did ^{ao}the Lord ordain that they that proclaim the ^{ap}gospel should ^{aq}live of the ^{ar}gospel. 15 But I have ^{as}used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case; for ^{at}it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make ^{au}my glorying void. 16 For if I ^{av}preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for ^{aw}necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I ^{ax}preach not ^{ay}the gospel. 17 For if I do this of mine own will, I have a ^{az}reward: but if not of mine own will, I have a ^{ba}stewardship intrusted to me. 18 What then is my ^{bb}reward? gain the weak: I am become ^aall things to all men, ^bthat I may by all means ^csave some. 23 And I do all things for the ¹gospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof. 24 ^aKnow ye not that they that run in a ²race run all, but one receiveth ^athe prize? Even so ³run; that ye may attain. 25 And every man that ⁴striveth in the games exerciseth self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible ^bcrown; but we an incorruptible. 26 I therefore so ⁵run, as not uncertainly; so ⁶fight I, as not ⁷beating the air: 27 but I ⁸buffet ^bmy body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I ⁹have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 For ¹I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, that our fathers were all ^munder the cloud, and all ⁿpassed through the sea; ² and were all ^obaptized ⁶unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; ³ and did all ^peat the same spiritual food; ⁴ and did all ^qdrink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was ^rChrist. ⁵ Howbeit with most of them God was not well pleased: for ^sthey were overthrown in the wilderness. ⁶ Now ^tthese things were our ^uexamples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as ^vthey also lusted. ⁷ Neither be ye ^widolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, ⁸The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to ^xplay. ⁸ Neither let us commit fornication, as ^ysome of them committed, and fell in one day ^zthree and twenty thousand. ⁹ Neither let us make trial of the ¹⁰Lord, as ²some of them made trial, and perished by the serpents. ¹⁰ Neither murmur ye, ^aas some of them murmured, and ^bperished by the ^cdestroyer. ¹¹ Now these things happened unto them ^dby way of ^eexample; and ^fthey were written for our admonition, upon whom ^gthe ends of the ages are come. ¹² Wherefore let him that asking no question for conscience' sake. 28 But ^aif any man say unto you, This hath been offered in sacrifice, eat not, for his sake that showed it, and for conscience' sake: 29 conscience, I say, not thine own, but the other's; for ^bwhy is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 ^cIf I partake with thankfulness, ^dwhy am I evil spoken of for that for which I ^egive thanks? 31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or ^fwhatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 32 ^gGive no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to ^hthe church of God: 33 even as I also ⁱplease all men in all things, ^jnot seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the many, ^kthat they may be saved. 1 ^lBe ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now ^mI praise you that ye ⁿremember me in all things, and ^ohold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know, that the ^phead of every man is Christ; and ^qthe head of the woman is the man; and the ^rhead of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or ^sprophesying, having his head covered, dishonoreth his head. 5 But every ^twoman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoreth her head; for it is one and the same thing as if she were ^ushaven. 6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. 7 For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the ^vimage and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For ^wthe man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man: 9 for neither was the man created for the woman; but ^xthe woman for the man: 10 for this cause ought the woman to have ^ya sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless, neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. 12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but ^zall things are ^{aa}of God. 13 ^{ab}Judge ye ^{ac}in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. 16 But if any man seemeth to be contentious, ^{ag}we have no such custom, neither ^{ah}the churches of God.

17 But in giving you this charge, ^{ai}I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when ye come together ^{aj}in the church, I hear that ^{ak}divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it. 19 For there ^{al}must be also ^{am}factions among you, ^{an}that they that are approved may be made manifest among you. 20 When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: 21 for in your eating each one taketh before ^{ao}other his own supper; and one is hungry, and ^{ap}another is drunken. 22 What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the ^{aq}church of God, and ^{ar}put them to shame that ^{as}have not? What shall I say to you? ^{at}shall ^{au}I praise you? In this I praise you not. 23 For ^{av}I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that ^{aw}the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was ^{ax}betrayed took bread; 24 and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which ^{ay}is for you: this do in remembrance of me. 25 In like manner also ^{az}the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the ^{ba}new covenant in my blood: this do, as often as ye drink ^{bb}it, in remembrance of me. 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death ^{bc}until he come. 27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be ^{bd}guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

Concerning Spiritual Gifts. Gifts Diverse, but the Spirit the Same. The Body one, the Members many 28 But let a man ^aprove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. 29 For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he ¹discern not the body. 30 For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few ²sleep. 31 But if we ²discerned ourselves, we should not be judged. 32 But ³when we are judged, we are ^cchastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with ^dthe world. 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another. 34 If any man is ^ehungry, let him eat ^fat home; that your coming together be not unto judgment. And the rest will I ^gset in order ^hwhenever I come.

12 Now concerning ⁱspiritual gifts, brethren, ^kI would not have you ignorant. 2 ^lYe know that when ye were Gentiles ye were ^mled away unto those ⁿdumb idols, howsoever ye might be led. 3 Wherefore I make known unto you, that no man speaking ^oin the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is ^panathema; and no man can say, Jesus is ^qLord, but ^rin the Holy Spirit.

4 Now there are ^rdiversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are diversities of ministrations, and the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of workings, but the same ^sGod, who worketh all things in all. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit ^tto profit withal. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of ^uwisdom; and to another the word of ^vknowledge, according to the same Spirit: 9 to another ^wfaith, in the same Spirit; and to another ^xgifts of healings, in the one Spirit; 10 and to another workings of ^ymiracles; and to another ^zprophecy; and to another ^{aa}discernings of spirits: to another ^{ab}divers kinds of tongues; and to another the ^{ac}interpretation of tongues: 11 but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, ^{ad}dividing to each one severally even as he will.

members of the body, being many, are one body; ^{as}so also is Christ. 13 For ^{at}in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether ^{au}Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to ^{av}drink of one Spirit. 14 For ^{aw}the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? 18 But now hath God ^{ax}set the members each one of them in the body, ^{ay}even as it pleased him. 19 And if they were all one member, where were the body? 20 But now ^{az}they are many members, but one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. 22 Nay, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary: 23 and those ^{ba}parts of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we ^{bb}bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely ^{bc}parts have more abundant comeliness; 24 whereas our comely ^{bd}parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to that ^{be}part which lacked; 25 that there should be no schism in the body; but ^{bf}that the members should have the same care one for another. 26 And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or ^{bg}one member is ^{bh}honored, all the members rejoice with it. 27 Now ye are ^{bi}the body of Christ, and ^{bj}severally members thereof. 28 And God hath ^{bk}set some in ^{bl}the church, first ^{bm}apostles, secondly ^{bn}prophets, thirdly ^{bo}teachers, then ^{bp}miracles, then ^{bq}gifts of healings, helps, ^{br}governments, divers ^akinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of ¹miracles? 30 have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all ^binterpret? 31 But ^cdesire earnestly the greater gifts. And moreover a most excellent way show I unto you.

13 If I speak with the ^atongues of men and of ^cangels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a ^dclanging cymbal. 2 And if I have the ^egift of ^fprophecy, and know all ^gmysteries and ^hall knowledge; and if I have ⁱall faith, so as to ^jremove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And if I ^kbestow all my goods to feed the ^lpoor, and if I ^mgive my body ⁿto be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. 4 Love ^osuffereth long, and is kind; love ^penvieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not ^qpuffed up, ^rdoth not behave itself unseemly, ^sseeketh not its own, is not provoked, ^ttaketh not account of evil; ^urejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but ^vrejoiceth with the truth; ^wbeareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 8 Love never faileth: but whether ^xthere be ^yprophecies, they shall be done away; whether ^zthere be ^{aa}tongues, they shall cease; whether ^{ab}there be knowledge, it shall be done away. 9 For we ^{ac}know in part, and we prophesy in part; 10 but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. 12 For now we ^{ad}see in a mirror, ^{ae}darkly; but then ^{af}face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know fully even as also I ^{ag}was fully known. 13 But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the ^{ah}greatest of these is ^{ai}love.

14 Follow after love; yet ^{aj}desire earnestly ^{ak}spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may ^{al}prophesy. 2 For he that ^{am}speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man ^{an}un-at thy ^agiving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? 17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not ^{1b}edified. 18 I thank God, I speak with tongues more than you all: 19 howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 ^cBrethren, ^abe not children in mind: yet in malice ^bbe ye babes, but in mind be ²men. 21 In ^dthe law it is written, ³By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord. 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but ^epropheying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that believe. 23 If therefore the whole church be assembled together and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ^aye are mad? 24 But if all ^eprophecy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is ⁴reproved by all, he is judged by all; 25 ^kthe secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will ^ffall down on his face and worship God, ^mdeclaring that God is ⁵among you indeed.

26 ⁿWhat is it then, ^cbrethren? When ye come together, ^eeach one hath a ^ppsalm, hath a ^qteaching, hath a ^rrevelation, hath a ^rtongue, hath an ^sinterpretation. Let ^aall things be done unto edifying. 27 If any man speaketh in a ^rtongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one ^tinterpret: 28 but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 And let the ^uprophets speak by two or three, and let the others ^vdiscern. 30 But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence. 31 For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be ^wexhorted; 32 and the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; 33 for God is not a God of ^xconfusion, but of peace.

Christ's Resurrection the Pledge of ours. Baptisms for the Dead. The Resurrection vindicated

because I ^apersecuted the church of God. 10 But by ^bthe grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found ¹vain; but I ^clabored more abundantly than they all: yet ^dnot I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there ^eis no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been raised: 14 and ^fif Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching ¹vain, ²your faith also is ¹vain. 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he ^graised up ³Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised: 17 and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ⁴ye are yet in your sins. 18 Then they also that ⁵are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 ⁴If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are ⁶of all men most pitiable.

20 But now ¹hath Christ been raised from the dead, the ^mfirstfruits of them that ⁷are asleep. 21 For since ⁿby man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For ^oas in Adam all die, so also in ³Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ ^mthe firstfruits; then ^pthey that are Christ's, at ⁸his ^bcoming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up ^rthe kingdom to ⁶God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished ^{all}rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, ^utill he hath put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be ^{abolished} is death. 27 For, He put all things in subjection under his feet. ^vBut when he saith, ⁸u All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto him. 28 And when ^vall things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that ²God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do that are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? 30 why do we also stand ^ain jeopardy every hour? 31 I protest by ⁹that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ⁶I die daily. 32 If after the manner of men I ^cfought with beasts at ^aEphesus, ¹⁰what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, ¹let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 33 ⁷Be not deceived: Evil companionships corrupt good morals. 34 ⁹Awake to soberness righteously, and sin not; for some have ^hno knowledge of God: ⁴I speak this to move you to shame.

35 But ^ksome one will say, How are ¹the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come? 36 ^mThou foolish one, that which thou thyself ⁷sowest is not quickened except it die: 37 and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; 38 but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and ^oto each seed a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes. 40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. 42 ^pSo also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in ²corruption; it is raised in ^{incorruption}: 43 it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in ^{glory}: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 it is sown a ^{1a} natural body; it is raised a ^b spiritual body. If there is a ¹ natural body, there is also a spiritual body. 45 So also it is written, ² The first man Adam became a living soul. The ^c last Adam became a ^d life-giving spirit. 46 Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is ^e natural; then that which is spiritual. 47 The first man is ^f of the earth, ^g earthy: the second man is of heaven. 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, ^h such are they also that are heavenly. 49 And as we have ⁱ borne the image of the earthy, ^j we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that ^k flesh and blood cannot ^l inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit ^m incorruption. 51 Behold, I tell you a ⁿ mystery: ^o We all shall not sleep, but we shall all be ^p changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for ^q the trumpet shall sound, and ^r the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and ^s we shall be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on ^t incorruption, and this ^u mortal must put on immortality. 54 But when ^v this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, ^w Death is swallowed up ^x in victory. 55 ^y O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? 56 The sting of ^z death is sin; and ^{aa} the power of sin is the law: 57 but ^{ab} thanks be to God, who giveth us the ^{ac} victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 ^{ad} Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in ^{ae} the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not ^{af} vain in the Lord.

not ^bTitus my brother: but ^ctaking my leave of them, I went forth into ^dMacedonia.

¹⁴ But thanks be unto God, who always ^eleadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the ^fsavor of his ^hknowledge in every place. ¹⁵ For we are a ^gsweet savor of Christ unto God, in ⁱthem that ¹⁰ are saved, and in them that ¹¹ perish; ¹⁶ ^kto the one a savor from death unto death; to the other a savor from life unto life. And who is ^lsufficient for these things? ¹⁷ For we are not as the many, ¹² ^mcorrupting the word of God: but ⁿas of sincerity, but as of God, ^oin the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

³ Are we beginning again to ^pcommend ourselves? or need we, as do some, ^qepistles of commendation to you or from you? ² ^rYe are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men; ³ being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ^sministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of ^tthe living God; not in ^utables of stone, but in ^vtables that are ^whearts of flesh. ⁴ And such ^xconfidence have we through Christ to God-ward: ⁵ not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but ^your sufficiency is from God; ⁶ who also made us sufficient as ^zministers of a ^anew covenant; not of ^bthe letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but ^cthe spirit giveth life. ⁷ But if the ^dministration of death, ¹³ ^ewritten, and engraven on stones, came ^fwith glory, ⁷ so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which glory ¹⁵ was passing away: ⁸ how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit be with glory?

"Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." "Seeing we have this Ministry, we faint not"

9 ¹ For if ^a the ministration of condemnation hath glory, much rather doth the ^b ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasseth. 11 For if that which ² passeth away was ³ with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

12 ^c Having therefore such a hope, ^a we use great boldness of speech, 13 and are not as Moses, ^e who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly ^d on the end of that which ^e was passing away: 14 but their ⁶ minds were ^f hardened: for until this very day at the ^g reading of ^h the old covenant the same veil ⁱ remaineth, it not being revealed to them that it is done away in Christ. 15 But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. 16 ^j But whensoever ^k it shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where ^k the Spirit of the Lord is, ^l there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face ^m beholding as in a mirror the ⁿ glory of the Lord, are ^o transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from ^p the Lord the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ^q ministry, even as we ^r obtained mercy, we ^s faint not: 2 but we have renounced the hidden ^t things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor ^u handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth ^v commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 And even if our ¹⁰ ^x gospel is ^y veiled, it is veiled in ^z them that ¹¹ perish: 4 in whom ^a the god of ^b this ¹² world hath ^c blinded the ^d minds of the unbelieving, ¹³ that the ¹⁴ light of the ¹⁰ gospel of the ^e glory of Christ, who is the ^f image of God, should not dawn upon them. 5 For we preach ^g not ourselves, but Christ

Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your ¹⁵ servants ¹⁶ for Jesus' sake. 6 Seeing it is God, that said, ¹⁷ Light shall shine out of darkness, who ¹⁸ shined in our hearts, to give the ¹⁹ light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in ²⁰ earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of ²¹ the power may be of God, and not from ourselves; 8 we are ²² pressed on every side, yet not ²³ straitened; ²⁴ perplexed, yet not unto despair; 9 ²⁵ pursued, yet not ²⁶ forsaken; ²⁷ smitten down, yet not destroyed; 10 ²⁸ always bearing about in the body the ²⁹ dying of Jesus, that ³⁰ the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body.

11 For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same ³¹ spirit of faith, according to that which is written, ³² I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak; 14 knowing that he that ³³ raised up ³⁴ the Lord Jesus ³⁵ shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall ³⁶ present us with you. 15 For all things are ³⁷ for your sakes, that the grace, being ³⁸ multiplied through ³⁹ the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.

16 Wherefore we ⁴⁰ faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our ⁴¹ inward man is ⁴² renewed day by day. 17 For our ⁴³ light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18 while we ⁴⁴ look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen:

"Absent from the Body, at Home with the Lord." "In Everything commending ourselves as Ministers of God"

5 For we know that if the ^aearthly house of our ^{1b}tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house ^cnot made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. 2 For verily in this we ^dgroan, longing to be ^eclothed upon with our habitation which is from heaven: 3 if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For indeed we that are in this ^ftabernacle do ^ggroan, ^hbeing burdened; not for that we would be ⁱunclothed, but that we would be ^jclothed upon, that what is ^kmortal may be swallowed up of life. 5 Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who ^lgave unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, ^mwhilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord 7 (for ⁿwe walk by faith, not by ^osight); 8 we are of good courage, I say, and are ^pwilling rather to be absent from the body, and ^qto be at home with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we ^rmake it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be ^swell-pleasing unto him. 10 For we must all be made manifest before ^tthe judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things ^udone ^vin the body, according to what he hath done, whether ^wit be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the ^xfear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are ^ymade manifest also in your consciences. 12 We are not ^zagain commending ourselves unto you, but ^{aa} speak as giving you ^{ab}occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we ^{ac}are ^{ad}beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto you. 14 For the love of Christ ^{ae}constraineth us; because we thus judge, that ^{af}one died for all, therefore all died; 15 and he died for all, that they that live should no longer ^{ag}live unto them-

5 For even when we were come into Macedonia our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. 6 Nevertheless he that comforteth the lowly, even God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; 7 and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more. 8 For though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it: though I did regret it (for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a season), 9 I now rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance; for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. 11 For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea what clearing of yourselves, yea what indignation, yea what fear, yea what longing, yea what zeal, yea what avenging! In everything ye approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God. 13 Therefore we have been comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit hath been refreshed by you all. 14 For if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. 15 And his affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembereth the ^aobedience of you all, how with ^bfear and trembling ye received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything ^cI am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been ^agiven in the churches of ^aMacedonia; 2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto ^fthe riches of their ¹liberality. 3 For ²according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 beseeching us with much entreaty in regard of ^bthis grace and the fellowship in the ³ministering to the saints; 5 and this, not as we had hoped, but first they ^kgave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through ⁴the will of God. 6 Inasmuch that we ^mexhorted ⁿTitus, that as he had ^omade a beginning before, so he would also complete in you ^bthis grace also. 7 But as ye ^pabound ^qin everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in ^ryour love to us, see that ye ^pabound in this grace also. 8 I speak ^rnot by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9 For ye know ^sthe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, ^tthough he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. 10 And herein I ^ugive my judgment: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning ^va year ago, not only to do, but also to will. 11 But now complete the doing also; that as there was the ^wreadiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable ^yaccording as a man hath, not according as he hath not. 13 For I say not this that others may be eased and ye distressed; 14 but by equality: your abundance being a supply at this present time for ^ztheir want, that their abundance also may become a supply for ^zyour want; that there may be equality: 15 as it

16 But ^athanks be to God, who ^bputteth the same earnest care for you into the heart of ⁿTitus. 17 For he accepted indeed our ^mexhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. 18 And we have sent together with him ^cthe brother whose praise in the ¹*gospel is spread* through ^dall the churches; 19 ^eand not only so, but who was also ^fappointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of ^bthis grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to show our ^greadiness: 20 avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us: 21 for we ^htake thought for things honorable, not only in ⁱthe sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you. 23 Whether any inquire about ^jTitus, he is my ^mpartner and my fellow-worker to you-ward; or our ⁿbrethren, they are the ^omessengers of the churches, they are ^pthe glory of Christ. 24 ^qShow ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our ^rglorying on your behalf.

9 For as touching the ^sministering to the saints, ^tit is superfluous for me to write to you: 2 for I know your readiness, of which I ^uglory on your behalf to them of ^vMacedonia, that ^wAchaia hath been prepared for ^xa year past; and ^yyour zeal hath stirred up ^zvery many of them. 3 But I have sent the brethren, that our ^aglorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, ^beven as I said, ye may be prepared: 4 lest by any means, if there come with me any of ^cMacedonia and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this confidence. 5 I thought it necessary therefore to exalted overmuch. 8 Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. 9 And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing was I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, by signs and wonders and mighty works. 13 For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a burden to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 And I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? 16 But be it so, I did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with guile. 17 Did I take advantage of you by any one of them whom I have sent unto you? 18 I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked ye not in the same steps?

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

Salutation. The Galatians' Apostasy surprising. The Gospel I preach came from God; was not learned at Jerusalem;

1 Paul, ^aan apostle (^bnot from men, neither through ¹man, but ^cthrough Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who ^draised him from the dead), ²and all ^ethe brethren that are with me, unto ^fthe churches of Galatia: ³Grace to you and peace ^gfrom God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who ^hgave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of ⁱthis present evil ³world, according to the will of ⁴our God and Father: ⁵to whom ^{be}the glory ⁵for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are ^mso quickly removing from ⁿhim that called you in the grace of Christ unto a ^odifferent ^ogospel; 7 ⁷which is not another ^ogospel: only there are some that ^ptrouble you, and would pervert the ⁶gospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or ^qan angel from heaven, should ⁸preach ⁹unto you any gospel ¹⁰other than that which we ⁸preached unto you, let him be ^ranathema. 9 As we ⁹have said before, so say I now again, ⁹If any man ⁸preacheth unto you any gospel ¹⁰other than that which ye received, let him be ^ranathema. 10 For am I now ^qseeking the favor of men, or of God? or am I striving to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a ¹¹servant of Christ.

11 For ^rI make known to you, brethren, as touching the ⁶gospel which was ⁸preached by me, that it is ⁹not after man. 12 For ²neither did I receive it from ¹man, nor was I taught it, but ^{it}came to me through ^orevelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For ye have

He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, ^{14t}And to thy seed, which is Christ. ¹⁷Now this I say: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came ^tfour hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. ¹⁸For ^uif the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but ^vGod hath granted it to Abraham by promise. ¹⁹^wWhat then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till ^xthe seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ^yordained through angels ^bby the hand of a mediator. ²⁰Now ^aa mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. ²¹Is the law then against the promises of God? ²²God forbid: for ^cif there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. ²²But the scripture ^dshut up all ^ethings under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

²³But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, ^fshut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. ²⁴So that the law is become our ^gtutor to bring us unto Christ, that ^hwe might be justified by faith. ²⁵But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a ⁱtutor. ²⁶For ye are all ^jsons of God, through faith, in ^kChrist Jesus. ²⁷For as many of you as were ^mbaptized into Christ did ⁿput on Christ. ²⁸^oThere can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female; for ^pye all are one ^{man} in ^qChrist Jesus. ²⁹And if ^rye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to ^spromise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant though he is lord of all; ²but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed of the father. ³So we also, when we were children, were held ^tin bondage under the ¹⁵^urudiments of the world: ⁴but when ^vthe fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, ^wborn of a woman, born ^xunder the law, ⁵that he might redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of ^ysons. ⁶And because ye are sons, ⁷God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ^zAbba, Father. ⁷So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and ^aif a son, then an heir through God.

8 Howbeit at that time, ^bnot knowing God, ye were ^cin bondage to ^dthem that by nature are no gods: 9 but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be ^eknown by God, ^fhow turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly ^grudiments, whereunto ye desire to be ^hin bondage over again? 10 Ye ⁱobserve days, and months, and seasons, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, ^jbrethren, ^kbecome as I am, for I also am become as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: 13 but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I ^lpreached the gospel unto you the ^mfirst time: 14 and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor ⁿrejected; but ^oye received me as an angel of God, even as ^pChrist Jesus. 15 Where then is that gratulation ^qof yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then am I become your enemy, ^rby telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and ^snot only when I am present with you. 19 ^tMy little children, of whom ^uI am again in travail until ^vChrist be formed in you—20 but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone; for ^wI am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not ^xhear the law? 22 For it is written, ^ythat Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the freewoman. 23 ^zHowbeit ^{aa}the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but ^{ab}the son by the freewoman ^{ac}is born through promise. 24 Which things ^{ad}contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from ^{ae}mount Sinai, bearing children unto ^{af}bondage, which is Hagar. 25 ^{ar}Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But ^{as}the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother. 27 For it is written,

For more are the children of the desolate than of her that hath the husband.

28 Now ^{au}we, brethren, ^{av}as Isaac was, are ^{aw}children of promise. 29 But as then ^{ax}he that was born after the flesh ^{ay}persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, ^{az}so also it is now. 30 Howbeit what saith the scripture? ^{ba}Cast out the handmaid and her son: for ^{bb}the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. 31 Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

5 ^{bc}For freedom did Christ set us free: ^{bd}stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a ^{be}yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, ^{bf}I Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive ^{bg}circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 Yea, I ^{bh}testify again to every man that receiveth ^{bi}circumcision, that he is a debtor to ^{bj}do the whole law. 4 Ye are ^{bk}severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are ^{bl}fallen away from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit by faith ^{bm}wait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in ^{bn}Christ Jesus ^{bo}neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but ^{bp}faith ^{bq}working through love. 7 Ye were ^{br}running well; who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion came not of ^{bs}him that calleth you. 9 ^{bt}A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. 10 ^{bu}I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord,

The Spirit and the Flesh contrary the One to the Other. Exhortation to Forbearance and Helpfulness that ye ^awill be none otherwise minded: but he that ^btroubleth you shall bear his judgment, who-soever he be. 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still ^cpersecuted? then hath ^dthe stumbling-block of the cross been done away. 12 I would that ^ethey that unsettle you would even ^fgo beyond circumcision.

13 For ye, brethren, were called for ^gfreedom; ^honly use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love ⁱbe servants one to another. 14 For ^kthe whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: ^lThou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 15 But if ye ^mbite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, ⁿWalk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil ^othe lust of the flesh. 17 For ^pthe flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; ^qthat ye may not do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye are ^rled by the Spirit, ^sye are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are ^tthese: ^ufornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, ^vidolatry, ^wsorcery, enmities, ^xstrife, jealousies, wraths, ^yfactions, divisions, ^zparties, ^{aa}envyings, ^{ab}drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I ^{ac}forewarn you, even as I did ^{ad}forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not ^{ae}inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But ^{af}the fruit of the Spirit is ^{ag}love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, ^{ah}faithfulness, ^{ai}meekness, ^{aj}self-control; against such ^{ak}there is no law. 24 And they that are of ^{al}Christ Jesus have ^{am}crucified the flesh with the passions and ^{an}the lusts thereof.

25 If we live by the Spirit, ^{ao}by the Spirit let us also walk. 26 Let us not become ^{ap}vainglorious, ^{aq}provoking one another, envying one another.

6 ^{ar}Brethren, even if a man be overtaken ^{as}in any trespass, ye who are ^{at}spiritual, ^{au}restore such a one ^{av}in a spirit of gentleness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. 2 ^{aw}Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil ^{al}the law of Christ. 3 For ^{am}if a man thinketh himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. 4 But let each man ^{an}prove his own work, and then shall he have his ^{ao}glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of ^{ap}his neighbor. 5 For ^{aq}each man shall bear his own ^{ar}burden.

6 But ^{as}let him that is taught in ^{at}the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 ^{au}Be not deceived; ^{av}God is not mocked: for ^{aw}whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. 8

^{ax}For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap ^{ay}corruption; but ^{az}he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 And ^{ba}let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we ^{bb}faint not. 10 So then, ^{bc}as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the ^{bd}household of ^{be}the faith.

11 See with how large letters I

^{bf}write unto you ^{bg}with mine own hand. 12 As many as desire ^{bh}to make a fair show in the flesh, they

^{bi}compel you to be circumcised; only that they ^{bj}may not be persecuted ^{bk}for the cross of Christ. 13

For not even they who ^{bl}receive circumcision do themselves ^{bm}keep the law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may

^{bn}glory in your flesh. 14 But ^{bo}far be it from me to glory, ^{bp}save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ,

^{bq}through ^{br}which the world hath been crucified unto me, and ^{bs}I unto ^{bt}the cross. 15 I am crucified with Christ, ^{bu}nevertheless I live; yet I live, not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live with you, and with the world.

16 My little children, of whom I am again in travail until I be crowned with the crown of life, ye shall not be brought into bondage by the yoke of circumcision, which is the bondage of the law.

17 For ye are the children of the promise, which is by faith. 18 For if ye have been crucified with Christ, ye are dead to the law, as Christ is dead to the law, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, unto himself, a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

19 For we are the seed of the promise, which is by faith. 20 For if ye have been crucified with Christ, ye are dead to the law, as Christ is dead to the law, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, unto himself, a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

21 For ye are the seed of the promise, which is by faith. 22 For if ye have been crucified with Christ, ye are dead to the law, as Christ is dead to the law, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, unto himself, a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

23 For ye are the seed of the promise, which is by faith. 24 For if ye have been crucified with Christ, ye are dead to the law, as Christ is dead to the law, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, unto himself, a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

¹ world, but also in that which is to come: 22 and he ^a put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be ^b head over all things to the church, 23 which is his ^c body, the ^d fulness of him that ^e filleth ^f all in all.

2 And you did he ^g make alive, when ye were ^h dead through your trespasses and sins, 2 wherein ye ⁱ once walked according to the ^j course of ^k this world, according to ^l the prince of the ^m powers of the air, of the spirit that now worketh in ⁿ the sons of disobedience; 3 among whom we also all ^o once lived in ^p the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the ^q mind, and were ^r by nature ^s children of wrath, ^t even as the rest:—4 but God, being ^u rich in mercy, for ^v his great love wherewith he loved us, 5 even when we were ^w dead through our trespasses, ^x made us alive together ^y with Christ (^z by grace have ye been saved), 6 and ^{aa} raised us up with him, and ^{ab} made us to sit with him in ^{ac} the heavenly places, in ^{ad} Christ Jesus: 7 that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding ^{ae} riches of his grace in ^{af} kindness toward us in Christ Jesus: 8 for ^{ag} by grace have ye been saved ^{ah} through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is ^{ai} the gift of God; 9 ^{aj} not of works, that ^{ak} no man should glory. 10 For we are his workmanship, ^{al} created in ^{am} Christ Jesus for ^{an} good works, which God ^{ao} afore prepared that we should ^{ap} walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that once ^{aq} ye, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called ^{ar} Uncircumcision by that which is called ^{as} Circumcision, in the flesh, made by hands; 12 that ye were at that time separate from Christ, ^{at} alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from ^{au} the covenants of the promise, having ^{av} no hope and ^{aw} without God in the world. 13 But now in ^{ax} Christ Jesus ye that once were ^{ay} far off are ^{az} made nigh in ^{ba} the blood of Christ. 14 For he is ^{bb} our peace, ^{bc} who made both one, and brake down the middle wall of partition, 15 having ^{bd} abolished in his flesh the enmity, even ^{be} the law of commandments contained in ordi-

14 For this cause I ^{ag} bow my knees unto the Father, 15 from whom every ^{ah} family in heaven and on earth is named, 16 that he would grant you, according to ^{ai} the riches of his glory, that ye may be ^{aj} strengthened with power through his Spirit in ^{ak} the inward man; 17 that ^{al} Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being ^{am} rooted and ^{an} grounded in love, 18 may be strong to apprehend with ^{ao} all the saints what is ^{ap} the breadth and length and height and depth, 19 and to know ^{aq} the love of Christ which ^{ar} passeth knowledge, that ye may be ^{as} filled unto all the ^{at} fullness of God.

3 But ⁷fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; ⁸4 nor ⁹filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which ¹⁰are not befitting: but rather ¹¹giving of thanks. ¹²5 For this ye know of a surety, that ¹³no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom ¹⁴of Christ and God. ¹⁵6 Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh ¹⁶the wrath of God upon ¹⁷the sons of disobedience. ¹⁸7 Be not ye therefore ¹⁹partakers with them; ²⁰8 for ²¹ye were once ²²darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as ²³children of light ²⁴9 (for ²⁵the fruit of the light is in all ²⁶goodness and righteousness and truth), ²⁷10 ²⁸proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord; ²⁹11 and ³⁰have no fellowship with the unfruitful ³¹works of ³²darkness, but rather even ³³reprove them; ³⁴12 for the things which are done by them in secret it is a shame even to speak of. ³⁵13 But all things ³⁶when they are ³⁷reproved are made manifest by the light: for everything that is made manifest is light. ³⁸14 Wherefore ³⁹he saith, ⁴⁰15 Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from ⁴¹the dead, and Christ ⁴²shall shine upon thee.

15 Look therefore carefully how ye ¹⁶walk, not ¹⁷as unwise, but as wise; ¹⁸16 ¹⁹redeeming the time, because ²⁰the days are evil. ²¹17 Wherefore be ye not foolish, but ²²understand what the will of the

Domestic Duties : — Wives and Husbands, Children and Parents, Servants and Masters. "Put on the Armor of God"

Lord is. 18 And ^abe not drunken with wine, wherein is ^briot, but be ^cfilled ¹with the Spirit; 19 ^dspeaking ²one to another in ^epsalms and ^fhymns and spiritual ^gsongs, ^hsinging and making melody with your heart to the Lord; 20 ⁱgiving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to ^kGod, even the Father; 21 ^lsubmitting yourselves one to another in the ^mfear of Christ.

22 ⁿWives, ^obe in subjection unto your own husbands, ^pas unto the Lord. 23 For ^qthe husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the ^rhead of the church, ^sbeing himself ^tthe saviour of the body. 24 But as the church is subject to Christ, ^uso let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. 25 ^vHusbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and ^wgave himself up for it; 26 ^xthat he might sanctify it, having ^ycleansed it by the ^zwashing of water with ^{aa}the word, 27 that he might ^{ab}present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be ^{ac}holy and without blemish. 28 Even so ought husbands also to ^{ad}love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; 30 because we are ^{ae}members of his ^{af}body. 31 ^{ag}For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh. 32 This mystery is great; but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church. 33 Nevertheless do ye also severally ^{ah}love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she ^{ai}fear her husband.

6 ^{aj}Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. 2 ^{ak}Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), 3 that it may be well with thee, and thou ^{al}mayest live long on the ^{am}earth. 4 And, ye ^{an}fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^{ao}nurture them

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving and Supplication on the Readers' Behalf. "To live is Christ, to die is Gain"

1 ^aPaul and ^bTimothy, ^{1c}servants of ^aChrist Jesus, to ^eall the ^fsaints in Christ Jesus that are at ^gPhilippi, with the ^{2h}bishops and ⁱdeacons: 2 ^kGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ⁱI thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, 4 always ^min every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, 5 for your ⁿfellowship in furtherance of the ^{3o}gospel ^pfrom the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it until ^qthe day of Jesus Christ: 7 even as ^rit is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because ⁴ⁱI ^shave you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in ^tmy bonds and in the ^udefence and confirmation of the ^{3o}gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. 8 For ^vGod is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of ^aChrist Jesus. 9 And this I pray, that ^wyour love may abound yet more and more in ^xknowledge and all discernment; 10 so that ye may ^{5z}approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto ^athe day of Christ; 11 being filled with the ^{6a}fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me ^bhave fallen out rather unto the progress of the ^{3o}gospel; 13 so that ^cmy bonds became manifest in Christ ⁷throughout the whole prætorian guard, and to ^dall the rest; 14 and that most of the brethren in the Lord, ⁸being more in my absence, work out your own ^msalvation with ⁿfear and trembling; 13 for it is ^oGod who worketh in you both to will and to do, ^pfor his good pleasure. 14 Do all things without ^qmurmurings and questionings; 15 that ye may become ^rblameless and harmless, ^schildren of God without blemish in the midst of a ^tcrooked and perverse generation, among whom ye ^uare seen as ¹⁰lights in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in ^vthe day of Christ, that I did not ^wrun in vain neither ^xlabor in vain. 17 Yea, and if I am ^{11a}offered upon ^bthe sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy; and rejoice with you all: 18 and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to ^csend ^dTimothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. 20 For I have no man ^elikeminded, who will care ¹²truly for your state. 21 For they all ^fseek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But ye know ^gthe proof of him, that, ^has a child serveth a father, so ⁱhe served with me in furtherance of the ²gospel. 23 ^jHim therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: 24 but ^kI trust in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. 25 But I counted it necessary to send to you ^lEpaphroditus, my brother and ^mfellow-worker and ⁿfellow-soldier, and your ¹³ⁿmessenger and ^ominister to my need; 26 since he longed ¹⁴after you all, and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: 27 for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I

3 Finally, my brethren, ^erejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of the ^fdogs, beware of the ^gevil workers, beware of the concision: 3 for ^hwe are the circumcision, who ⁱworship by the Spirit of God, and ^jglory in ^kChrist Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh: 4 though ^mI myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man ⁿthinketh to have confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5 ^ocircumcised the eighth day, of the ^pstock of Israel, of the ^qtribe of Benjamin, a ^rHebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law, ^sa Pharisee; 6 as touching zeal, ^tpersecuting the church; as touching the ^urighteousness which is in the law, found ^vblameless. 7 Howbeit ^wwhat things were ^xgain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ. 8 Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the ^yknowledge of ^zChrist Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but ^{aa}refuse, that I may gain Christ, 9 and be found in him, ^{ab}not having ^{ac}a righteousness of mine own, ^{ad}even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, ^{ae}the righteousness which is from God ^{af}by faith: 10 that I may ^{ag}know him, and ^{ah}the power of his resurrection, and the ^{ai}fellowship of his sufferings, becoming ^{aj}conformed unto his death; 11 if by any means I may ^{ak}attain unto the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already ^{al}obtained, or am already ^{am}made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may ^{an}lay hold on that for which also I ^{ao}was laid

9 For this cause we also, ^{ag}since the day we heard ^{ah}it, ^{ai}do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the ^{aj}knowledge of his will in all spiritual ^{ak}wisdom and understanding, ^{al}10 to ^{am}walk worthily of the Lord ^{an}unto all ^{ao}pleasing, ^{ap}bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing ^{aq}in the knowledge of God; ^{ar}11 ^{as}strengthened ^{at}with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all ^{au}patience and ^{av}longsuffering with joy; ^{aw}12 giving thanks unto ^{ax}the Father, who made ^{ay}us meet to be partakers of ^{az}the inheritance of the saints in ^{ba}light; ^{bb}13 who delivered us out of the power of

13 And for this cause we also ^athank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us ^{2a}the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it ¹not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, ^gwhich also worketh in you that believe. 14 For ye, brethren, became ^himitators of ⁱthe churches of God which are ^kin Judæa in Christ Jesus: for ¹ye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, ^meven as they did of the Jews; 15 ⁿwho both killed the Lord Jesus and ^othe prophets, and drove out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all men; 16 ^pforbidding us to speak to the Gentiles ^qthat they may be saved; to ^rfill up their sins always: but the ^swrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for ^{3a}a short season, ⁱin presence not in heart, endeavored the more exceedingly ^uto see your face with great desire: 18 because ^vwe would fain have come unto you, I Paul ^xonce and again; and ^ySatan ^zhindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or ^ajoy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his ^{4b}coming? 20 For ye are ^cour glory and our joy.

3 Wherefore ^dwhen we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at ^eAthens alone; 2 and sent ^fTimothy, our brother and ^gGod's minister in the ^hgospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort ⁱyou concerning your faith; 3 that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that ^jhereunto we are appointed. 4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you ^kbeforehand that we are to suffer affliction; ^heven as it came to pass, and ye know. 5 For this cause I also, ^dwhen I could no longer forbear, ^lsent that I might know your faith, lest by any means ^kthe tempter had tempted you, and ^mour labor should be in vain. 6 But when ⁿTimothy came even also we ¹forewarned you and ^atestified. 7 For ^bGod called us not for ^cuncleanness, but in sanctification. 8 Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who ^agiveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

9 But concerning ^elove of the brethren ye ^fhave no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are ^gtaught of God to love one another; 10 for indeed ^hye do it toward all the brethren that are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye ⁱabound more and more; 11 and that ye ^jstudy ^kto be quiet, and to ^ldo your own business, and to ^mwork with your hands, even as we charged you; 12 that ye may ⁿwalk becomingly toward ^othem that are without, and may ^phave need of nothing.

13 But ^qwe would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that ^rfall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as ^sthe rest, who have ^tno hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, ^ueven so ^vthem also that are fallen asleep ^win Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say unto you ^xby the word of the Lord, that ^ywe that are alive, that are left unto ^zthe ^acoming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede ^bthem that are fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord ^chimself ^dshall descend from heaven, with ^ea shout, with the voice of ^fthe archangel, and with ^gthe trump of God: and ^hthe dead in Christ shall rise first; 17 then ⁱwe that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be ^jcaught up ^kin the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever ^lbe with the Lord. 18 Wherefore ^mcomfort one another with these words.

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Faith and Fidelity. The Lord's Coming to be preceded by the Lawless One

1 ^aPaul, and ^bSilvanus, and ^cTimothy, unto the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; 2 ^eGrace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

ren, ^kin the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye ^lwithdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh ^mdisorderly, and not after ⁿthe tradition which ^othey received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to ^pimitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we ^qeat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in ^rlabor and travail, ^sworking night and day, that we might not burden any of you: 9 not because we have not ^tthe right, but to make ourselves ^uan ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. 10 For even ^vwhen we were with you, this we commanded you, ^wIf any will not work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear of some that ^xwalk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are ^ybusybodies. 12 Now them that are such we command and ^zexhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with ^aquietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But ye, ^bbrethren, ^bbe not weary in well-doing. 14 And if any man obeyeth not our word by ^cthis epistle, note that man, that ye ^dhave no company with him, to the end that he may be ^eashamed. 15 And yet ^fcount him not as an enemy, but ^gadmonish him as a ^hbrother.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Salutation. Charge respecting Misuse of the Law. Personal Thanksgiving. The Charge reinforced

1 Paul, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^caccording to the commandment of ^dGod our Saviour, and ^eChrist Jesus our ^fhope; 2 unto ^gTimothy, ^hmy true child in faith: ⁱGrace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and ^jChrist Jesus our Lord.

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at ^kEphesus, when I was going into ^lMacedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not to ^mteach a different doctrine, 4 neither to give heed to ⁿfables and endless ^ogenealogies, which minister ^pquestionings, rather than ^qa ^rdispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. 5 But the end of the ^scharge is love ^tout of a pure heart and a ^ugood conscience and ^vfaith unfeigned: 6 from which things some having ^wswerved have turned aside unto ^xvain talking; 7 ^ydesiring to be ^zteachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. 8 But we know that ^{aa}the law is good, if a man use it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that ^{ab}law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and ^{ac}unruly, for the ^{ad}ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and ^{ae}profane, for ^{af}murderers of fathers and ^{ag}murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 ^{ah}for fornicators, for ^{ai}abusers of themselves with men, for ^{aj}men-stealers, for ^{ak}liars, for ^{al}false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to ^{am}the ^{an}sound doctrine; 11 according to ^{ao}the ^{ap}gospel of the glory of ^{aq}the blessed God, which was ^{ar}committed to my trust.

12 I thank him that ^{as}enabled me, even ^{at}Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, ^{au}appointing me to his service; 13 prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; 2 "for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. 3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of ^bGod our Saviour; 4 ^cwho would have all men to be ^dsaved, and ^ecome to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is ^fone God, ^gone mediator also between God and men, himself ^hman, Christ Jesus, 6 who ⁱgave himself a ransom for all; the ^jtestimony to be borne ^kin its own times; 7 ^mwhereunto I was appointed a ⁿpreacher and ^oan apostle (^pI speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of ^qthe Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I ^rdesire therefore that the men pray ^sin every place, ^tlifting up ^uholy hands, without wrath and ^vdisputing. 9 In like manner, that ^wwomen adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; 10 but (which becometh women professing godliness) through good works. 11 ^xLet a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12 ^yBut I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quietness. 13 ^zFor Adam was first formed, then Eve; 14 and Adam was not beguiled, but ^{aa}the woman being beguiled hath fallen into transgression: 15 but she shall be saved through ^{ab}her child-bearing, if they continue in ^{ac}faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3 ^{ad}Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the ^{ae}office of a ^{af}bishop, he desireth a good work. 2 ^{ag}The ^{ah}bishop therefore must be without reproach, ^{ai}the husband of one wife, ^{aj}temperate, sober-minded, orderly, ^{ak}given to hospitality, ^{al}apt to teach; 3 ^{am}no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, ^{an}no lover of money; 4 one that ^{ao}ruleth well his own house, having ^{ap}his children in subjection with all gravity; 5 (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of ^{aq}the church of God?) 6 not a novice, them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is ^aacceptable in the sight of God. ⁵Now she that is ^aa widow indeed, and desolate, ^rhath her hope set on God, and continueth in ^ssupplications and prayers night and day. ⁶But she that ^tgiveth herself to pleasure is ^udead while she liveth. ⁷These things also command, that they may be without reproach. ⁸But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath ^xdenied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. ⁹Let none be ^yenrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been ^zthe wife of one man, ¹⁰well reported of for ^agood works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath ^bused hospitality to strangers, if she ^bhath washed the saints' feet, if she hath ^crelieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. ¹¹But younger widows refuse: for when they have ^dwaxed wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; ¹²having condemnation, because they have rejected their first ^epledge. ¹³And withal they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but ^ftattlers also and ^gbusybodies, speaking ^hthings which they ought not. ¹⁴^hI desire therefore that the younger ⁱwidows ⁱmarry, bear children, ^krule the household, ^lgive no occasion to the adversary for reviling: ¹⁵for already some ^mare turned aside after ⁿSatan. ¹⁶If any woman that believeth ^ohath widows, let her ^orelieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are ^pwidows indeed.

shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, ^aThe laborer is worthy of his hire. 19 Against an ^belder receive not an accusation, except at the mouth of ^ctwo or three witnesses. 20 Them that sin ^dreprove in the sight of all, ^ethat the rest also may be in fear. 21 ^fI charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without ^gprejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 ^hLay hands hastily on no man, neither be ⁱpartaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but ^juse a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. 24 Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgment; and some men also they ^kfollow after. 25 In like manner also ^lthere are good works that are evident; and ^msuch as are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 ⁿLet as many as are ^oservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, ^pthat the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed. 2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are ^qbrethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that ^rpartake of the benefit are believing and beloved. ^sThese things teach and exhort.

3 If any man ^tteacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to ^usound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is ^vaccording to godliness; 4 he is ^wpuffed up, knowing nothing, but ^xdoting about ^yquestionings and ^zdisputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, ^{aa}evil surmising, 5 wranglings of ^{ab}men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, ^{ac}supposing that godliness is a way of gain. 6 ^{ad}But godliness with ^{ae}contentment ^{af}is great gain: 7 for ^{ag}we brought nothing into the world, for neither ^{ah}can we carry anything out; 8 but ^{ai}having food and covering ^{aj}we shall be there-with content. 9 ^{ak}But they that are minded to be rich fall into a temptation and ^{al}a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction and perdition. 10 For ^{am}the love of money is a ^{an}root of all ^{ao}kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been ^{ap}led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O ^{aq}man of God, ^{ar}flee these things; and follow after ^{as}righteousness, ^{at}godliness, ^{au}faith, ^{av}love, ^{aw}patience, meekness. 12 ^{ax}Fight the good fight of ^{ay}the faith, ^{az}lay hold on the life eternal, ^{ba}whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good ^{bb}confession in the sight of ^{bc}many witnesses. 13 ^{bd}I charge thee in the sight of God, who ^{be}giveth life to all things, and of ^{bf}Christ Jesus, who ^{bg}before Pontius Pilate witnessed ^{bh}the good confession; 14 that thou keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the ^{bi}appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: 15 which in ^{bj}its own times he shall show, who is ^{bk}the blessed and ^{bl}only Potentate, ^{bm}the ^{bn}King of ^{bo}12 kings, and ^{bp}Lord of ^{bq}13 lords; 16 ^{br}who only hath immortality, ^{bs}dwelling in light unapproachable; ^{bt}whom no man hath seen, nor can see: ^{bu}to whom ^{bv}be honor and power eternal. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in ^{bw}this present ^{bx}world, that they ^{by}be not highminded, nor ^{bz}have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, ^{ca}who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; 18 that they do good, that they be rich in ^{cb}good works, ^{cc}that they be ready to distribute, ^{cd}willing to communicate; 19 ^{ce}laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may ^{cf}lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Salutation. Timothy charged to stir up the Gift in him, and guard his Trust. Onesiphorus faithful amid Desertions

1 Paul, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^cthrough the will of God, according to the promise of ^athe life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to ^cTimothy, my beloved ^dchild: ^eGrace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 ^aI thank God, whom I ^eserve from my forefathers in a ^kpure conscience, ^fhow unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day 4 ^mlonging to see thee, ⁿremembering thy tears, that I may be filled with ^ljoy; 5 having been reminded of the ^ounfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and ^pthy mother Eunice; and, I am persuaded, in thee also. 6 For which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou ²stir up ^athe gift of God, which is in thee through the ^qlaying on of my hands. 7 For God gave us not ^aa spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and ³discipline. 8 ^aBe not ashamed therefore of ^ethe testimony of our Lord, nor of me ^uhis prisoner: but ^rsuffer hardship with the ⁴²gospel according to the power of God; 9 who ^ssaved us, and ^vcalled us with a holy ^acalling, ^bnot according to our works, but according to his own ^apurpose and grace, which was given us in ^aChrist Jesus ⁵before ^ttimes eternal, 10 but ^rhath now been manifested by the ^aappearing of our Saviour ^aChrist Jesus, who ^aabolished death, and brought life and ⁶immortality to light through the ^agospel, 11 ^awhereunto I was appointed a ⁷preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. 12 For which cause I suffer also these things: yet ^kI am not ashamed; for I know him crowned, except he have contended lawfully. 6 "The husbandman that laboreth must be the first to partake of the fruits. 7 Consider what I say; for the Lord shall give thee understanding in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, ^arisen from the dead, of ^athe seed of David, ^aaccording to my ¹gospel: 9 wherein I ^asuffer hardship unto ¹bonds, as a ^amalefactor; but ^athe word of God ^ais not bound. 10 Therefore ^aI endure all things for ¹the elect's sake, ^mthat they also may obtain the ^asalvation which is in ^aChrist Jesus with ^aeternal glory. 11 ^aFaithful is the ²saying: For ^aif we died with him, we shall also live with him: 12 if we endure, ^awe shall also reign with him: if we shall ^adeny him, he also will deny us: 13 if we are faithless, ^ahe abideth faithful; for ^ahe cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, ^acharging them in the sight of ³the Lord, that they ^astrive not about words, to no profit, to the subverting of them that hear. 15 Give diligence to ^apresent thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, ^ahandling aright ^athe word of truth. 16 But ^ashun ^aprofane babblings: for they will proceed further in ungodliness, 17 and their word will ^aeat as doth a gangrene: of whom is ^aHymenæus and Philetus; 18 men who concerning the truth have ^aerred, saying that ^athe resurrection is past already, and overthrow ^athe faith of some. 19 Howbeit the ^afirm foundation of God standeth, having this ^aseal, ^aThe Lord knoweth them that are his: and, ^aLet every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness. 20 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and ^asome unto honor, and some unto dishonor. 21 If a man therefore purge himself from ^mthese, he shall be a vessel

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

Salutation. Qualifications of an Elder. Disorderly Teachers to be reprov'd. Duties of the Aged, the Young, etc.

1 Paul, ^a a ¹ servant of God, and ^b an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of ^c God's elect, and ^d the knowledge of the truth which is ^e according to godliness, ² in ^f hope of eternal life, which God, ^g who cannot lie, ^h promised ² before ⁱ times eternal; ³ but in ³ ^k his own seasons manifested his word in ^l the ^m message, ⁿ wherewith I was intrusted ⁿ according to the commandment of ^o God our Saviour; ⁴ to ^p Titus, ^q my true child after ^r a common faith: ^s Grace and peace from God the Father and ^t Christ Jesus our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in ^u Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and ^v appoint ^w elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; ⁶ ^x if any man is blameless, the ^y husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of ^z riot or ^{aa} unruly. 7 For ^{ab} the ^{ac} bishop must be blameless, as ^{ad} God's steward; not ^{ae} self-willed, not soon angry, ^{af} no brawler, no striker, ^{ag} not greedy of filthy lucre; ^{ah} 8 but ^{ai} given to hospitality, ^{aj} a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled; ^{ak} 9 ^{al} holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in ^{am} the ^{an} sound ^{ao} doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

10 ^{ap} For there are many ^{aq} unruly men, ^{ar} vain talkers and deceivers, specially ^{as} they of the circumcision, ^{at} 11 whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole ^{au} houses, teaching ^{av} things which they ought not, ^{aw} for filthy lucre's sake. 12 ^{ax} One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, ^{ay} Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, idle ^{az} gluttons.

Intent of the Saviour's Self-sacrifice. Sundry further Injunctions. Directions respecting Individuals. Benediction

9 *Exhort*¹ ^aservants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying; 10 not purloining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of ^bGod our Saviour in all things. 11 For the grace of God ²hath ^cappeared, ^dbringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and ^eworldly lusts, ^fwe should live soberly and righteously and godly in ^gthis present ³world; 13 looking for the blessed hope and ^happearing of the glory ⁴of ⁱthe great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; 14 who ^kgave himself for us, ^lthat he might redeem us from all iniquity, and ^mpurify unto himself a ⁿpeople for his own possession, ^ozealous of good works.

15 These things speak and ^pexhort and ^qreprove with all ^rauthority. ^sLet no man despise thee.

3 ^tPut them in mind ^uto be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ^vready unto every good work, 2 to speak evil of no man, ^wnot to be contentious, ^xto be gentle, ^yshowing all meekness toward all men. 3 ^zFor we also once were foolish, ^{aa}disobedient, ^{ab}deceived, ^{ac}serving ^bdivers lusts and pleasures, living in ^cmalice and ^denvy, hateful, hating one another. 4 But when the ^ekindness of ^fGod our Saviour, and his love toward man, ^gappeared, 5 ^hnot by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but ⁱaccording to his mercy he ^jsaved us, through the ^kwashing of regeneration ^land ^mrenewing of the Holy Spirit, 6 ⁿwhich he poured out

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

Salutation. Thanksgiving for Philemon's Love and Fellowship. Onesimus no longer a Servant. Benediction

1 ^aPaul, ^ba prisoner of ^cChrist Jesus, and ^dTimothy ¹our brother, to Philemon our beloved and ^e fellow-worker, 2 and to Apphia ^{2f}our sister, and to ^gArchippus our ^h fellow-soldier, and to ⁱthe church in thy house: 3 ^kGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ¹I thank my God always, ^mmaking mention of thee in my prayers, 5 ⁿhearing of ³thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; 6 that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the ^oknowledge of every good thing which is in ⁴you, unto Christ. 7 For I had much ^pjoy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been ^qrefreshed through thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, ^rthough I have all boldness in Christ to enjoin thee that which is ^sbefitting, 9 yet for love's sake I rather ^tbeseech, being such a one as Paul ^uthe ^vaged, and now ^wa prisoner also of ^cChrist Jesus: 10 I ^tbeseech thee for my ^xchild, whom I have begotten in my bonds, ^{6y}Onesimus, 11 who once was unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me: 12 whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart: 13 whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he might minister unto me in the ^zbonds of the ⁷gospel: 14 but without thy mind I would do nothing;

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

God's Final Word spoken through his Son, who is superior to the Angels and more to be heeded

1 God, having of old time^a spoken unto the fathers in^b the prophets by divers portions and^c in divers manners, 2 hath^d at the end of these days^e spoken unto us in^f ^{1e}his Son, whom he appointed^g heir of all things, through whom also he made the ^{2h}worlds; 3 who being theⁱ effulgence of his glory, and^j the very^k image of his substance, and^l upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made^m purification of sins, ⁿsat down on the right hand of the^o Majesty on high; 4 having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent^p name than they. 5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time,

^qThou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee?
and again,

^rI will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son?
6 And when he again^s bringeth in the firstborn into^t the world he saith, ^uAnd let all the angels of God worship him. 7 And of the angels he saith,

^vWho maketh his angels winds,
And his ministers a flame of fire:
8 but of the Son^w he saith,
^xThy throne, O God, is for ever and ever;
And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of^y thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;
^zTherefore God, thy God, hath^{aa} anointed thee
With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

His Superiority to Moses emphasizes a Warning against Unbelief

5 For not unto angels did he subject ^{1a}the world to come, whereof we speak. 6 But one hath ^bsomewhere ^ctestified, saying, ²What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him ^{3a}a little lower than the angels;

Thou crownedst him with glory and honor,

8 ^aThou didst put all things in subjection under his feet.

For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now ^ewe see not yet all things subjected to him. 9 But we behold him who hath been ^fmade ^{3a}a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, ^gbecause of the suffering of death ^hcrowned with glory and honor, that ⁱby the grace of God he should ^ktaste of death ⁴for every man. 10 For ^mit became him, ⁿfor whom are all things, and ⁿthrough whom are all things, ^oin bringing many sons unto glory, to make the ^{6a}author of their salvation ^pperfect through sufferings. 11 For both he that ^{sanctifieth} and they that ^rare sanctified are all ^eof one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them ^qbrethren, 12 saying,

⁷I will declare thy name unto my brethren,

In the midst of the ⁸congregation will I sing thy praise.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, ⁹Behold, I and the children whom God hath given me. 14 Since then the children are sharers in ^{10a}flesh and blood, ^hhe also himself in like manner partook of the same; that ⁿthrough death he ¹¹might bring to nought ^hhim that ¹²had the power of death, that is, the devil; 15 and ¹¹might deliver all them who through ^rfear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 ¹³For verily not to angels doth he give help, but he giveth help to the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore it be-hooved him in all things ^ato be made like unto his brethren, that he might ^bbecome a merciful and faithful ^chigh priest in ^dthings pertaining to God, to ^emake propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 ¹⁴For ¹⁵in that he himself hath suffered being ^ftempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted.

3 Wherefore, ^gholy brethren, partakers of a ^hheavenly calling, consider ⁱthe Apostle and ^jHigh Priest of our ^kconfession, even Jesus; 2 who was faithful to him that ¹⁶appointed him, as also was ^lMoses in all ¹⁷his house. 3 ^mFor he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as he that ¹⁸built the house hath more honor than the house. 4 For every house is ¹⁸built by some one; but he that ¹⁹built all things is God. 5 And ⁱMoses indeed was faithful in all ¹⁷his house as ⁿa servant, ^ofor a testimony of those things ^pwhich were afterward to be spoken; 6 but Christ as ^qa son, over ¹⁷his house; ^rwhose house are we, ^sif we hold fast our ^tboldness and the ^uglorying of our ^vhope firm unto the end. 7 Wherefore, even as ^zthe Holy Spirit saith,

^{19g}To-day if ye shall hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, Like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness,

9 ²⁰Where your fathers tried me by proving me, And saw my works ^rforty years.

Only Believers enter into his Promised Rest. A divinely appointed High Priest made perfect through Suffering

12 ^aTake heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from ^bthe living God: 13 but ^cexhort one another day by day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of you be hardened by the ^ddeceitfulness of sin: 14 for we are become partakers ^eof Christ, ^fif we hold fast the beginning of our ^gconfidence firm unto the end: 15 while it is said,

²To-day if ye shall hear his voice,

Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For who, when they heard, did ^hprovoke? nay, ⁱdid not all they that came out of Egypt by Moses? 17 And with whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with them that sinned, ^jwhose ^kbodies fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom sware he ^lthat they should not enter into his rest, but to them that were ^mdisobedient? 19 And we see that they were not able to enter in because of ⁿunbelief.

4 Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem to have ^ocome short of it. 2 For indeed we have had ^pgood tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but ^qthe word of hearing did not profit them, because ^rit was not united by faith with them that heard. 3 ^sFor we who have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said, although the works were finished ^rfrom the foundation of the world.

⁷⁸^p As I sware in my wrath,

4 For he hath said ^ssomewhere of the seventh day on this wise,

¹⁰And God ^trested on the seventh day from all his works; 5 and in this place again,

¹³To-day if ye shall hear his voice, Harden not your hearts.

8 For ^dif ^eJoshua had given them rest, he would not have ^fspoken afterward of another day. 9 There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God. 10 For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also ^grested from his works, as ^hGod did from his. 11 Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall ¹⁵after the same ⁱexample of ^jdisobedience. 12 For ^kthe word of God is ^lliving, and ^mactive, and sharper than any two-edged ⁿsword, and piercing even to the dividing of ^osoul and ^pspirit, of both joints and marrow, and ^qquick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And ^rthere is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are ^snaked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Having then a great ^thigh priest, who hath ^upassed through the heavens, Jesus ^vthe Son of God, let us hold fast our ^wconfession. 15 For we have not ^xa high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points ^ytempted like as we are, yet ^zwithout sin. 16 Let us therefore ^{aa}draw near with ^{ab}boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

5 For every high priest, ^abeing taken from among men, is appointed for men in ^bthings pertaining to God, that he may ^coffer both gifts and sacrifices ^dfor sins: 2 ^ewho can bear gently with the ^fignorant and ^gerring, for that he himself also is ^hcompassed with infirmity; 3 and by reason thereof is bound, ⁱas for the people, so also for himself, to offer ^jfor sins. 4 And who have fled for refuge to lay hold of ^athe hope set before us: 19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, ^ahope both sure and steadfast and ^bentering into that which is within the veil; 20 ^cwhither as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become ^aa high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this ^aMelchizedek, king of Salem, priest of ^cGod Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, ²to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; ³without father, without mother, ⁴without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto ^bthe Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, the ^apatriarch, gave a tenth out of the chief spoils. 5 And they indeed of ^bthe sons of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham: 6 but he ^cwhose genealogy is not counted from them ^mhath taken tithes of Abraham, and ^mhath blessed him that ⁿhath the promises. 7 But without any dispute the less is blessed of the better. 8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there one, ^oof whom it is witnessed that he liveth. 9 And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes; 10 for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

11 ^pNow if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it ^qhath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise ^rafter the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. 13 For ^she of whom ^tthese things are said ¹belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord hath ^usprung out of Judah; as to which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. 15 And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, 16 who hath been made, not after the law of a ^acarnal commandment, but after the power of ^aan ²endless life: 17 for it is witnessed of him,

After the order of Melchizedek.

18 For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment ^abecause of its weakness and unprofitableness 19 (for ^athe law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better ^bhope, through which we ^cdraw nigh unto God. 20 And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of an oath 21 (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath ^dby him that saith ^eof him, Thou art a priest ^cfor ever);

⁶ The Lord sware and ^awill not repent himself,

22 by so much also hath Jesus become the ^asurety of ^aa better covenant. 23 And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing: 24 but he, because he abideth ^cfor ever, ^dhath his priesthood ^eunchangeable. 25 Wherefore also he is able to ^fsave ^gto the uttermost them that ^hdraw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to ⁱmake intercession for them.

26 For such a ^ahigh priest became us, ^mholy, ⁿguileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and ^omade higher than the heavens; 27 who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to ^poffer up sacrifices, ^qfirst for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people: for this he did ^ronce for all, when he ^soffered up himself. 28 For the law appointeth men high priests, ^thaving infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth ^ua Son, ^vperfected for evermore.

is this: We have such a ^ahigh priest, who sat down on ^bthe right hand of the throne of the ^cMajesty in the heavens, 2 a ^dminister of ^ethe sanctuary, and of the ^ftrue tabernacle, which the Lord ^gpitched, not man. 3 For every ^hhigh priest is appointed ⁱto offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this ^jhigh priest also have somewhat to offer. 4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who ^koffer the gifts according to the law; 5 who serve that ^lwhich is ^ma copy and ⁿshadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is ^owarned of God when he is about to ^pmake the tabernacle: for, ^qSee, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was showed thee in the mount. 6 But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by so much as he is also the ^rmediator of ^sa better covenant, which hath been enacted upon better promises. 7 For ^tif that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for a second. 8 For ^ua finding fault with them, he saith, 11 But Christ having come a ^bhigh priest of ^cthe ^dgood things to come, through ^ethe greater and more perfect tabernacle, ^fnot made with hands, that is to say, ^gnot of this creation, ^h12 nor yet through ⁱthe blood of goats and calves, but ^jthrough his own blood, ^kentered in ^lonce for all into the holy place, having obtained ^meternal redemption. 13 For if ⁿthe blood of goats and bulls, and ^othe ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: 14 how much more shall ^pthe blood of Christ, who through ^qthe eternal Spirit ^roffered himself without blemish unto God, ^scleanse ^tyour conscience from ^udead works to serve ^vthe living God? 15 And for this cause ^whe is the ^xmediator of a ^ynew ^zcovenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first ^{aa}covenant, they that have been ^{ab}called may ^{ac}receive the promise of ^{ad}the eternal inheritance. 16 For where a ^{ae}testament is, there must of necessity ^{af}be the death of him that made it. 17 For a ^{ag}testament is of force ^{ah}where there hath been death: ^{ai}for it doth never avail while he that made it liveth. 18 Wherefore even the first ^{aj}covenant hath not been dedicated without blood. 19 For when every commandment had been ^{ak}spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, ^{al}he took the ^{am}blood of the calves and the goats, with ^{an}water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both ^{ao}the book itself and all the people, ^{ap}20 saying, ^{aq}This is the blood of the ^{ar}covenant which God commanded to youward. 21 Moreover ^{as}the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with the blood. 22 And according to the law, I may ^{at}almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and ^{au}apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.

with Isaac and Jacob, ^ethe heirs with him of the same promise: 10 for he looked for ^fthe city which hath ^gthe foundations, ^hwhose ¹³builder and maker is God. 11 By faith even ⁱSarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him ^jfaithful who had promised: 12 wherefore also there sprang of one, and ^khim as good as dead, ^mso many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea-shore, innumerable.

13 ⁿThese all died ¹³in faith, ^onot having received the promises, but ^phaving seen them and greeted them from afar, and having ^qconfessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. 15 And if indeed they had been mindful of that ^rcountry from which they went out, ^sthey would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they desire a better ^tcountry, that is, a ^uheavenly: wherefore ^vGod is not ashamed of them, to be ^wcalled their God; for ^xhe hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^yAbraham, being tried, ¹⁴offered up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly ^zreceived the promises was offering up his only begotten son; 18 ^{even he} ¹⁵to whom it was said, ^{16z}In Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19 accounting that ^aGod is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a ^bfigure receive him back. 20 By faith ^cIsaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith ^dJacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and ^eworshipped, ^fleaning upon the top of his staff. 22 By faith ^gJoseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. 23 By faith ^hMoses,

Past Triumphs should be Present Incitements. The Heavenly Father's Chastening Fruitful

when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the ^aking's commandment. 24 By faith Moses, ^bwhen he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; 25 choosing rather to ^cshare ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; 26 ^daccounting the reproach of ^eChrist greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto the ^frecompense of reward. 27 By faith he ^gforsook Egypt, not ^hfearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as ⁱseeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith he ^jkept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that ^kthe destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith they ^lpassed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. 30 By faith ^mthe walls of Jericho fell down, ⁿafter they had been compassed about for seven days. 31 By faith ^oRahab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of ^pGideon, ^qBarak, ^rSamson, ^sJephthah; of ^tDavid and ^uSamuel and the prophets: 33 who through faith ^vsubdued kingdoms, ^wwrought righteousness, ^xobtained promises, ^ystopped the mouths of lions, 34 ^zquenched the power of fire, ^{aa}escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, ^{ab}waxed mighty in war, ^{ac}turned to flight armies of aliens. 35 ^{ad}Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were ^{ae}tortured, not accepting ^{af}their deliverance; ^{ag}that they might obtain a better resurrection: 36 and others had trial of ^{ah}mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of ^{ai}bonds and imprisonment: 37 they were ^{aj}stoned, they were ^{ak}sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were ^{al}slain with the sword: they went about ^{am}in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, ^{an}ill-treated 38 (of whom the world was not worthy), ^{ao}wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth. 39 And these all, having ^{ap}had witness borne to them through their faith, ^{aq}received not the promise, 40 God having ^{ar}provided ^{as}some better thing concerning us, that ^{at}apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore let ^{au}us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, ^{av}lay aside every ^{aw}weight, and the sin which ^{ax}doth so easily beset us, and let us ^{ay}run with ^{az}patience the race that is set before us, 2 looking unto Jesus the ^{ba}author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him ^{bb}endured the cross, ^{bc}despising shame, and hath ^{bd}sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For ^{be}consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against ^{bf}himself, that ye wax not weary, ^{bg}fainting in your souls. 4 ^{bh}Ye have not yet resisted ^{bi}unto blood, striving against sin: 5 and ye have forgotten the exhortation which reasoneth with you as with sons,

^{bj}My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord, Nor ^{bk}faint when thou art reproved of him;

6 For ^{bl}whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 ^{bm}It is for chastening that ye endure; ^{bn}God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father chasteneth not? 8 But if ye are without chastening, ^{bo}whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. 9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we ^{bp}gave them

Warning from Esau's Case. The Christian's Privileges and Obligations. Social and Religious Duties enjoined

reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto ^athe Father of ¹spirits, and ^blive? 10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, ^cthat we may be partakers of his holiness. 11 All chastening seemeth ^dfor the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yieldeth ^epeaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the fruit of righteousness. 12 Wherefore ^flift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied knees; 13 and ^gmake straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame be not ^hturned out of the way, but rather ⁱbe healed.

14 ^jFollow after peace with all men, and the ^ksanctification without which no man shall ^lsee the Lord: 15 looking carefully ^mlest there be any man that ⁿfalleth short of the grace of God; lest any ^oroot of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the many be ^pdefiled; 16 ^qlest there be any ^rfornicator, or ^sprofane person, as Esau, ^twho for one mess of meat sold his own birthright. 17 For ye know that even ^uwhen he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was ^vrejected; for he found no place for a change of mind in his father, though he sought it diligently with tears.

18 ^wFor ye are not come unto ^xa mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, 19 and the ^ysound of a trumpet, and the ^zvoice of words; which ^{aa}voice they that heard ^{ab}entreated that no word more should be spoken unto them; 20 for they could not endure that which was enjoined, ^{ac}If even a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned; 21 and so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, ^{ad}I exceedingly fear and quake: 22 but ^{ae}ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto ^{af}the city of ^{ag}the living God, ^{ah}the heavenly Jerusalem, ^{ai}and to ^{aj}innumerable hosts of angels,

Prayers and other Matters Personal. Salutation. Benediction

6 So that with good courage we say,

¹The Lord is my helper; I will not fear:

What shall man do unto me?

7 Remember ^athem that had the rule over you, men that spake unto you ^bthe word of God; and considering ^cthe issue of their ²life, ^dimitate their faith. 8 ^eJesus Christ is the same yesterday and to-day, ^fyea, and ³for ever. 9 ^gBe not carried away by divers and strange teachings: for it is good that the heart ^hbe established by grace; not by ⁱmeats, ^jwherein they that ^koccupied themselves were not profited. 10 We have an altar, ^lwhereof they have no right to eat that ^mserve the tabernacle. 11 For ⁿthe bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy place ^oby the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned without the camp. 12 Wherefore Jesus also, ^pthat he might sanctify the people ^qthrough his own blood, suffered ^rwithout the gate. 13 Let us therefore go forth unto him without the camp, ^sbearing his reproach. 14 For ^twe have not here an abiding city, but we seek after ^uthe city which is to come. 15 ^vThrough him ^wthen let us offer up a ^xsacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, ^ythe fruit of lips which make confession to his name. 16 But to do good and to ^zcommunicate forget not: for ^{aa}with such sacrifices God is well pleased. 17 Obey ^{ab}them that have the rule over you, and submit ^{ac}to them: for ^{ad}they watch in behalf of your souls, as they that

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

Address and Greeting. Pray in Faith. Rejoice in Lowliness. Temptation not from God. Be Doers of the Word

1 ^{1a} James, a ^{2b} servant of God and ^c of the Lord Jesus Christ, to ^d the twelve tribes which are of ^e the Dispersion, ^{3f} greeting.

2 ^g Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into ^h manifold ⁱ temptations; 3 knowing that ^j the proving of your ^k faith worketh ^l patience. 4 And let ^m patience have its perfect work, that ye may be ⁿ perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you ^o lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and ^p upbraideth not; and ^q it shall be given him. 6 But let him ^r ask in faith, ^s nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the surge of the sea ^t driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For let not that man think ^u that he shall receive anything of the Lord; 8 a ^v double-minded man, ^w unstable in all his ways.

9 ^x But let the brother of low degree glory in his high estate: 10 and the rich, in that he is made low: because ^y as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. 11 For the sun ariseth with ^z the scorching wind, and ^{aa} withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

12 ^{ab} Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been approved, he shall receive ^{ac} the crown of life, which the Lord ^{ad} promised to them that ^{ae} love him. 13 Let no man say when he is tempted, ^{af} I am tempted ^{ag} of God; for God ^{ah} cannot be tempted with ^{ai} evil, and he himself tempteth no man: 14 but each man is ^{aj} tempted,

19 ^{av} Ye know this, ^{aw} my beloved brethren. But let every man be ^{ax} swift to hear, ^{ay} slow to speak, ^{az} slow to wrath: 20 for ^{ba} the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. 21 Wherefore ^{bb} putting away all filthiness and overflowing of ^{bc} wickedness, receive with meekness ^{bd} the ^{be} implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 ^{bf} But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves. 23 For if any one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding ^{bg} his natural face ^{bh} in a mirror: 24 for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. 25 But he that looketh into the perfect law, ^{bi} the law of liberty, and ^{bj} so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth but a doer that worketh, this man shall be ^a blessed in his doing. 26 If any man ¹ thinketh himself to be religious, while he ^b bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion is vain. 27 Pure religion and undefiled ^c before our God and Father is this, to ^d visit ^e the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unspotted from ^f the world.

2 ^g My brethren, ^h hold not ⁱ the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^j the Lord of glory, with ^k respect of persons. 2 For if there come into your ^l synagogue a man with a gold ring, in ^m fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in ⁿ vile clothing; 3 and ye have regard to him that wareth the ^o fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; 4 ^p do ye not make distinctions ^q among yourselves, and become judges ^r with evil thoughts? 5 Hearken, ^s my beloved brethren; did not ^t God choose them that are poor as to the world to be ^u rich in faith, and ^v heirs of the kingdom which he ^w promised to them that love him? 6 But ye have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves ^x drag you before the judgment-seats? 7 ^y Do not they blaspheme the honorable name ^z by which ye are called? 8 Howbeit if ye ^{aa} fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, ^{ab} Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well: 9 but if ye have ^{ac} respect of persons, ye commit sin, being ^{ad} convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet ^{ae} stumble in one point, he is become ^{af} guilty of all. 11 For he that said, ^{ag} Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by ^{ah} a law of liberty. 13 For ^{ai} judgment is without mercy to him that hath showed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgment.

^a when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is ¹ acceptable with God. 21 For ^b hereunto were ye called : ^c because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you ^d an example, that ye should follow his steps : 22 who ^e did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth : 23 who, when he was ^f reviled, reviled not again ; when he suffered, threatened not ; but committed ^g himself to him that judgeth righteously : 24 who his own self ^h bare our sins in his body upon ⁱ the tree, that we, ^j having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness ; ^k by whose ^l stripes ye were ^m healed. 25 For ye were ⁿ going astray like sheep ; but are now returned unto the ^o Shepherd and ^p Bishop of your souls.

3 ^q In like manner, ye wives, ^r be in subjection to your own husbands ; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word ^s be gained by the ^t behavior of their wives ; 2 beholding your chaste ^u behavior coupled with fear. 3 ^v Whose adorning let it not be the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel ; 4 but let it be ^w the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 5 For after this manner aforetime the holy women also, ^x who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own ^y husbands ; 6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, ^z calling him lord : whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not ^{aa} put in fear by any terror.

7 ^{ab} Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor ^{ac} unto the woman, as unto the weaker ^{ad} vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life ; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, ^{ae} be ye all likeminded, ^{af} compassionate, ^{ag} loving as brethren, ^{ah} tenderhearted, ^{ai} humble-minded : 9 ^{aj} not rendering evil for evil, or ^{ak} reviling for reviling ; but insomuch as ye are ¹partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the ²revelation of his glory also ³ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. 14 If ye are reproached ⁴for ⁵the name of Christ, ⁶blessed are ye; ⁷because the ⁸Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God resteth upon you. 15 For ⁹let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as ¹⁰a meddler in other men's matters: 16 but if ¹¹a man suffer as a ¹²Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him ¹³glorify God in this name. 17 For the time ¹⁴is come for judgment ¹⁵to begin at ¹⁶the house of God; and if ¹⁷it begin ¹⁸first at us, what ¹⁹shall be the end of them ²⁰that obey not the ²¹gospel of God? 18 And ²²if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall the ²³ungodly and sinner appear? 19 Wherefore let them also that suffer according to ²⁴the will of God commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

5 ¹The elders therefore among you I exhort, who am a ²fellow-elder, and a ³witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also ⁴a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: 2 Tend ⁵the flock of God which is among you, ⁶exercising the oversight, ⁷not of constraint, but willingly, ⁸according to ⁹the will of God; ¹⁰nor yet for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; 3 neither as ¹¹lording it over the charge allotted to you, but making yourselves ¹²ensamples to the flock. 4 And when the chief ¹³Shepherd shall be manifested, ye shall receive the ¹⁴crown of glory that ¹⁵fadeth not away. 5 ¹⁶Likewise, ye ¹⁷younger, ¹⁸be subject unto the elder. Yea, all of you gird your-

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

Address and Salutation. "Be not idle nor unfruitful." "We were Eyewitnesses of his Majesty"

1 ¹ Simon Peter, a ^{2a} servant and ^a apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained ^{3a} a ^c like precious faith with us in ^a the righteousness of ^{4c} our God and the Saviour Jesus Christ: 2 ¹ Grace to you and peace be multiplied in ⁹ the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; 3 seeing that his ^b divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the ⁹ knowledge of him that ^c called us ^b by his own glory and virtue; 4 whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great ^k promises; that through these ye may become ¹ partakers of ⁶ the divine nature, having ^m escaped from the ⁿ corruption that is in ^o the world by lust. 5 Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith ^p supply ^q virtue; and in your virtue ^r knowledge; 6 and in your knowledge ^s self-control; and in your self-control ^t patience; and in your ^u patience ^v godliness; 7 and in your godliness ^w brotherly kindness; and in your ^x brotherly kindness love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor ^y unfruitful unto ^z the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he that lacketh these things is ¹ blind, ² seeing only what is near, having forgotten the ³ cleansing from his old sins. 10 Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your ⁴ calling and ⁵ election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never ⁶ stumble: 11 for thus shall be ⁷ richly ⁸ supplied unto you the entrance into ⁹ the eternal kingdom of our ¹⁰ Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

False Teachers and Bondservants of Corruption warned against

2 But there arose ^afalse prophets also among the people, as ^bamong you also there shall be ^cfalse teachers, who shall ^dprivily bring in ^edestructive heresies, ^fdenying even the ^gMaster that ^hbought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many shall follow their ⁱlascivious doings; by reason of whom ^kthe way of the truth shall be ^levil spoken of. 3 And in ^mcovetousness shall they with ⁿfeigned words ^omake merchandise of you: ^pwhose sentence now from of old lingereth not, and their destruction slumbereth not. 4 For ^qif God spared not angels when they sinned, but ^rcast them down to ^shell, and ^tcommitted them to ^upits of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; 5 and spared not ^vthe ancient world, but preserved ^wNoah with seven others, ^xa preacher of righteousness, when he brought a ^yflood upon the world of the ungodly; 6 and ^zturning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, having made them an ^{aa}example unto those that should ^{ab}live ungodly; 7 and ^{ac}delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the ^{ad}lascivious life of ^{ae}the wicked 8 (for that ^{af}righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, ^{ag}vexed ^{ah}his righteous soul from day to day with ^{ai}their lawless deeds): 9 ^{aj}the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment unto ^{ak}the day of judgment; 10 but chiefly them that ^{al}walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and ^{am}despise dominion. Mockers and their Destiny. "The Day of the Lord will come as a Thief." Exhortation to Steadfastness. Doxology

3 This is now, ^abeloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I ^bstir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; 2 that ye should ^cremember the words which were spoken before by ^dthe holy prophets, and ^ethe commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: 3 ^fknowing this first, that ^gin the last days ^hmockers shall come with mockery, ⁱwalking after their own lusts, 4 and saying, ^jWhere is the promise of his ^kcoming? for, from the day that the fathers ^lfell asleep, all things continue as they were ^mfrom the beginning of the creation. 5 For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth ⁿcompacted out of water and ^oamidst water, ^pby the word of God; 6 by which means ^qthe world that then was, being overflowed with water, ^rperished: 7 but ^sthe heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been ^tstored up for ^ufire, being reserved against ^vthe day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8 But forget not this one thing, ^wbeloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and ^xa thousand years as one day. 9 ^yThe Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but ^zis longsuffering to you-ward, ^{aa}not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But ^{ab}the day of the Lord ^{ac}will come as a thief; in the which ^{ad}the heavens ^{ae}shall pass away with a great noise, and the ^{af}elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and ^{ag}the earth and the works that are therein shall be ^{ah}burned up. 11 Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in ^{ab}all holy living and godliness, ^{ac}looking for and ^{ad}earnestly desiring the ^{ae}coming of the day of God, by reason of which ^{af}the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the ^{ag}elements shall melt with fervent heat? 13 But, according to his ^{ah}promise, we look for ^{ai}new heavens and a new earth, ^{aj}wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 ^{ak}Wherefore, ^{al}beloved; seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be ^{am}found in peace, ^{an}without spot and blameless in his sight. 15 And account that the ^{ao}longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as ^{ap}our beloved brother Paul also, ^{aq}according to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; 16 as also in all ^{ar}his epistles, speaking in them of ^{as}these things; ^{at}wherein are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and ^{au}unstedfast wrest, as ^{av}they do also ^{aw}the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. 17 Ye therefore, ^{ax}beloved, knowing ^{ay}these things beforehand, ^{az}beware lest, being carried away with ^{ba}the error of ^{bb}the wicked, ye ^{bc}fall from your own steadfastness. 18 But grow in the grace and ^{bd}knowledge of our ^{be}Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. ^{bf}To him ^{bg}be the glory both now and ^{bh}for ever. THE FIRST EPISTLE OF JOHN

Introduction. "Walk in the Light . . . even as He walked." The Contrasted Darkness

1 That which was ^afrom the beginning, that which we have ^bheard, that which we have ^cseen with our eyes, that which we ^dbeheld, and our hands ^ehandled, concerning the ^fWord of life ^g2 (and ^hthe life was manifested, and we have ⁱseen, and ^jbear witness, and declare unto you the life, ^kthe eternal life, which was ^lwith the Father, and was ^mmanifested unto us); 3 that which we have ⁿseen and ^oheard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our ^pfellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: 4 and ^qthese things we write, that ^rour ^sjoy may be made full.

5 And ^tthis is the message which we have heard from him and announce unto you, that ^uGod is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6 ^vIf we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we ^wlie, and ^xdo not the truth: 7 but if we ^ywalk in the light, as ^zhe is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and ^{aa}the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. 8 ^{ab}If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the ^{ac}truth is not in us. 9 ^{ad}If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and ^{ae}to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 ^{af}If we say that we have not sinned, we ^{ag}make him a liar, and ^{ah}his word is not in us.

2 ^{ai}My little children, ^{aj}these things write I unto you that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, ^{ak}we have an ^{al}Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: 2 and he is ^{am}the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also ^{an}for the whole world. 3 And ^{ao}hereby we know that we ^{ap}know him, if we ^{aq}keep his commandments. 4 He that saith, ^{ar}"I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a ^{as}liar, and ^{at}the truth is not in him; 5 but whoso ^{au}keepeth his word, in him verily hath the ^{av}love of God been perfected. ^{aw}Hereby we know that we are in him: 6 he that saith he ^{ax}abideth in him ^{ay}ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

7 ^{az}Beloved, ^{ba}no new commandment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had ^{bb}from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye heard. 8 Again, ^{bc}a new commandment write I unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; because ^{bd}the darkness is passing away, and ^{be}the true light already shineth. 9 He that saith he is in the light and ^{bf}hateth his ^{bg}brother, is in the darkness even until now. 10 ^{bh}He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him. 11 But he that ^{bi}hateth his brother is in the darkness, and ^{bj}walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath ^{bk}blinded his eyes.

abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. 10 In this the ^achildren of God are manifest, and the ^bchildren of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that ^cloveth not his ^abrother. 11 ^eFor this is the message ^fwhich ye heard from the beginning, ^gthat we should love one another: 12 not as ^hCain was of ⁱthe evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because ^jhis works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, brethren, if ^kthe world hateth you. 14 We know that we have ^lpassed out of death into life, ^mbecause we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death. 15 Whosoever ⁿhateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that ^ono murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 16 Hereby know we love, because ^phe laid down his life for us: and ^qwe ought to lay down our lives for the ^rbrethren. 17 But ^swhoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and ^tshut-teth up his compassion from him, ^uhow doth the love of God abide in him? 18 ^vMy ^wlittle children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and ^xtruth. 19 Hereby shall we know that we are ^yof the truth, and shall ^zassure our heart ^{aa}before him: 20 because if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 ^{ab}Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we have ^{ac}boldness toward God; 22 and ^{ad}whatsoever we ask we receive of him, because we ^{ae}keep his commandments and do ^{af}the things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should ^{ag}believe in ^{ah}the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as ^{ai}he gave us commandment. 24 And he that ^{aj}keepeth his commandments ^{ak}abideth in him, and he in him. THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

General Salutation. "Contend earnestly for the Faith." The Warnings of History to the Ungodly

1¹ Jude, a ²servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of ³James, ⁴to them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and ⁵kept for Jesus Christ: 2⁶ Mercy unto you and peace and love ⁷be multiplied.

3⁸ Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our ⁹common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to ¹⁰contend earnestly for ¹¹the faith which was once for all ¹²delivered unto ¹³the saints. 4 For there are certain men ¹⁴crept in privily, even they who were of old ¹⁵written of beforehand unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning ¹⁶the grace of our God into ¹⁷lasciviousness, and ¹⁸denying ¹⁹our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to ²⁰put you in remembrance, though ²¹ye know all things once for all, that ²²the Lord, ²³having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, ²⁴afterward destroyed them that believed not. 6 And ²⁵angels that kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath ²⁶kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. 7 Even as ²⁷Sodom and Gomorrah, and the ²⁸cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication and ²⁹gone after strange flesh, are set forth ³⁰as an ³¹example, suffering the ³²punishment of eternal fire. 8 Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings ³³defile the flesh, and ³⁴set at nought dominion, and ³⁵rail at ³⁶dignities. 9 But ³⁷Michael ³⁸the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about ³⁹the body of

Message to the Church in Ephesus ; to the Church in Smyrna ; to the Church in Pergamum ; to the Church in Thyatira ;

* the keys of death and of Hades. 19 ^a Write therefore ^c the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the things which shall come to pass ^a hereafter ; 20 the ^c mystery of the ^c seven stars which thou sawest ¹ in my right hand, and the ^c seven golden ² candlesticks. The ^c seven stars are the angels of ^a the seven churches : and the seven ² candlesticks are seven churches.

2 ^a To the angel of the church in ^a Ephesus write :

These things saith he that holdeth ¹ the seven stars in his right hand, he that walketh ^m in the midst of the seven golden ² candlesticks : 2 ⁿ I know thy works, and thy toil and ³ patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and didst ^c try them that call themselves ^p apostles, and they are not, and didst find them false ; 3 and thou hast ³ patience and didst bear ^a for my name's sake, and hast not grown weary. 4 But I have this against thee, that thou didst ^c leave thy first love. 5 Remember therefore whence thou art fallen, and ^c repent and ^c do the first works ; or else I come to thee, and will move thy ⁴ candlestick out of its place, except thou repent. 6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the ⁿ Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 ^a He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. ^b To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of ^a the tree of life, which is in the ⁵ Paradise of God.

8 And to the angel of the church in ^a Smyrna write :

These things saith ^c the first and the last, who ⁶ was dead, and lived again : 9 I know thy ^c tribulation, and thy ^j poverty (but thou art ^j rich), and the ⁷ blasphemy of them that ^a say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of ^a Satan. 10 Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer : behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be ⁱ tried ; ^a and ye shall have ⁹ tribulation ^k ten days. Be thou ^j faithful unto death, and I will give thee ^m the crown of life. 11 ^a He

These things saith he that hath ^a the sharp two-edged sword : 13 I know where thou dwellest, even where ^a Satan's throne is ; and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny ^a my faith, even in the days ¹⁰ of Antipas my ^c witness, my ^j faithful one, who was killed among you, ^c where Satan dwelleth. 14 But ^a I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there some that hold the ^c teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, ^c to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication. 15 So hast thou also some that hold the teaching of the ⁿ Nicolaitans in like manner. 16 ^a Repent therefore ; or else ^a I come to thee quickly, and I will make war against them with ^c the sword of my mouth. 17 ^a He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. ^c To him that overcometh, to him will I give of the hidden ^a manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a ^c new name written, ^j which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it.

These things saith ^a the Son of God, ^a who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like unto burnished brass : 19 ^a I know thy works, and thy love and faith and ministry and ³ patience, and that thy last works are more than the first. 20 But ^a I have this against thee, that thou sufferest ¹¹ the woman ^m Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess ; and she teacheth and seduceth my ¹² servants ^c to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed to idols.

thou wert cold or hot. 16 So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth. 17 Because thou sayest, ^a I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked: 18 I counsel thee to ^b buy of me ^c gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and ^d white garments, that thou mayest clothe thyself, and ^e that ^f the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see. 19 ^g As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and ^h repent. 20 Behold, I stand ⁱ at the door and ^j knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, ^k I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. 21 ^l He that overcometh, I will give to him ^m to sit down with me in my throne, as ⁿ I also overcame, and sat down with my Father in his throne. 22 ^o He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown; and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, Come. 4 And another horse came forth, a red horse: and to him that sat thereon it was given to take peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come. And I saw, and behold, a black horse; and he that sat thereon had a balance in his hand. 6 And I heard as it were a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, A measure of wheat for a shilling, and three measures of barley for a shilling; and the oil and the wine hurt thou not.

7 And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, Come. 8 And I saw, and behold, a pale horse: and he that sat upon him, his name was Death; and Hades followed with him. And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with death, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: 10 and they cried with a great voice, saying, How long, O Master, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? 11 And there was given them to each one a white robe; and it was said unto them, that they should ^arest yet for a little time, ^buntil their fellow-servants also and their brethren, who should be killed even as they were, should ¹have ^cfulfilled their course.

12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great ^aearthquake; and ^ethe sun became black as ^fsackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; 13 and ^gthe stars of the heaven fell unto the earth, ^has a fig tree casteth her unripe figs when she is shaken of a great wind. 14 And ⁱthe heaven was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and ^jevery mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 And ^kthe kings of the earth, and the princes, and the ^lchief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they ^msay to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him ⁿthat sitteth on the throne, and from the ^owrath of the Lamb: 17 for ^pthe great day of their wrath is come; and ^qwho is able to stand?

7 After this I saw ^rfour angels standing at the ^sfour corners of the earth, holding ^tthe four winds of the earth, ^uthat no wind should blow on the earth, or on the sea, or upon any tree. 2 And I saw another angel ascend ^vfrom the sunrising, having the ^wseal of ^xthe living God: and he cried with a great voice to the ^yfour angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, 3 saying, ^zHurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall have ^asealed the ^bservants of our God on their ^cforeheads. 4 And I heard the ^dnumber of them that were sealed, ^ea hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:

8 And when he opened the ^fseventh seal, there followed a ^gsilence in heaven about the space of half an hour. 2 And I saw ^hthe seven angels that stand before God; and there were given unto them seven ⁱtrumpets.

3 And ^kanother angel came and stood ^lover the ^maltar, having a ⁿgolden censer; and there was given unto ^ohim much ^pincense, that he should ^qadd it unto the ^rprayers of all the saints upon the ^sgolden altar which was before the throne. 4 And ^tthe smoke of the incense, ^uwith the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 And the angel ^vtaketh the censer; and he ^wfilled it with the fire of the altar, and ^xcast it ^yupon the earth: and there followed ^zthunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an ^{aa}earthquake.

6 And the seven angels that had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 And the first sounded, and there followed ^{ab}hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast ^{ac}upon the earth: and ^{ad}the third part of the earth was burnt up, and ^{ae}the third part of the ^{af}trees was burnt up, and all green ^{ag}grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great ^{ah}mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and ^{ai}the third part of the ^{aj}sea became blood; 9 and there died ^{ak}the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, ^{al}even they that had life; and the third part of the ^{am}ships was destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there ^{an}fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the ^{ao}third part of the rivers, and upon the ^{ap}fountains of the waters; 11 and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard ^aa voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 one saying to the sixth angel that had the trumpet, Loose the four angels that are bound at the great river Euphrates. 15 And the four angels were loosed, that had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the third part of men. 16 And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ^bten thousand times ten thousand: ^cI heard the number of them. 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses are as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and brimstone. 18 By these three plagues was the third part of men killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with them they hurt. 20 And the rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk: 21 and they repented not of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

The Fate of the City and the Temple. The "Two Witnesses." The Seventh Angel sounds. The Woman, the Dragon,

^a one said, Rise, and measure the ¹ temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. ² And the ^b court which is without the ¹ temple ² leave without, and measure it not; for ^c it hath been given unto the ³ nations: and ^a the holy city shall they ^c tread under foot ⁴ forty and two months. ³ And I will give unto my two ^d witnesses, and they shall prophesy a ⁷ thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in ^e sackcloth. ⁴ These are the ⁴ two olive trees and the two ⁴ candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the earth. ⁵ And if any man desireth to hurt them, ^k fire proceedeth out of their mouth and devoureth their enemies; and if any man shall desire to hurt them, ⁱ in this manner must he be killed. ⁶ These have the power to ^m shut the heaven, that it rain not during ⁿ the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to ^o turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they shall desire. ⁷ And when they shall have finished their testimony, ^p the beast ^q that cometh up out of the ^r abyss shall ^s make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. ⁸ And their ^t dead bodies lie in the street of the ^u great city, which spiritually is called ^v Sodom and ^w Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. ⁹ And from among ^x the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations do ^y men look upon their ^z dead bodies three days and a half, and ^{aa} suffer not their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. ¹⁰ And ^{ab} they that dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and make merry; and they shall ^{ac} send gifts one to another; because these ^{ad} two prophets tormented ^{ae} them that dwell on the earth. ¹¹ And after the three days and a half ^{af} the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them that beheld them. ¹² And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, ^{ag} Come up hither. And they ^{ah} went up into heaven in the cloud; and their enemies beheld them. ¹³ And in that hour there was a great ^{ai} earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads seven diadems. 4 And his tail draweth the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon standeth before the woman that is about to be delivered, that when she is delivered he may devour her child. 5 And she was delivered of a son, a man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and unto his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her a thousand and two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going forth to war with the dragon; and the dragon warred and his angels; 8 and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. 10 And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, who accuseth them before our God day and night. 11 And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony; and they loved not their life even unto death. 12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe for the earth and for the sea: because the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman that brought forth the man child. 14 And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderlous, ^hseven angels having ⁱseven plagues, which are ^kthe last, for in them is finished the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a ⁹sea of glass mingled with fire; and them that ^mcome off victorious from the ⁿbeast, and from ^ohis image, and from the ^pnumber of his name, standing ¹⁰by the ⁹sea of glass, having ^qharps of God. 3 And they sing the ^rsong of Moses ^sthe ¹¹servant of God, and the ^tsong of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvellous are thy works, ^vO Lord God, the Almighty; righteous and true are thy ways, thou ^xKing of the ¹²ages. 4 ^yWho shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for ^zall the nations shall come and ³worship before thee; for thy ^arighteous acts have been made manifest.

5 And after these things I saw, and ^bthe ⁶temple of the ^ctabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: 6 and there ^dcame out from the ⁶temple the ^eseven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed ¹³with ^fprecious stone, pure and bright, and ^ggirt about their breasts with golden girdles. 7 And one of the ^hfour living creatures gave unto the ⁱseven angels seven ^jgolden bowls full of the ^kwrath of God, who ^lliveth ¹⁴for ever and ever. 8 And the ⁶temple was filled with ^msmoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none was able to enter into the ⁶temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

16 And I heard a great voice out of ^bthe ⁶temple, saying to the ^cseven angels, Go ye, and ^dpour out the ^eseven bowls of the wrath of God unto the earth.

3 And the second poured out his bowl ^ainto the sea; and ¹it became blood as of a dead man; and every ³living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.

4 And the third poured out his bowl into the ^arivers and the fountains of the waters; ^aand ¹it became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, ⁹Righteous art thou, ^bwho art and who wast, thou ⁴Holy One, because thou didst thus ⁵judge: 6 for they poured out ⁷the blood of saints and prophets, and ^mblood hast thou given them to drink: they are worthy. 7 And I heard ⁿthe altar saying, Yea, O ^oLord God, the Almighty, ^ptrue and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth poured out his bowl upon ^qthe sun; ^rand it was given unto ^sit to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat: and they ^tblasphemed the name of God who hath the power over these plagues; and they ^urepented not to ^vgive him glory.

10 And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the ^wthrone of the beast; and his kingdom was ^xdarkened; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, ^yand they ^zblasphemed the ^{aa}God of heaven because of their pains and their ^{bb}sores; and they ^{cc}repented not of their works.

The "Mystery" of the Scarlet Woman and Beast interpreted.

The Fall and Desolation of Babylon: its Extent;

^a scarlet-colored beast, ¹ full of ^b names of blasphemy, having ^c seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman ^d was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and ^e decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand ^f a golden cup full of abominations, ^g even the unclean things of her fornication, ^h and upon her forehead a name written, ⁱ MYSTERY, ^j BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF ^k THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the ^l blood of the saints, and with the blood of the ^m martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder. 7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the ⁿ mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the ^o seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that thou sawest ^p was, and is not; and is about to ^q come up out of the ^r abyss, ^s and to ^t go into perdition. And ^u they that dwell on the earth shall ^v wonder, ^w they ^x whose name hath not been written ^y in the book of life ^z from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that ^{aa} he was, and is not, and ^{ab} shall come. 9 ^{ac} Here is the ^{ad} mind that hath wisdom. The ^{ae} seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: 10 and ^{af} they are seven ^{ag} kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while. 11 And the beast that ^{ah} was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he ^{ai} goeth into perdition. 12 And the ^{aj} ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, ^{ak} for one hour. 13 These have ^{al} one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the beast. 14 These shall ^{am} war against the Lamb, and the Lamb shall ^{an} overcome them, for he is ^{ao} Lord of lords, and ^{ap} King of kings; and ^{aq} they also shall over-

21 And ^{au}a ^{av}strong angel ^{aw}took up a stone as it were a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Babylon, ^{ax}the great city, be cast down, and shall be found no more at all. 22 And ^{ay}the voice of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, ^{az}of whatsoever craft, shall be found any more at all in thee; and the ^{ba}voice of a mill shall be heard no more at all in thee; 23 and the light of a lamp shall shine no more at all in thee; and the ^{bb}voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy ^{bc}merchants were the princes of the earth; for ^{bd}with thy sorcery were all the nations deceived. 24 And in her was found the ^{be}blood of prophets and of saints, and of ^{bf}all that have been slain upon the earth.

19 After these things I heard as it were a ^{bg}great voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, ^{bh}Hallelujah; ^{bi}Salvation, and ^{bj}glory, and power, belong to our God: 2 for ^{bk}true and righteous are his ^{bl}judgments; for he hath judged the ^{bm}great harlot, her that corrupted the earth with her fornication, and he hath ^{bn}avenged the blood of his ^{bo}servants at her hand.

and for the word of God, and such as ^{1a}worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the ^{1b}mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they ^clived, and ^dreigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. ^eThis is the first resurrection. 6 ^fBlessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the ^gsecond death hath no ^hpower; but they shall be ⁱpriests of God and of Christ, and shall ^jreign with him ^ka thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be ^lloosed out of his prison, 8 and shall come forth to ^mdeceive the nations which are in the ⁿfour corners of the earth, ^oGog and Magog, to ^pgather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the ^qsand of the sea. 9 And they ^rwent up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the ^scamp of the saints about, and the ^tbeloved city: and ^ufire came down ^vout of heaven, and devoured them. 10 And ^wthe devil that ^xdeceived them was cast into the ^ylake of fire and brimstone, where are also the ^zbeast and the ^{aa}false prophet; and they shall be ^{ab}tormented day and night ^{ac}for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white ^{ad}throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face ^{ae}the earth and the heaven fled away; and ^{af}there was found no place for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the ^{ag}great and the small, standing before the throne; and ^{ah}books were opened: and another book was opened, which is ^{ai}the book of life: and the dead ^{aj}were judged out of the things which were written in the books, ^{ak}according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and ^{al}death and Hades ^{am}gave up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every man ^{an}according to their works. 14 And ^{ao}death and Hades were cast into ^{ap}the lake of fire. This is the ^{aq}second death, ^{ar}even the lake of fire. 15 And if any was not found written in ^{as}the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

the Words of this Book." Final Testimony, Invitation, Warning, Promise. Benediction

I heard and saw, ^aI fell down to ¹worship before the feet of the angel that showed me these things. 9 And ^ahe saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am a ^bfellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren the prophets, and with them that keep the words of ^cthis book: ¹worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, ^aSeal not up ^cthe words of the prophecy of this book; ^cfor the time is at hand. 11 ^jHe that is unrighteous, let him do unrighteousness ²still: and he that is filthy, let him be made filthy ²still: and he that is righteous, let him do righteousness ²still: and he that is holy, let him be made holy ²still. 12 Behold, ^jI come quickly; and my ^{3h}reward is with me, ⁱto render to each man according as his work is. 13 I am the ^kAlpha and the Omega, ⁱthe first and the last, ^mthe beginning and the end. 14 Blessed are they that ⁿwash their robes, that they may have ⁴the right to come to ^othe tree of life, and may ⁿenter in by the ^{5a}gates into the city. 15 ^rWithout are the ^sdogs, and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and every one that loveth and ⁶maketh a lie.

List of Biblical Names,

WITH FIGURES AND LETTERS INDICATING THEIR SITUATION ON THE MAPS.

NOTE.—Figures in bold type indicate the numbers of the Maps; the other figures and letters denote the squares of the Maps where the places are to be found:—thus, Antioch (in Syria)—4 - 2 A; 12 - 2 G—appears on Map 4 in the square 2 A, and on Map 12 in the square 2 G.

The Publishers have to acknowledge the help given by Professor Sayce in preparing the Map of the Ancient World and the Map of Egypt and Sinai; Colonel Conder, R.E., who has edited the Maps of Palestine, Jerusalem, and Assyria; Sir Charles Wilson, who has prepared the Map illustrating the Travels of St. Paul; and George Armstrong, Esq., Secretary to the Palestine Exploration Fund, who has given the use of photographs of his raised Map of Palestine.

The Maps in NELSON'S BIBLE ATLAS have been specially prepared and engraved from the latest surveys.
